

Rotterdam

Rotterdam Vacation Rentals

What country shapes the urban into art? That would be Rotterdam, the second most populated city of the Netherlands, but by no means the second best. Its artistic landscape invites wonder from the window of your apartment.

Rotterdam vacation rentals are stylish and up-to-date, offering central heating perfect for chilly winters. They retain the quaint style that attracts tourists to Europe.

When you explore Rotterdam, you will find the locals are friendly and your neighbors are helpful and inviting.

The locals are mostly not affiliated with any religion. That said, apartments for rent in Rotterdam will be close to any church, mosque or synagogue if you choose to visit.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Rotterdam

Those who live in Rotterdam, LOVE Rotterdam, and shape it with a richness that empowers your vacation experience. Let's take a look what they have on offer:

The Rotterdam International Film Festival pushes creative boundaries, and only a ten minute walk from popular apartment rentals.

Rotterdam Ahoy Festival attracts international artists, sports professionals and celebrities. It is only a 20 minute drive from popular accommodation in Rotterdam.

The North Sea Jazz Festival is the perfect summertime activity to get your groove on. It is also located at the Ahoy venue, so you won't have to worry about noise pollution.

Rotterdam is an international hub for the creative arts.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Rotterdam

Rotterdam is an urban forest of architectural marvels.

Find comfort in the odd things with Rotterdam's cube houses. Be dazzled by the lights and colors of Markthal. Witness the first skyscraper of the world, named the White House.

Rotterdam holiday rentals are just round the corner from all these places. Most apartments in Rotterdam are situated by the Nieuwe Maas river. From there, it is only a four minute walk to the White House or eight minutes to the cube houses.

Rotterdam's unique modern wonders complete the package when visiting the Netherlands.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Rotterdam is Europe's largest seaport and is the perfect destination for ferrying or taking a water taxi down the Nieuwe Maas.

If you stay at Hotel New York, one of many famous holiday lettings in Rotterdam, you will be staying in the old headquarters of Holland-America Line where thousands of emigrants departed from Europe to the U.S.

Rotterdam is also home to a wide range of restaurants such as Vader Kleinjan Cafe, Gastrobar Hartig and The Meatclub. They that have food to die for, but it is the intimacy and friendliness of the staff that is the defining feature of these restaurants.

The Hague

The Hague Vacation Rentals

The Hague is brimming with political culture. It is home to both the Netherlands' parliament and the International Court of Justice.

It is the third-largest city in the Netherlands and offers something for everyone. From sunny beaches to scenic parks and historical buildings, The Hague is a city sketched in beauty. It is no wonder why holiday lettings in The Hague are so popular.

There are over 80,000 people in The Hague with many identifying with Christianity and Islam. The Hague has a proud history of religious acceptance and respect for faith. Regardless of religion, you will feel welcomed in The Hague.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in The Hague

There are many popular festivals in The Hague that attract a global audience.

The Liberation Festival occurs on May 5th. It hosts a variety of live performances, including a surprise celebrity that arrives on a helicopter. The festival is in Malieveld and only a ten minute drive from the most booked accommodations in The Hague.

The Dutch Beer Tasting Festival takes place in May in a church called Grote Kerk. If you are searching for apartments for rent in The Hague, then this festival is perfect for you as Grote Kerk is in the city center. It has a relaxed atmosphere with over 250 beers to choose from.

Choose The Hague Holiday Rentals to See Binnenhof and the Peace Palace

If you want to learn about the history and culture of the Netherlands, then The Hague is the must-see city for tourists.

Binnenhof is The Hague's parliament and not easy to miss. Its Gothic style warps you back in time. It is also easily accessible, which means you might see members of Parliament performing their daily routines.

The Peace Palace is a stunning sight and teems with history. It is here where the International Court of Justice resolves global disputes between countries.

The most popular of The Hague's holiday rentals are in the city center and are only a five minute walk from Binnenhof and the Peace Palace.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

There are many popular restaurants close to the city center, such as Restaurant Publique and Restaurant De Basiliek. You'll find these restaurants to be daring in their flavors. The recipes all come into their own, making for a fresh and exciting dining experience.

The good news is that holiday lettings in The Hague are just around the corner from all the unique and stylish restaurants. And if fancy dining is not your style, there are also plenty of quaint cafes and pubs, such as 't Hoekpandje, that are perfect for a post-shopping break.

Rome

Rome Vacation Rentals

Rome is usually on the top of a traveler's to-do list, and for good reason. It is a city of marble structures and ancient ruins. It is warm enough in the summer time, and never too cold in the winter. This makes Rome a perfect choice for vacation rentals with outdoor patios.

Rome's population stands at 2.9 million and is the third most populated city in the European Union.

The people of Rome are mostly Christian, which is no surprise, since Rome has shaped and guided the Catholic faith since its inception.

If you're looking for holiday lettings in Rome, then this page is perfect for you.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Rome

Look to the skies on June 2nd and you will see military jets swirling across a green, white and red sky.

Republic Day is an annual holiday that celebrates Italy's suffrage from facism. It is a unforgettable day which can add flavor to your holiday plans.

The Feast of San Giovanni also takes place in June and has parades, wrestling, soccer, rugby, historical reenactments and fireworks. There's so much to on this day, so be sure to plan carefully.

If you're looking for apartments for rent in Rome, make sure to experience these unforgettable street festivals that will your stay in the city truly unique.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Rome

Rome is etched in history. Step onto old pavements outside any of Rome's vacation rentals, and you'll be surrounded by ancient buildings that have lasted for centuries.

Then take a stroll through history.

Your destination might be the Colosseum, arguably Rome's most iconic landmark. It has endured throughout the centuries to tell tales of bloodthirsty gladiators, executions and mythological dramas. It is a must-see for history buffs.

There is also the Pantheon and the Trevi Fountain. Breathtakingly beautiful and extremely popular. Make sure to get there early to beat the crowds.

Wherever you go in Rome, history and culture will follow you.

Homes & Cottages in Rome

Rome Vacation Rentals often adopt the city's cultural and historical style. Walls decorated with neoclassical art, overhanging plants and decorative columns are common features in homes around the city.

After booking your rental, there are many food options to explore in Rome. Romantic restaurants such as Vulio, Roscioli Salumeria con Cucina, and The Loft offer delicious cuisines and a soothing ambience. They are not too far from the main landmarks and have menus with reasonable prices.

Regardless of your restaurant choice, most booked apartments in Rome are intertwined with the beauty and splendor of the city center.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered within a larger white space.

Athens

Athens Vacation Rentals

Athens vacation rentals will be your first step into an ancient city, where democracy and philosophy were born. From there, you'll reconnect with history, and find yourself taken by a land of gods and goddesses.

The majority of Athenians identify with the Greek Orthodox Christian Church, with over 90% of Greeks sharing the same faith. Athens melds its architectural landscape with ancient architecture and Christian churches, giving you plenty of opportunities to delve deep into Athen's religious culture.

In Athens, temperatures usually never go higher than 33C in the summer, nor lower than 5C in the winter. This makes Athens a perfect climate for warmth and relaxation.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Athens

Athens keeps its cultural legacy alive with so many festivals to choose from. Book your Athens holiday rental around these three popular festivals.

Athens Epidauros Festival: One of the oldest festivals in Europe, head to the ancient theater Epidauros and indulge in classic plays, modern art and live performances.

Art Athina: With a vast gallery of contemporary art from Greece and abroad, this is your chance to seem some thought-provoking masterpieces, strengthening your respect for the arts.

Athens Street Food Festival: Cheeseburgers, rice bowls, burritos, cakes, ice cream, beer and so much more. This food festival teases your appetite and is located in Ermou, Athen's most popular shopping street.

Choose Athens Holiday Rentals to See Parthenon and Temple of Zeus

Discover a land pulsating with historical monuments, all less than a ten minute walk to most booked accommodation in Athens.

Acropolis of Athens/Parthenon: Athen's crown jewel, it's a citadel that symbolizes ancient greek culture and democracy. It's in the heart of the city, and only a ten minute drive from popular apartments for rent in Athens.

Temple of Olympian Zeus: The gold and ivory statue of Zeuz is no longer with us but its temple will capture your imagination, pulling you into a world of myths and legends.

Panathenaic Stadium: A stadium completely made out of marble, this was the place where the first modern Olympics were held.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Whether you're feasting on Moussaka, or Greek salad, these restaurants have signature flavors that define Greek cuisine, with popular holiday lettings in Athens just round the corner.

Ατίταμος: The destination that the locals go for authentic meals like octopus salad or manouri. If you're not sold on Greek food, then head here to be converted.

Karamanlidika: This restaurant has resurrected the cuisine of the Karamanlides, where Greek and Turkish flavors come together to make powerful, mouth-watering tastes, served with traditional Greek wine.

Savvas: A rooftop view of Parthenon and a mound of food on your plate, it's no surprise that this restaurant is a popular tourist destination.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered against a white background.

Kuala Lumpur

Kuala Lumpur Vacation Rentals

Kuala Lumpur is the beating heart of Asia, where cultures come together to give you the best of Malaysia, China and India. Kuala Lumpur vacation rentals are located among the colorful skyscrapers and green spaces that define the city's charm.

With a population of 1.8 million, this bustling metropolis is home to a diverse mix of faith. Islam, Buddhism and Hinduism are the dominant religions, with landmarks to explore such as the National Mosque of Malaysia or the Sri Maha Mariamman Temple.

Kuala Lumpur is a city sprung from a jungle rainforest, so grab your raincoat and sunglasses, and get ready to bask in the warmth.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kuala Lumpur

Kuala Lumpur is a melting pot of cultural festivities that are scattered throughout the year. Here are the festivals that make accommodation in Kuala Lumpur skyrocket.

Thaipusam Festival: Kuala Lumpur is the best location in Asia to witness this festival of devotion and bodily mutilation. Head to Batu caves and watch the pilgrimage all the way to city.

Chinese New Year: Celebrate with fireworks and firecrackers the biggest holiday of the year. Head to Petaling Street Chinatown decorated in red lanterns, or discover the many temples spotted around the city.

Bon Odori Festival: Head to Matsushita Sports Centre, and experience Taiko drumming, eat Japanese food and learn about Japanese culture.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Rotterdam

Kuala Lumpur is a city that's overflowing with iconic landmarks that are sure to take your breath away. With so many Kuala Lumpur holiday rentals available, you'll never be far from the action.

Petronas Twin Towers: Bask in splendor as you witness the tallest twin towers in the world. The Petronas Towers are an example of urban beauty, and popular apartments for rent in Kuala Lumpur are just a couple minutes walk away.

Batu Caves: A spiritual experience that will immerse you into an exotic landscape. The caves are a 30 minute drive from most booked accommodation in Kuala Lumpur.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Kuala Lumpur is a city bursting with cultural cuisines which means you'll get to eat the best of Malay, Chinese and Indian. Here are four restaurants close to popular holiday lettings in Kuala Lumpur.

Bijan Bar & Restaurant: Heavenly Malay food that has an array of Asian flavors to get addicted to.

THIRTY8 Restaurant, Bar & Lounge: Balanced flavors, fancy cocktails and a stunning view of the Petronas towers.

Old Shanghai: Enter an ambience of Asian delights as you munch on dumplings, curry, and more.

Gajaa at 8: Rich Indian food that comes in abundance, this restaurant is popular among locals and tourists alike.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Mauritius

Mauritius Vacation Rentals

Mauritius is an island that's overflowed with colorful and hypnotizing beauty. With blue skies all-year round, rainbow coral reefs and crimson sunsets, Mauritius will set you to relaxation mode.

With so many villas, cottages or beach-side apartments to choose from, Mauritius vacation rentals will add an extra layer of bliss to your vacation.

Mauritius has a tiny population of 1.3 million, yet offers a wide range of diversity, accompanied by religious and cultural festivals. Whether you're lighting candles during Diwali or setting fireworks off during Chinese Spring Festival, you'll learn how to celebrate the island's faith, and have fun along the way.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Mauritius

Mauritius' cultural fabric is woven into their festivals, shaping your vacation into a soulful and awe-inspiring memory.

1. Lunar New Year: Dancing dragons and red lanterns make for an enchanting night as the Chinese celebrate their biggest holiday.
2. Diwali: The Festival of Lights is a celebration of good verses evil, where many apartments for rent in Mauritius are lit up like stars.
3. La Fête de la Musique: Immerse yourself in the rhythmic drumming of sega, or dance to new beats and new sounds from all over the world.

Be sure to look at accommodation in Mauritius sooner than later, as they can book out during these festivals.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Mauritius

Mauritius is a beautiful island, filled with scenic sights that nurture your love for nature.

1. The Seven Colored Earths of Chamarel: This multi-colored rock formation will make you think it was manmade. It's only a ten minute drive from accommodation in Chamarel.
2. The Black River Gorges National Park: Lose yourself in a wondrous park of plateaus and waterfalls. It is 20 minutes from Black River's vacation rentals.
3. The Pamplemousses Botanical Garden: Amble around a paradise of giant water lilies and colorful flora. The garden is north of the island, and only 10 mins from the nearest Pamplemousses vacation rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Holiday lettings in Mauritius are always close to the restaurants, and offer a wide range of cultural cuisines.

1. Escale Créole restaurant créole Ile Maurice: Feel like you're eating food straight from a Mauritius household with this restaurant's traditional cuisine. They accentuate all their flavors, making you lick your lips for more.
2. Roots: Kickback your heels with this relaxed, plant-filled restaurant, offering comfort foods like pasta or salads. The owners are friendly, and attentive to your needs.
3. Le Pescatore: The perfect beach restaurant where you can watch palm trees sway and the ocean waves glide. They serve delicious seafood and palm heart, among other traditional dishes.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Mayotte

Mayotte Vacation Rentals

Mayotte is a tropical island that has kept its cultural shine, and has protected its sealife. It offers exotic habitats on land, and in the sea, that makes you feel like you're in an alien world.

The population is around 250,000 with 98% muslim. You'll be able to learn bout their faith by visiting Tsingoni Mosque or taking part in their festivals.

No matter what you do in Mayotte, you'll be unwinding in a tropical paradise with sunshine and blue skies. The best time to visit would be the cooler dry season (Nov-April). Mayotte vacation rentals are quickly booked during this season so it's important to book in advance.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Mayotte

Tourists will feel the beating heart of Mayotte during festival season as they celebrate with dancing, music and traditional cuisine.

Fête de la Mer is a celebration of marine life. Race in the pirogue races, play beach games or shop for traditional crafts. This is an important time to raise awareness about the environment.

Fête de la Transhumance is a festival that moves livestock to the lowerlands. As a tourist, you can watch the parades and learn more about the transhumance tradition.

Karta offers apartments for rent in Mayotte that will be close to the action.

Choose Mayotte Holiday Rentals to See Nature Reserves

The island's unique habitats will take you on a journey that will shape your understanding of nature.

Marine Natural Park is the sea around the island. It's a popular destination for snorkeling and diving, and for good reason. The park's biodiversity means you'll swim among sea turtles and dolphins.

Réserve Forestière de Songoro Mbili is the national park that is only 20 minutes from Mamoudzou, the island's most popular hub for Mayotte holiday rentals. You'll enter a beautiful habitat, filled with strange animals from the elegant Mayotte Drongo bird to the color-changing Chameleons.

The most popular holiday lettings in Mayotte are less than an hour away from these nature reserves.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

The good news about exploring a small island is that apartments for rent in Mayotte are close to all the restaurants and cafes.

1. Le Faré: Wonderful cuts of meat, pasta with shrimp and moments of tranquility, as you rest under palm trees, beside the soothing ocean waves.
2. Hippocampe restaurant: An explosion of wonderful flavors and a fantastic presentation on the plate. Many would consider this restaurant to be one of the best in Mayotte.
3. Crêperie La Bigoudene: Friendly staff and hearty meals, this restaurant is a perfect place to rest, offering a wide variety of food on their menu.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Mexico

Mexico Vacation Rentals

Mexico speaks with its own cultural voice, attracting tourists who flock there for beach trips, Aztec history or to try out their chimichangas, burritos, tacos, fajitas, and many other delicious cuisines.

The climate in Mexico is warm and tropical, where the sun dances with the sea and the colors of the earth come alive. Imagine waking up to the sun's warmth on your face, while staying in one of the many Mexico's vacation rentals.

Mexico's population is 130 million, with the majority of Mexicans being Catholic. The grandeur of their faith is shown through landmarks such as the Templo de Santo Domingo and Iglesia de Santa María Tonantzintla.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Mexico

Mexico's festivals are a feast for the senses and a window into the country's rich culture and traditions. From vibrant parades and traditional dance performances to delicious local cuisine and ancient rituals, it's no surprise that demand for accommodation in Mexico is high during these celebrations.

1. Day of the Dead: Tourists can participate in ancient rituals and colorful parades that honor the dead.
2. The Guelaguetza Festival in Oaxaca: Visitors can enjoy traditional dance performances and music, as well as sample delicious local cuisine.
3. The Monarch Butterfly Migration: Tourists can witness the annual migration of millions of monarch butterflies in Michoacán.

Choose Mexico Holiday Rentals to See Aztec Pyramids

Mexico's relationship with Aztec history is deep and mysterious. You will learn about an ancient civilisation that captures your imagination, exciting your mind with wonder.

Teotihuacan: Delve into a unique history, with this well-preserved city of stone pyramids. An hours drive from apartments for rent in Mexico.

Chichen Itza: One of seven wonders of the world. It's a 2 hours drive from Cancun, and is a great opportunity to learn about Mayan culture.

Tulum is an archaeologist's dream, and a tourist's chance to go back in time. It's an ancient Mayan port town that is 20 minutes from Mexico's holiday rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

You haven't tried real Mexican until you've been to Mexico. We have our top three picks for insanely delicious Mexican grub.

El Cardenal, Mexico City: The kind of food that comes with a kick. Bolillos, omelets, hot chocolate, chilaquiles and more. The food choices are endless, and sensational.

Taqueria La Chiapaneca, Tulum: Serving beef and chicken tacos that are quick and scrumptious. This restaurant is your first choice when visiting Tulum.

Porfirio's Cancún, Cancun: This place is delightfully beside the ocean, filled with atmosphere and serves fajitas with dancing skeletons.

You can find all these restaurants close to any of the popular holiday lettings in Mexico.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Moldova

Moldova Vacation Rentals

Moldova is a country shaped by its rolling hills and vintage vineyards. It'll satisfy your desire for broadening the mind and getting a taste of European life.

The population of Moldova is around 3 million, the majority of which are Orthodox Christians. Tourists can go on a pilgrimage to the dome-shaped Christian monasteries and churches. They are wonderfully picturesque and something out of a fairytale.

The climate in Moldova is moderate, with warm summers and mild winters, so you can book for accommodation in Moldova at any time of the year. Whether you're looking for a peaceful retreat or an action-packed adventure, Moldova will make you addicted to traveling.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Moldova

Moldova's festivals are steeped in tradition, offering tourists insight into the vibrant character of the country.

Wine Festival, Chisinau: Sip on over 60 different kinds of authentic wine, and gobble on Plăcintă with cottage cheese. The most popular festival is located in Cathedral Park, in the middle of all the popular Chisinau's holiday rentals.

The National Folklore Festival: History comes to life in this rustic display of live music, craft fairs and costume parades. It takes place in Chisinau and is a great opportunity to learn about Moldova's culture.

Second Christmas: Christmas is also celebrated on January 7th, which means double the presents and double the roasted pork.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Moldova

Moldova's historical gems are brimming with knowledge.

Orheiul Vechi Monastery: Break away from the city noise and journey into a medieval monastery that's carved into a cliff face. It's about a 30-minute drive from apartments for rent in Chisinau.

National Museum of Ethnography and Natural History: This museum will quench your thirst for learning as it teaches you politics, art, geology, and much more. It is a 5 minute drive to the nearest holiday lettings in Chisinau.

Soroca Fort: Overlooking the Dniester River, this medieval building is an intelligent and symmetric marvel. It's a 10 minute walk from Soroca's vacation rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Moldovian restaurants offer fruity wines, fresh meats and hearty soups, coming together for a tasteful restaurant experience.

Kozlovna Ceska Pivni Restaurace, Chisinau: The best place for traditional Moldovian cuisine, with fresh ingredients and a lively atmosphere. Test your eating skills with the two patty burger.

Pegas Terrace & Restaurant, Chisinau: The Kiev cakes are the best cakes you'll ever eat. The soup is mouth-wateringly good and the restaurant is close to the most popular holiday lettings in Moldova.

Toscana, Tiraspol: The kind of food that hits you in all the right places, from juicy rib-eye steak to fresh sushi. This restaurant offers a lot of food and a lot of character.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Mongolia

Mongolia Vacation Rentals

Mongolia is a land of endless horizons, where the sky meets the steppe in a never-ending dance. Be inspired by the vast landscapes and the friendly faces of the Mongolian people.

Mongolians mostly follow Buddhism, and share a deep spiritual connection to the land. Their nomadic heritage can be felt from the yurt to the gliding eagle. Nature and spirituality are one in Mongolia.

The climate in Mongolia can be harsh but also incredibly beautiful, with long, cold winters and short, warm summers. With a population of only 3 million, imagine waking up to a cozy Mongolia vacation rental and venturing into a land largely untouched by urban planning.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Mongolia

Adventure and tradition come together during Mongolian festivals, giving you a deeper understanding of nomadic life.

Naadam Festival: Learn archery and wrestling in the Naadam Center, 20 minutes from the most popular accommodation in Ulaanbaatar.

Eagle Festival: The tradition of hunting with eagles goes back centuries, inspiring you to connect with nature. Book a flight to Bayan-ulgii to get there.

Thousand Camel Festival: Parade around on a camel, watch camel riders compete with mallets and a ball, and dance with the locals in the culture hall. This festival is booked up fast so don't wait too long when booking one of Mongolia's holiday rentals.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Mongolia

Mongolia shows the best of nature, with so many natural wonders to choose from.

The Gobi Desert: Dine with the nomads, cozy up in a yurt and experience a crimson sunset as you dismount from your camel. Start your adventure in a holiday letting in Dalanzadgad.

The Orkhon Valley: Find apartments for rent in Ulaanbaatar. From there, it's a few hours drive to endless grass, hill ranges, beautiful waterfalls and ancient ruins.

Turtle Rock: A stunning display of earthly craft, this rock looks like a titan-sized turtle. Located in Gorkhi-Terelj National Park, a few hours from Ulaanbaatar.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Mongolia is a country of nomads who have a strong tradition of eating at home. That said, if you want to taste Mongolian cuisine, here are the best restaurants close to popular accommodation in Mongolia.

Modern Nomads: Traditional food like the mouth-watering mutton and steamy dumplings. The staff bring atmosphere as they dress up in traditional garb and find your future with ankle bones.

Mongolians: An authentic Mongolia restaurant with generous food servings and an outdoor sitting area. They serve both western food and Mongolian.

Asiana Buddha Vista: Get the best out of Mongolia, Japan and China in this quaint and rustic restaurant that has polite staff and reasonable prices.

Montenegro

Montenegro Vacation Rentals

There is no wrong place to be in Montenegro, a country that has beauty on every corner. You'll step into a wonder land of medieval villages, dense forests and sun-tipped mountains. Rest easy as Montenegro vacation rentals are just as beautiful as the country they reside in.

The population of Montenegro is around 620,000 with the majority believing in Christianity. Their faith has shaped their history, with buildings like Ostrog Monastery being a popular destination for tourists.

You'll have plenty of things to do in Montenegro as the Mediterranean climate along the coast is an ideal summer trip, whilst the mountains are a prime spot for winter sports.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Montenegro

Montenegro's festivals are a great way to immerse yourself into the culture and art scene of the country.

Sea Dance Festival, Buljarica: A music festival with over 100 international musicians, and voted one of the best festivals in Europe. Budva holiday rentals sell fast, with Old Town being a prime location.

The Kotor Art Festival: Arguably one of the most important festivals of the country. This summertime festival has over 200 programs. If you're renting holiday lettings in Montenegro, consider Kotor as your first choice.

Kotor Carnival: A great opportunity to see the city of Kotor come alive, with public parades of colorful costumes and traditional dances.

Choose Montenegro Holiday Rentals to See Budva Old Town and Ostrog Monastery

Montenegro cures your feverish desire to see the world, as it's home to grand landscapes and quaint villages.

The Ostrog Monastery: Known as the 'city in the sky', this holy monastery is carved into the cliff face. A magical, mood-enhancing view that is less than an hour's drive from accommodation in Niksic.

The Budva Old Town: Narrow, cobbled streets, stone buildings and quaint churches. Feel refreshed in one of many Old Town's charming villas.

Tara River Canyon: The canyon is an ideal spot for hiking and rafting. Drive two hours from Podgorica to Durmitor National Park. Once there, you'll find peace in a city of mountains and sapphire blue waters.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Restaurants with quaint atmospheres and heavenly food options are in abundance in Montenegro. Here are three close to apartments for rent in Montenegro.

Cesarica, Kotor: Tucked away down one of many Kotor's alleys is a quaint restaurant that serves fried octopus, stuffed squid and fish soup. The best option for seafood in the city.

Konoba 'Lanterna' Podgorica, Podgorica: A rustic, cozy restaurant that serves big portions, all well-priced and delicious. It is hidden away down a little street, but is dead center to the most popular Podgorica accommodations.

Pastabar, Old Town: Complete your scenic walk in Old Town with this picturesque restaurant serving hearty pasta dishes and fresh vegetables.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Mozambique

Mozambique Vacation Rentals

Mozambique is two vacations fit into one, with tropical beaches and mesmerizing safari rides, your schedule will be full of relaxing or exciting activities to sate your holiday desires.

With a population of 30 million people, Mozambique has a rich history of traditional African religions, with Islam and Christianity being the most popular. Now, Christianity shapes the lives of Mozambicans, offering insight for tourists to appreciate.

Mozambique vacation rentals will never be too far from the glittering sands, or the wildlife safaris, and with the warm climate all year round, there's never a bad time to visit Mozambique.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Mozambique

Are you a culture vulture? Foodie? Mozambique has an endless supply of fun activities, but we've narrowed down three that will effect rental bookings.

Independence Day: On June 25th, the Mozambicans celebrate their freedom with poetry, traditional dance and art. The main event can be found at Mozambique's National Stadium.

STRAB Festival: An exclusive music festival that plays subterranean rhythm and blues. What started off as a birthday party for a group of scuba divers has developed into a global designation for beach parting. Be sure to find apartments for rent in Mozambique beforehand.

Christmas: In Mozambique, families get together to sing a-capella African-style carols across the country. It's a magical experience not to be missed.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Mozambique

Mozambique is a paradise that just keeps on giving. With its soft sandy beaches, and exotic wildlife, you'll find peace when exploring, adventuring, and relaxing.

The Gorongosa National Park: In the heart of Mozambique, this safari will give you breathtaking views of the native African animals, providing education and memories you'll cherish forever. Book in Beira for accommodation in Mozambique.

The Quirimbas Archipelago: You'll pinch yourself, believing it's not real. Imagine drifting on a clear blue sea, snorkeling with dolphins or falling asleep to the sound of the ocean waves. These 32 tropical islands are heaven on earth. The closest popular Mozambique holiday rentals are in Pemba or Ibo District.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Mozambique is the hotspot for tantalizing seafood cuisines and stunning beach views. Feast your eyes on these three go-to food havens, close to any popular holiday lettings in Mozambique.

Maputo Waterfront: Stylish and serving well-seasoned seafood platters, this restaurant is a popular destination in Maputo. It boasts stunning views of the ocean, creating beautiful moments of relaxation.

Restaurant Costa de Sol: Beach-side seafood restaurant with crab curry and fish to die for. For extra holiday-unwinding-time, dine outside and be entertained by the live street music.

Restaurant Ancora d'Ouro: Situated on Mozambique Island, this restaurant has meals for all times of the day. They offer seafood, pizza and a quaint atmosphere.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Myanmar

Myanmar Vacation Rentals

Myanmar is a land of golden pagodas and ancient temples. Wake up to the sound of monks chanting and the smell of incense in one of Myanmar's vacation rentals. The first step in what will be a romantic, oriental adventure.

With a population of around 54 million, the majority of which are Buddhist, Myanmar offers a glimpse into nirvana. Visitors can meditate, take part in yoga classes, or visit one of many temples.

The climate in Myanmar is tropical with a dry season from November to April. A perfect time for ascending to the skies in a hot air balloon, where you'll marvel at Myanmar's golden landscape.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Myanmar

Experience spectacles of gold, lights and moments of inner fun. These festivals are so popular, you'll want to book holiday lettings in Myanmar as soon as possible.

Thingyan Festival: Behold colorful parades, water fights and face paintings as Myanmar comes alive. You'll be at your most fun when visiting at this time.

The Tazaungdaing Festival: The Myanmarese lift lights, hot air balloons and fireworks into the sky. This mind-dazzling festival ignites in you a dream-like experience.

The Phaung Daw U Festival: Golden boats sailing along Inle lake will be a defining moment in your travels. This spectacle on water will shape your vacation with a sense of uniqueness.

Choose Myanmar Holiday Rentals to See Pagodas and Temples

Myanmar offers hot air balloon trips through a sea of golden spires and a crimson sunset, broadening your desire to see earth's most beautiful places.

Here's where you need to be:

Shwedagon Pagoda: A thousand year-old pagoda that shines with two kinds of magic: at night, and during the day. It is a place where beauty and history meet. Only a 10 minute drive from popular Myanmar holiday rentals.

Old Bagan: Explore an ancient city of golden temples and pagodas. You'll feel like you're on a different world. Stay in New Bagan accommodation. From there, it's a 10 minute drive to Old Bagan.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Step into the world of Myanmar cuisine and be enticed by subtle, yet powerful flavors, influenced by Chinese, Indian, and Thai.

Shan Yoe Yar Restaurant: A wide-ranging menu from tea leaf salads to shaanxi noodles. Authentic, flavorful and all reasonably priced. A few minute's drive to popular accommodation in Myanmar.

Feel Myanmar Restaurant: Get the true experience of Myanmar, offering traditional cuisines in the style of a night market and food hall. Located in Yangon's city center.

Black Rose: A haven of delicious cuisine that attracts tourists and natives alike. A popular destination before your travels into Old Bagan, and surrounded by all the apartments for rent in New Bagan.

Namibia

Namibia Vacation Rentals

Namibia is a country of sun-kissed deserts where you'll cast away the familiar, and embark into the heart of Africa.

The population of Namibia is 2.5 million people. The main religion is Christianity, offering a cultural insight into Namibian way of life. But the true charm of Namibia comes from its natural beauty, where even in one of the many Namibia vacation rentals, you'll feel the aura of nature come alive.

With a hot climate and endless blue skies, Namibia is an ideal spot for basking in sunshine.

Its culture is an integral ribbon in the fabric of African life, and not to be missed when visiting Africa.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Namibia

Namibia offers you a tour into their art, music and history with many festivals celebrating Africa.

The Namibian Annual Cultural Expo: A celebration of diversity and social empowerment, where you can learn more about Namibian culture. It takes place in Sam Nujoma Stadium and will effect Namibia's holiday rentals north of Windhoek.

Bank Windhoek Art Festival: An important platform for establishing artists and musicians. This festival takes place around the city of Windhoek, and an opportunity to hear a wide range of musical flavors from Afropop, jazz to Afro beat and funk.

Africa Day: A day for celebrating freedom from colonial rule, Africa's important history and unity for the future.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Namibia

Namibia's stunning landscapes offer expeditions filled with outstanding beauty.

Sossusvlei: An unbelievable landscape of soft red dunes and dead trees scattered around the area. It's a few hours drive from holiday lettings in Windhoek.

Etosha National Park: A wildlife safari where you can see native African animals up close. Apartments for rent in Namibia are located either in the small towns like Okaukuejo, Halali, and Namuton that surround the park or a four hour drive from the capitol.

Fish River Canyon: A challenging hike into grand scenery, with a crimson sunset not to be missed. Closest accommodation can be found in Keetmanshoop (120km) or Lüderitz (200km).

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Namibia has some unique restaurants that are fan favorites for visitors and locals.

Joe's Beerhouse: Decorated in recycled antiques and offering amazing food with positive vibes. Joe's has become an institution in Namibia. Located east of Windhoek, around popular accommodation in Namibia.

Stellenbosch: A fantastic place to start your Namibia adventure, offering premium quality steak, and a flavorful wine selection. Located on the east side of Windhoek.

The Tug Restaurant: If you're looking to venture west to Langstrand, then we have a restaurant made from an old tug boat. Watch the ocean waves crash against the rock as you tuck into a delicious meal.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Nepal

Nepal Vacation Rentals

Nepal taps into your desire for exploring Asia, presenting picturesque moments from towering mountain peaks to lush jungles and ancient temples. Nepal vacation rentals reflects this diversity with Newari-inspired homes to Terai, all offering a tapestry of vibrant colors.

The population of Nepal is around 30 million, the majority of which are Hindu and Buddhist. Visit shrines or take part in Tihar, as this is an opportunity to develop your inner peace and your knowledge of the world.

The climate in Nepal changes depending on altitude. The mountains are cooler than the warmer temperatures of the lowland, though both parts of the country offer stunning visuals for an oriental vacation.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Nepal

From traditional to colorful, the land flourishes with exciting festivals, increasing demand for apartments for rent in Nepal.

Bisket Jatra festival: To start off the new year, villagers will play tug of war with a big chariot carrying a Bhairava statute. Feel the magic of the music and dance during this special time.

Rato Machindranath Jatra: Taking place in Lalitpur, this festival celebrates rain and fertility of crops. Experience a procession of towering chariots dragged through the streets.

Losar Festival: Losar means New Year and is a time where buddhist communities pray in temples, sing, dance and dress in traditional garb.

Your Holiday Rentals and Landmarks

Be enchanted by a land caught in the shadows of the Himalayas, or trek through a town of ancient wonder.

Mount Everest: You don't have to walk up Mt. Everest to make the most of it. Book a helicopter ride over the Himalayas or head to the base camp for some breathtaking views. The closest holiday lettings in Nepal for Mt. Everest are in Lukla, Namche Bazaar and Tingri.

Bhaktapur: Why have one ancient temple when you can have several? This city is history come alive, and an opportunity to take part in traditional festivals. Book one of Nepal's holiday rentals and wake up to culture right outside your window.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

From hearty dal bhat to steamy momos, Nepal has it all. We've picked three places close to the most booked accommodation in Nepal, offering flavor and atmosphere.

Thamel House Restaurant, Kathmandu: A sophisticated restaurant that serves authentic Nepali food in a scenic spot, decorated with plants and natural lighting.

Nepali Chulo Authentic Restaurant, Kathmandu: An ideal spot for tourists to get the traditional Nepali experience. The native folk dances give this place its charm.

Mayur Restro, Bhaktapur: A quaint cafe decorated in plants and wooden carvings. It's right next to a scenic square, offering ambience and relaxation.

New Caledonia

New Caledonia Vacation Rentals

Ever wondered where the postcard paradises are?

One of them is New Caledonia: A lush, tropical island surrounded by aquamarine waters. Its climate is a perfect escape from muggy, cold weather.

Imagine waking up to the warm breeze and the sound of the ocean waves. New Caledonia vacation rentals offer palm tree havens, thought about only in your dreams.

The population of New Caledonia are mostly Christian, with half of the population Catholic. You can find many beautiful churches dotted throughout the islands as you take in your moments of tranquility, and feel bliss.

New Caledonia is your ideal break from the world, and here's why.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in New Caledonia

New Caledonia holiday rentals in La Foa, Nouméa and Maré island are rampacked with excited tourists ready to start some of the wackiest, most fun activities in the country.

Avocado Festival, Maré: This festival isn't just about the avocado harvest. It involves dancing, live performances, singing, nature trail walking and boat trips on the lagoon. Perfect activities, perfect avocados.

Cheese Festival, Nouméa: The place to visit for delectable buffets of cheese. Award-winning cheese chefs serve over 100 types of cheese, and champagne for extra flavor.

Blackwoodstock Festival, Lo Foa: Punk, alternative, folk, hippie. This festival is full of spirt. If you're looking for a mental break, whilst jamming to some tunes, then this festival is for you.

Choose New Caledonia Holiday Rentals to See Heart of Voh and Tjibaou Cultural Centre

New Caledonia has paradise, and strange marvels you won't want to miss.

Heart of Voh: Hike up to Mount Kathépaïk and be rewarded with a loving revelation, that nature has made a heart in its vegetation. A marvel that questions the coincidences of life.

Accommodation in New Caledonia is spread out on the left side of the island, with closest rentals in Kone a 30 minute drive to Voh.

Tjibaou Cultural Centre: Art blended into nature, resembling the huts of the Kanak people. Learn about efforts to preserve native culture. Inspiring, and only a 10 minute drive from apartments for rent in New Caledonia.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

New Caledonia is home to appetizing French food, and vibrant beachside views.

Le Roof: The ocean comes to life as dolphins and sharks swim beside the deck. You can find accommodation in New Caledonia within walking distance.

Le Bout Du Monde: For a top notch pub atmosphere, head to this restaurant for large servings, cheap prices and friendly staff. It's on the left side of the Nouméa, close to the city's holiday homes.

Stone Grill: Concept dining at its finest. Watch your steak sizzle and pop on a hot stone in front of you. The most booked holiday lettings in New Caledonia are just round the corner.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Nicaragua

Nicaragua Vacation Rentals

Whether you're sandboarding down an active volcano or having a chocolate massage, Nicaragua is the home of exotic adventures and odd activities. It all starts with a Nicaragua vacation rental. From there, you'll be breaking the mold, and having laughs along the way.

The Nicaraguan's Christian faith and love for their country go hand-in-hand, and can best summed up with the popular phrase: "I am totally Nicaraguan, by the grace of God." As a tourist, this is just one example of how you'll experience the vibrant character of the country.

The climate in Nicaragua is warm and tropical, with plenty of sunshine, and beautiful landscapes mottled with volcanos and lakes.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Nicaragua

Nicaragua celebrate their heritage and resistance against colonization with their festivals. Here is what you might wake up to when you book accommodation in Nicaragua.

Diriamba Festival: Celebrations of masked Saint Sebastián, where gun powder is fired and wind music is played. It's a great time to learn about colonial resistance.

Crab Soup Festival: This festival commemorates the end of slavery. It is an opportunity to try out their delicious crab soup, and take part in the parades.

Fiesta del Toro Venado: Similar to Halloween, Toro Venado is a celebration of myths and omens, where the townfolk make light of their ancestors, in what is known as 'street theater'.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Nicaragua

Nicaragua is a hotbed of active volcanoes and beautiful lakes, not too far from the most booked accommodations in the country.

Lake Nicaragua: Home to the world's fresh water sharks. It's a great spot to take in the stunning backdrop of Nicaragua's volcanoes.

Cerro Negro: Suit up in a boiler suit and surfboard down the youngest volcano in the world. Less than an hour's drive from León's vacation rentals.

Masaya Volcano: Book holiday lettings in Managua then drive 30 minutes south to this bubbling cauldron of lava. You can stand at the very edge of the crater, and bare witness earth's fury.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Expand your palette with the rich foods of Nicaragua. All the hallmarks of Mexican, but also blended together with Spanish and Native American cuisine. If you're looking for apartments for rent in Nicaragua, then explore these palette pleasing restaurants.

Cocina de Doña Haydée: In the center of Managua is a haven of comfort foods like steaks, stews and enchiladas. Big portions and reasonable prices.

Asados Doña Tania: Crunchy meat and savory flavors that melt on your tongue, this restaurant has serves authentic Nicaraguan food.

Mi Ranchito Sucursal Carretera a Masaya: A decorated hut with candle light and karaoke. This family style restaurant is a great pitstop between Managua and Masa.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Nigeria

Nigeria Vacation Rentals

Nigeria is the beating drum of Africa. Home to Afropop and the largest diversity of butterflies, Nigeria offers excitement and vibrant activities that will satisfy your vacation urges. Finding an apartment for rent in Nigeria is the first step in a vacation brimming with memories.

When it comes to faith, 53.5% of Nigerians believe in Islam, whereas 45.9 believe in Christianity. This equal divide on religion creates an interesting architectural landscape, with many mosques and churches for tourists to explore.

Nigeria's environment is a mix of rainforests and arid land, offering a unique biodiversity that makes for a wonderful venture into a hot, beautiful climate.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Nigeria

Whether you're dancing in the parades or learning about local customs, Nigeria's social fabric is best illustrated through its festivities. Consider booking accommodation early when these festivals take place.

Calabar Carnival: Africa's biggest street party is a month-long festival of parades, fashion shows, and performances from famous artists. This festival has a global reach, increasing demand for accommodation in Nigeria.

Argungu Fishing Festival: Located in Argungu, this festival commences the fishing season, with swimming competitions, showcases, canoe races and more.

Durbar Festival: Muslim men wearing traditional garb parade the streets on horseback. It's a fantastic display of horsemanship that will enrich your knowledge of Islam's cultural diversity.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Nigeria

Nigeria's landmarks are testament to its religion and its independence from colonial rule. We've marked the places that give life to Nigeria's beating heart.

Abuja National Mosque: A golden marvel pointed to the sky, this mosque displays Islam's cultural shine. Located in the heart of Abuja, it's only a few minute drive from popular Nigeria vacation rentals.

Cathedral Church of Christ: A neo-gothic relic, painted in pastel gray and white that's only a 20 minute drive from popular accommodation in Lagos.

Tafawa Balewa Square: A historical square where Nigeria first celebrated its independence. Located in the heart of Lagos.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Nigeria's restaurants empower your taste buds, broadening your appetite for African food.

NOK, Lagos: An African-style burger joint that has atmosphere you'll fall in love with. Its African flavors and contemporary style attracts natives and tourists alike. It's only a few minutes from popular Nigeria vacation rentals.

Yellow Chilli, Lagos: Feel the mouth-watering thrills of spicy cuisine in a dimly-lit, vibrant hangout. Fresh food and well-cooked, making you go back for more. Nigeria holiday rentals are just round the corner.

Jevinik Restaurant, Abuja: In the center of the city is a dining hall that offers heavenly-cooked food. Native Nigerian cuisine that's affordable and accompanied with a cozy dining experience.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Norfolk Island

Norfolk Island Vacation Rentals

A pine tree haven dotted in the Pacific Ocean, Norfolk Island is a beach vacation matched with a North American landscape. On top of that, the island boasts warm weather all year round, with temperatures ranging from 19C in winter to 25C in summer. Norfolk is your island getaway for full relaxation.

With a tiny population of 2,000 (62% are Christian), and a diameter of 34 km, finding apartments for rent in Norfolk Island will be a breeze. The people are friendly, adding to the island community charm, and there are plenty of things to do that will keep your mind occupied.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Norfolk Island

Norfolk vacation rentals are popular during the warm months of January and November, and a prime time to immerse in an island community experience. Here's why.

Bount Day: A festival celebrating the Pitcairn Islanders who once lived there. Watch the reenactments, roll down hills and feast at the Bounty Ball as you develop a unique bond with the Norfolk community.

Taste Norfolk Island: A food festival where you can unwind with the locals on a patch of grass, and snack on freshly made, 5 star cuisines.

Governor's Cup: The island's golf club hosts its annual competition, where you can bask in sunshine, dine with like-minded enthusiasts and watch the fun unfold.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Norfolk Island

Norfolk Island makes for a convenient day out as all its sightseeing opportunities are less than a 10 minute drive from Norfolk Island's holiday rentals.

Emily Bay: An ideal spot to snorkel with low tides, Emily Bay has mesmerizing turquoise waters that make you stay for hours.

Fletcher's Mutiny Cyclorama: A 3D interaction of Norfolk Island paintings, that will take you back in time and develop your knowledge of the island's origins.

Kingston and Arthur's Vale Historic Area: Learn about Norfolk Island's penal colony, as you step into a village untouched by modernity.

Mt. Pitt: A panoramic view of the entire island that takes your breath away.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

There are restaurants, cafes and bars just around the corner from any holiday lettings in Norfolk Island. We've narrowed down our top three that will give you the best of what the island has to offer.

The Olive: Right next to most book accommodation in Norfolk Island, this cafe has a quaint and cozy atmosphere and extensive brunch options.

The Homestead Restaurant: Thai style entrees with a vibrant atmosphere and friendly owners. It's a popular choice for the Islanders.

Black Anchor: If you're looking for excitement then this bar is a great place to catchup with friends, drink cocktails and snack on burgers and fries.

North Macedonia

North Macedonia Vacation Rentals

North Macedonia is a European treasure, enriched with religious culture and natural landscapes. 60% of North Macedonians are Christians, and 32% are Muslims. This cultural mix of faiths has painted the country in ancient monasteries, Byzantine churches and Ottoman mosques.

The small population of two million and the wide, uninhabited countryside make North Macedonia a perfect escape into nature. North Macedonia is also spotted with quaint, medieval villages and you'll find peace here, in a climate of four seasons.

When searching for apartments for rent in North Macedonia, you'll want to take advantage of the European country's romantic atmosphere and beautiful scenery. That's where we comes in.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in North Macedonia

North Macedonia showcases its rituals and customs, as you dive deep into North Macedonia's way of life. Lots of tourists book accommodation in North Macedonia during these times.

Christmas: Christmas comes twice in North Macedonia. Feel at ease with the crackling of a bonfire, as you relax alongside friendly folk, or munch on Christmas bread and find the lucky coin.

Summer Festivals: North Macedonia vacation rentals are hugely popular in the summer. With Galicnik, Ohrid and Skopje summer festivals, you'll develop your cultural knowledge, or learn about folk traditions.

Strumica Carnival: Take part in a masquerade ball and dress up in an extravagant costume.

Sightseeing Opportunities in North Macedonia

North Macedonia's landmarks are an opportunity to broaden your knowledge. Holiday lettings in North Macedonia are never too far from history.

Monastery of St. Naum: An architectural delight that is right beside the sea. It is a 40 minute drive from accommodation in Ohrid Охрид.

Church of Saint John the Theologian: Feast your eyes as the sun sets against the water, glistening the church in a golden light. It is close by accommodation in Ohrid Охрид.

Old Bazaar: Shop back in time with this quaint district of cafes, jewelry stores and antiques. The sellers won't hassle you and it's just round the corner from most book rentals in Skopje Скопје.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Plenty of popular North Macedonia holiday rentals are located in the capitol Skopje, alongside scenic restaurants with traditional cuisines.

Soul Kitchen: Relax on comfy couches beside the river as you snack on belly-filling lunch food. With so many choices to choose from, this is a great choice when visiting North Macedonia.

Skopski Merak: The kind of restaurant that has food baked in clay pots, you'll be getting the traditional dining experience, live music and a vibrant atmosphere.

Belvedere: If you're stopping in Ohrid, delight in grilled North Macedonian cuisine in this restaurant with a superb view of the lake.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Northern Mariana Islands

Northern Mariana Islands Vacation Rentals

Layback in a tropical oasis of crystal clear waters, uncover WWII mysteries, swim with dolphins, and find bliss under palm trees. That's the Northern Mariana Islands, redefining beach vacations.

The population of Northern Mariana Islands is 55,000, a majority of which follow the Catholic faith. You can learn about Catholicism, Buddhism and the folk religions by taking part in the festivities on the islands.

The subtropical climate of the Northern Mariana Islands, and they're year-round warm weather, makes it a perfect escape from cold climates. It starts here, by choosing one of many luxurious Northern Mariana Islands vacation rentals.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Northern Mariana Islands

Island fun, island memories. Apartments for rent in Northern Mariana Islands are hugely popular during these three festivals.

Tinian Hot Pepper Festival: A dedication to the island's hot pepper. A great time to see live entertainment, learn some crafts and try out the spicy native cuisines.

Annual Flame Tree Arts Festival: Held in Sugar King Park, this festival is a community-led celebration of art, music and dancing. This is the kind of island party you won't want to miss.

Marianas Cup Beach Volleyball Festival: Play against professional volleyball athletes in a festival that attracts volleyball-ers from all around the world. Accommodation in Northern Mariana Islands books fast in March.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Northern Mariana Islands

You'll explore islands brimming with natural beauty as you learn about WWII history.

The Grotto: Dive into crystal blue waters or get some steps in for an unforgettable snorkeling experience. A 20 minute drive from Northern Mariana Islands' holiday rentals.

The American Memorial Park: A peaceful tribute to the soldiers who lost their lives during WWII. Only a five minute drive from holiday lettings in Northern Marianas' Islands.

The Suicide Cliff: A historic site where Japanese soldiers jumped to their death during WWII. It's a 17 minute drive from the Grotto.

Tank Beaches: Snorkel through an underwater world of historical war tanks and tropical fish in an unforgettable beach experience.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

After a day of fun, you'll want to simmer down and restore some energy.

Here are three food joints to end the night, and they're not too far from accommodation in Northern Marianas' Islands.

Surf Club Saipan Restaurant: Huge food portions with a mixture of Asian and American cuisine. This restaurant boats a sunset glow, painting your vacation memories.

Naked Fish Bar & Grill: Locally sourced, fresh ingredients with a garlic fish to die for. A great place to hangout and try out local brews during happy hour.

Saltys: Devour every morsel of curry, seafood or grilled meat as you relax in a place that has a relaxing atmosphere and friendly staff.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Oman

Oman Vacation Rentals

Known as the last bastion of unspoiled Arabia, Oman is a land untouched by urban planning. When finding apartments for rent in Oman, your choices of extravagance and beauty will be endless.

Islam has shaped Oman into a country of Mosques made of marbled stone, and white or beige architecture. As a result, Oman is a glistening city with a romantic sheen.

The population of Oman is 4.5 million. Don't be surprised if you are invited into an Omanis' home, as they are extremely friendly and generous people, even to strangers or tourists.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Oman

Oman's festivities are tied to Islam, and are a time for celebrating and strengthening your Islamic faith. These are the most famous festivals in Oman that will effect your booking of Oman's vacation rentals.

Eid al-Fitr: Marking the end of a month-long fast, this Islamic festival turns Oman into a city of celebration as you take in the sights of golden decorations and jewelry.

Salalah Tourism Festival: Parades, culture shows, dances and more. This festival was made for you as you celebrate Oman's culture in Salalah.

Muscat Festival: You'll be jumping into a month-long festival filled with amazing activities from camel racing, acrobat performances to fireworks. Not to be missed.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Oman

Oman has stunning landmarks that look like movie sets. You'll be close to the action in your accommodation in Oman.

Sultan Qaboos Grand Masjid: An architectural marvel, woven into the heart of Muscat. Your first choice for feeling the beauty of Oman. 10 minute walk from Muscat accommodation.

Nizwa Fort: A historical landmark that looks too good to be true. Discover this sand-colored spectacle in Nizwar. Around the corner from the city's apartments.

Mutrah Souq: One of the oldest markets in the world and a 10 minute drive from popular Muscat rentals. This Bazaar sells garments, antiques and spices, perfect for family and friends back home.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Dining in Oman will be an experience that goes beyond the comforts of steak and fries. You'll receive an Arabian vibe that will broaden your appetite for exotic flavors.

Ubhar Restaurant, Muscat: Omani cuisines with a modern twist, this restaurant serves biryani with camel meat. Close to popular holiday lettings in Oman.

CHAR, Muscat: A dimly-lit lounge, serving BBQ beside a pool. If you're looking for a scenic, palm tree view, then this is your perfect choice as it's not too far from Oman's holiday rentals.

Al Aqur Traditional Restaurant: Omani cuisine served in an Arabian-decorated room. This restaurant is just around the corner from Nizwa Fort.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned on the left side of a light gray rectangular background, which is itself set against a white background.

Alabama

Alabama Vacation Rentals

Alabama is the heart of the American south, where your experiences are as sweet as iced tea. Exploring Alabama will be a journey of blue skies and frontier aesthetics as the climate is mild, and the summers are warm.

You'll be entering a world of BBQs and southern hospitality, with your Alabama vacation rental just like any other southern home: warm, rustic, and offering a perfect escape from the hustle and bustle of city life.

With a population of around 5 million, Alabamians are guided by their Christian faith. In fact, Alabama is considered one of the most Christian U.S states. This means you'll receive a kind and hospitable Christian greeting from neighbors, friends and passersby.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Alabama

Cowboy hats, rodeos and hot dogs; Alabama's festivals are a celebration of southern culture. Here's three in-demand festivals to consider when booking holiday lettings in Alabama.

The Hangout Music Festival: Tick off your beach festival fantasies with parties, palm tree hammocks, and rollerskate disco. This festival has it all, including a line-up of famous artists from Skrillex to Red Hot Chili Peppers.

The Alabama National Fair: Visit Alabama National Fair, a family-oriented event with carnival rides, livestock shows, and fair food like cotton candy and corn dogs.

Rock the South: Rock out with the good ol' dixie folk, at a music festival dedicated to all things country. It doesn't get more 'merica than this!

Sightseeing Opportunities in Alabama

A visit to Alabama is a journey into understanding American military, science and history. Here are three landmarks to expand your knowledge.

U.S. Space & Rocket Center: Broaden your horizons and discover the mechanisms of the rockets that took us to the moon. You'll embark on a day out of interactive exhibits that are fun for everyone. Many apartments for rent in Alabama are a ten minute drive from Huntsville.

USS Alabama: A museum inside a WWII battleship, giving you a deeper understanding of how technology shaped military history. Less than ten minutes from most booked Mobile rentals.

Vulcan Park and Museum: A hiking trail, a famous statue, a museum and a panoramic view of downtown Birmingham all in one. An easy walk if renting a Birmingham holiday rental.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

From sizzling BBQ grills to vintage saloons, Alabama's restaurants give you a truly unique American dining experience. And the good news is you'll never be too far from your accommodation in Alabama.

Dauphin's Casual Fine-Dining: Dine in style with a scene view of Mobile. You'll be greeted with courteous staff and served delicious platters like shrimp and grits.

Rattlesnake Saloon: A saloon inside a cave that serves southern cuisine, live music and scenic views. Rattlesnake Saloon redefines what you know about restaurant dining.

Freight House Restaurant: A railroad freight depot reinvented into a vintage, red-brick restaurant. It serves classic southern dishes such as fried chicken, collard greens and black-eyed peas.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Alaska

Alaska Vacation Rentals

Whether you're beholden to the Northern Lights, or wandering through a landscape of vast glaciers, Alaska is a true American adventure. Apartments for rent in Alaska share in this spirit, with cottages and cabins that place you in scenic bliss.

With a population of 700,000, Alaskans are mostly Christian, and split into many denominations. As a result, you'll learn about Alaska's religious ties with the settlers and the Russian Orthodox church.

Make sure to grab your coat when visiting Alaska, because the climate is as chilly as a bucket of ice. Find warmth in your cozy Alaska vacation rental, and be reminded of a simpler, more rustic life.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Alaska

Alaska is home to some of the most exotic and memorable festivals that attract people from all over the world. Here's three that increase accommodation demand.

Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race: Watch Alaskan huskies race through rugged terrain, frozen lakes, dense forests and blizzards. A celebration of Alaska's wilderness, this festival is an unmissable event when exploring Alaska.

Alaska State Fair: An event-for-all, where you can watch cowboys and cowgirls in the rodeo competitions, dance to live music, try out different food at the stalls, and watch people show off their gigantic pumpkins and cabbages.

World Ice Art Championships: Observe sculptors from around the world turn a block of ice into a shining masterpiece. This event attracts thousands of people and will affect bookings for Alaska holiday rentals.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Alaska

Alaska is an escape from civilisation, as you rest under the canopy of earth's beauty.

Denali National Park and Preserve: With scenic spots of glaciers and a sky lit up by the northern lights, visiting this park will feel like a blessing. A two hour drive from popular cabins in Trapper Creek.

Alaska Native Heritage Center: Explore life-sized replicas of a native village and learn about traditional culture with informative tour guides and live performances. Close by accommodation in Anchorage.

Katmai National Park and Preserve: Watch bears fish for salmon in Brooks river or take photographs of the park's active volcanoes. Get a boat from Anchor Point to reach this breathtaking display of mother nature.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Alaska's restaurants serve premium meat from the local game and home-grown produce. Holiday lettings in Alaska are just round the corner from these most popular restaurants.

Gwennie's Old Alaska Restaurant, Anchorage: A log-cabin restaurant with a deep history, friendly staff and big portions. You'll want to try their reindeer meat or their crispy, sweet pies.

Simon & Seafort's Saloon & Grill, Anchorage: Whether you're digging into the steak or the seafood, this saloon-style restaurant has the highest quality meat on offer. Best time to go is sunset for an impressive view of the Anchorage skyline.

Exit Glacier Salmon Bake, Seaward: A cabin restaurant nestled in a forest setting, this restaurant cooks salmon on cedar planks, giving it a smoky flavor.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered against a white background.

Arizona

Arizona Vacation Rentals

Arizona is your perfect choice for discovering strange rock formations, learning about Native American culture and exploring the iconic Grand Canyon. Whether you're searching for a desert retreat or a place to call home, your adventure starts with an Arizona vacation rental.

Arizona's population is just over 7 million, with the majority identifying as Christian. This makes for some interesting Christian churches, such as the Chapel of the Holy Cross, which pokes out of Arizona's red rocks like a spiritual beacon.

Whatever place you decide to explore in Arizona, bring some sunscreen and a hat, because the climate in Arizona is hot and dry. It's an ideal location for outdoor hiking, camping, and exploring the Mars-like terrain.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Arizona

Jousting. Ostriches. And diamonds: A whole package of fun. It's no wonder why Arizona holiday rentals book fast during the following festivals.

Arizona Renaissance Festival: A celebration of all things medieval. Champion your chosen knight in the jousting competitions or take photos next to mythical characters. It's a wonderful day out for medieval lovers.

Tucson Gem, Mineral & Fossil Showcase: One of the largest mineral shows in the world, and a great place to start your collection of sparkling stones. They have gems, minerals and fossils that range from cheap to rare.

Ostrich Festival: Have you ever seen a man ride an ostrich? This festival has ostrich racing, roller coaster rides and petting zoos with camels and alpacas. It's a treasure trove of fun for all ages.

Choose Arizona Holiday Rentals to See the Grand Canyon and a Meteor Crater

What wonders can you find in a desert entrenched in natural history? Some of the most iconic landmarks in the world.

Grand Canyon: There's something other-worldly about the Grand Canyon. An almost spiritual presence that everyone experiences differently. Drive two hours from Sedona to see firsthand this endless chasm of wonder.

Meteor Crater: A hauntingly beautiful testament to the deadly forces of nature. This landmark is a whopping 160 feet in diameter and an hour and half's drive from accommodation in Sedona.

Montezuma Castle National Monument: Once a place of solitude for the Sinagua people who sought guidance from the spirits that lived there. It's an 800 year old structure into the cliff-face and only a 20 minute drive from the village of Oak Creek.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

After sightseeing in a desert, you'll need to rest your feet and relax. These restaurants are close to holiday lettings in Phoenix, and are perfect for restoring your energy.

Joe's Farm Grill: Tender meat and a blend of powerful flavors makes this restaurant one of the best burger joints in Arizona.

Season 52: A stylish restaurant with a menu that changes depending on the seasons. You'll get the freshest ingredients with plenty of healthy options to choose from.

The White Chocolate Grill: Food made from scratch with friendly staff and an atmosphere that is cozy and modern.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned on the left side of a light gray rectangular box. Above the logo, a solid green horizontal line spans the width of the page.

Arkansas

Arkansas Vacation Rentals

The wealth of Arkansas comes from its natural landscapes, dense forests, and charming towns. It's a quiet state with a big heart, and has a real-feel of American midwest culture.

The population of Arkansas is around 3 million, and the majority of residents practice Christianity. Arkansas's faith is best illustrated through Christ of the Ozarks. A famous statue that towers over the landscape as a spiritual symbol of the land.

When booking apartments for rent in Arkansas, you'll have a host of options to choose from, whether that be a cabin next to a stunning lake or a vacation home in the heart of Little Rock. And with a climate that's temperate all year round, there's never a bad time to visit Arkansas.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Arkansas

Arkansas is rich with community-based festivals that give you the opportunity to meet friendly folk and develop a sense of belonging. When booking accommodation in Arkansas, consider these three major festivals.

Arkansas State Fair: You'll take part in a bonanza of exciting activities. They have petting zoos, carnival rides, trendy food stalls, dinosaur exhibits and more. There's no such thing as boredom at Arkansas State Fair.

Hope Watermelon Festival: You'll take part in seed spitting competitions, watermelon toss games, and other whacky watermelon competitions. It's a time for friends and family to come together and create happy memories.

Ozark Folk Festival: This is the best place for old-time country blues and harmonic styles that capture the heart and soul of America's country music.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Arkansas

Arkansas is a state basking in nature, offering memorable activities that will surprise you with fun and intrigue.

Hot Springs National Park: Take a stroll beside soothing water cascades or bathe at one of many tranquil bathhouses in the area. You can find Arkansas vacation rentals a three minute drive away.

Crater of Diamonds State Park: Search for diamonds on a volcanic crater, and keep whatever you find. The park is also a scenic spot for camping and observing wildlife. You can find accommodation five minutes away in Murfreesboro.

Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art: Thought-provoking masterpieces that will immerse you into a world of vivid colors. You can find holiday lettings in Bentonville a seven minute drive away.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

You'll get a vintage dining experience in Arkansas, with many restaurants serving classic BBQ dishes, and welcoming guests in the spirit of southern hospitality. Arkansas holiday rentals are close by to any of these classic diners.

McClard's Bar-B-Q: Signature BBQ ribs with homemade, secret sauce, this restaurant is a popular Arkansas choice, attracting big names like Bill Clinton.

Doe's Eat Place: Family style steaks and a cozy, unpretentious atmosphere, this restaurant will transport you into a quaint American diner.

The Hive: Classic flavors and local ingredients, this restaurant has good portions and trendy decor.

California

California Vacation Rentals

California is a land of endless fun and limitless opportunities. You'll be surfing the waves, walking among stars and resting in a luxurious California vacation rental. No matter where you go or what you do, you'll feel special in a state of crimson sunrises and stunning coastlines.

With a population of approximately 40 million, Californians embrace a wide range of religions, including Christianity, Buddhism, and Judaism. This celebration of diversity means you'll feel right at home, with a place of worship always close by.

The climate in California is as diverse as its people, with mild winters and hot summers. It's a perfect destination for gnarly activities like skating and surfing.

Are you ready for your adventure? Karta has accommodation in California, with your dreams just a flight away.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in California

Apartments for rent in California are high in demand during these thrilling and out-of-this world festivals.

Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival: A festival that boats some of the best names on the planet. You'll connect with like-minded music lovers in a stress free atmosphere.

Festival of Whales: Observe the annual migration of whales at Dana Point. California is the whale watching capitol of the world and your chance to see nature in action.

California Strawberry Festival: With over 40 food vendors, selling strawberry shortcakes, strawberry beer and much more strawberry-like food items.

Outside Lands Music Festival: All the benefits of Coachella, but more communal and tightly-knit. You'll party with strangers and make friends fast.

Choose California Holiday Rentals to See the Golden Gate Bridge and Alcatraz

California boasts iconic landmarks that are a step away from popular vacation homes.

Golden Gate Bridge, San Francisco: You have to see it for yourself to truly appreciate its magnificence. You'll be one of many who has witnessed a true architectural marvel.

Alcatraz Island, San Francisco: Once housing America's most deadly criminals, Alcatraz is brimming with stories of escape attempts and rumored ghost sightings.

Both landmarks are close by each other and a 10 minute drive from most booked California holiday rental.

Santa Monica Pier: This iconic Pier boasts roller coaster rides, an aquarium, fishing spots and live performances. It's a bustling kingdom of fun that is only five minutes away from beachfront rentals in Santa Monica.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

California meets at a crossroad of culinary diversity with authentic flavors from all around the world. Here are four near popular holiday lettings in California.

Fog Harbor Fish House, San Francisco: A classic choice on the Fisherman's Wharf, you'll be eating with a window view of Alcatraz Island.

La Taqueria, San Francisco: Authentic Mexican food that melts in your mouth. This place is popular so arrive early for a table.

République Café Bakery & République Restaurant, Los Angeles: An award-winning bakery and restaurant that serves French inspired dishes and an extensive wine list.

Rosa's Italian Restaurant, Pismo Beach: A classic Italian option with generous food servings and a quaint European atmosphere.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Colorado

Colorado Vacation Rentals

Colorado is a haven for adventurers and nature lovers who are eager to explore rugged mountains, ski the slopes or spend a day fishing on the lake.

Colorado's climate is defined by extremes. With warm and dry summers to snowy winters, you'll be in the perfect habitat for outdoor activities.

The state is a quiet retreat, with a population of only 5.8 million people. To make the most out of your peaceful stay, book a cabin or rustic lodge when searching accommodation in Colorado. You'll wake up to a vista of lush forests and snow-capped mountains.

As for faith, Christianity is the dominant religion, though Colorado has a diverse mix of mosques and synagogues for you to visit as well.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Colorado

Visiting some of Colorado's most famous festivals will take you back the wild west and get involved with local traditions. Book an apartment for rent in Colorado during these popular festivals.

Great American Beer Festival: Offering a variety of craft beers, paired with gourmet food, this festival is a beer connoisseur's dream.

The National Western Stock Show: This your chance to be immersed in old-time western culture, with rodeos, bull riding, barrel racing and more. A fun time, with lots to learn.

Colorado Shakespeare Festival: To see, or not to see, the answer is yes! Professional actors perform classic Shakespearean plays. You'll watch in an open venue, with Flatiron mountains veiling in the background.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Colorado

Colorado is a state carved by nature, with plenty of stunning sights to uncover.

Rocky Mountain National Park: Explore an alpine tundra occupied by wildlife by elk and mountain lions. It's an escape into nature, with Estes Park rentals a 10 minute drive away.

Garden of the Gods: Towering rocks rise up from the ground like an alien world. This park also has a massive boulder balanced on a small rock formation, which makes for some breathtaking photographs. Colorado holiday rentals are 10 minutes away.

Mesa Verde National Park: Dwellings of the Pueblo people that blend into the cliff face, and a great place to learn about the diversity of Native American culture. You can find cabins for rent in the park or 20 minutes away.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Colorado offers many farm-to-table restaurants with creative styles and craft beers. Whether you're eating at a food truck or dining in a pub, your Colorado vacation rental will be close by.

Acorn, Denver: Once a red-bricked foundry building, now reinvented into an award winning trendy restaurant that serves seasonal food and craft beer.

Matsuhisa, Aspen: When Japanese food meets southern styles, your taste buds will explode with exotic, yet familiar flavors.

Fruition Restaurant, Denver: Modern American flavors blended together in a creative fashion. You won't be waiting long for your next dish either.

Colorado Pig Rig Food Truck: Pork-style dishes whilst also serving chicken, brisket and mac and cheese. It's classic American food with big portions.

Florida

Florida Vacation Rentals

Florida is one of America's favorite vacation states, and for good reason. From glamorous boat parties to iconic amusement parks, you'll be surfing the waves of fun and adventure.

Florida's hot summers and cool winters make it a perfect spot for a beach vacation. Whether you're renting a beachfront condo or a pet-friendly vacation home, Florida vacation rentals come in all shapes and sizes, and offer premium luxury for single travelers and families.

With a population of 22.78 million, Florida predominantly believes in Christianity, with 17% not holding to any particular religion. That said, you'll make friends with a diverse range of people when visiting Florida.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Florida

Florida is a hotbed of fun and glamorous festivals that will take you into a world of luxury. Consider these three festivals when booking accommodation in Florida.

Miami International Boat Show: Feel like a real VIP with an up close view of superyachts and luxury boats. You can shop for accessories, enjoy the live entertainment and try out some of local cuisines.

South Beach Wine & Food Festival: Take part in a famous wine festival that has more than 400 wine producers and chefs, accompanied with burger competitions and celebrity appearances.

Florida Renaissance Festival: All the fun and immersion of a fantasy game come to life. You'll dress up in a costume, support your knight in a jousting competition, or drink mead at an inn.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Florida

If theme parks aren't your thing, here are the best places to visit that are not too close to your Florida holiday rental.

Everglades National Park: Adventurous mangrove tunnels and wildlife such as panthers, manatees and alligators makes this a national park like no other. A 20 minute drive from Homestead accommodation.

Castillo de San Marcos: A Spanish military fortress that is over 200 years old. Uncover the stories of Spanish-American war and get a glimpse of life in the fortress. You can find beachfront villas ten minutes away on Anastasia Island.

The Kennedy Space Center: An out-of-this world exploration into NASA's journey to the stars. 20 minutes away from Orlando vacation rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Sunshine, shopping, and high quality cuisine makes for a perfect trip in Florida. That's why we've list the best food on offer, with holiday lettings in Florida, just round the corner..

Joe's Stone Crab, Miami: A family-owned favorite, this restaurant serves high quality crab, accompanied with a variety of dipping sauce. You'll get five star service with a local feel.

The Surf Club Restaurant, Surfside: A Michelin star restaurant that serves grilled octopus, lobster salad and roast chicken. It was the go-to place for socialites in the mid-century and has been redesigned since, whilst retaining its intimate atmosphere.

The Bazaar by José Andrés, Miami: A customer-focused restaurant that serves Spanish and Latin American-inspired cuisine. Playfulness is at the heart of this restaurant's style, from the decor to the creative layout of the food.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Georgia

Georgia Vacation Rentals

It's no surprise that movie production companies flock to Georgia. It's an American paradise of blue skies, friendly neighbors and beautiful scenery. You'll get a real feel for American life, whilst coming across familiar sights and sounds from TV shows.

Georgia's climate is a mix between subtropical and continental. You'll get the warmth of a paradise island, but the earthy smells and pinewood scenery of northern US states. It makes for a perfect choice when staying in a Georgia vacation rental.

The population of Georgia is 10.8 million, with the vast majority believing in Christianity. You'll meet friendly folk, who are inspired by their love of Jesus and their respect for southern customs.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Georgia

There are many popular apartments for rent in Georgia that offer luxury and style. That said, these festivals increase demand, so you'll want to book in advance.

Atlanta Jazz Festival: Attracting a line-up of famous artists, you'll be getting the very best of Jazz music whilst lounging on the grass with fellow music lovers.

Atlanta Film Festival: An award-winning festival that houses a variety of films on show, from documentaries to short films. You'll also get the chance to ask questions to the production teams during their Q&A sessions.

Oktoberfest in Helen: An authentic German experience with German food, beer and music. Celebrate America's cultural diversity in this German-inspired town, and learn about how German culture shaped American life.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Georgia

Georgia is rich with history that date back thousands of years. Your Georgia vacation rental will also be steeped in history, and close to some truly unique landmarks.

Georgia Aquarium: One of the best aquariums in the world, you'll get the chance to swim with sharks, and learn about thousands of animals.

Martin Luther King Jr. National Historical Park: A humbling experience where you can develop your knowledge of the civil rights movement.

Georgia Aquarium and MLK national park are in downtown Atlanta, just around the corner from popular vacation homes.

Stone Mountain Park: An historical engraving, carved into the mountain. You'll be ticking off a hike, a museum and a historical landmark. Vacation rentals are a 10 minute drive from Stone Mountain town.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

If you're eating collard greens, mac n cheese and fried chicken, then you've landed in Georgia. The home of southern cuisine, Georgia offers plenty of classic choices to choose from when booking your Georgia holiday rental.

Buckner's Family Restaurant, Jackson: Serving classic Southern dishes, such as fried chicken, country-fried steak, and pork chops. A friendly, rustic atmosphere that will make you go back for more.

The Varsity: A traditional American diner, steeped in nostalgia. It's a prized heirloom of Atlanta that sells classic American food such as burger and fries.

The Lady and Sons, Savannah: The true taste of southern food in the heart of a historical town, with waiters and waitresses attending to your every needs.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned on the left side of a light gray rectangular box, which is itself set against a white background.

Hawaii

Hawaii Vacation Rentals

A dreamland of exotic beaches and aesthetic landscapes, Hawaii is America's best loved holiday retreat. Your accommodation in Hawaii will be an escape into paradise. A perfect time to reconnect with yourself, and develop a sense of self-worth.

Hawaii's population is around 1.4 million, with the natives believing in spirits in all things, and a belief in love, peace and harmony to people and nature. You'll immerse in Hawaiian culture, and develop your own spirituality.

Whether you're searching for spiritual enlightenment or ultimate relaxation, Hawaii has it all. Hawaii enjoys a tropical climate, with warm temperatures all year round. You'll get the chance to surf, hike and swim on the island, and find inner peace as a wave of relief washes over you.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Hawaii

Hawaii's exciting festivals are an example of paradise fun, and your chance to hula. All you need is an apartment for rent in Hawaii and a mindset for letting go.

Aloha Festival: Parades of colorful flowers, hula performances and live music has made this an iconic festival, attracting hundreds worldwide. Celebrate Hawaiian culture by watching the re-enactment of the Hawaiian Royal Court procession.

Merrie Monarch Festival: A celebration of Pacific cultures, bringing together people from Asia and Oceania, with parades, hula dancing and music taking place in Hilo center.

Vans Triple Crown of Surfing: Head to the white sands of Oahu, for some world class surfing. Watch professionals fight against deadly waves in a thrilling spectacle, accompanied with live music and food.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Hawaii

Hawaii offers cultural insight into American history and hiking trails around active volcanoes. They make for unforgettable experiences, and it starts by booking a holiday letting in Hawaii.

Pearl Harbor National Memorial: A thought-provoking memorial on the attacks that stirred the US involvement in WWII. The museum displays artifacts and information, helping you gain a deeper understanding of the conflict. You can find accommodation five minutes away in Honolulu.

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park: Glowing lava pools and steam shooting out from the vents makes this a breathtaking sight, bringing you at nose-length to earth's fiery might. It's a five minute drive from Hawaii vacation rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Hawaii's wavering heat and a day of surfing are enough to give your stomach a break. Embark from your Hawaii holiday rental and try out some of these exotic flavors, with a cocktail for good measure.

Helena's Hawaiian Food, Honolulu: A family-owned restaurant with history, and a following of regulars. This restaurant has become a local staple, and opportunity to taste Hawaiiin delicacies.

Roy's Waikiki, Honolulu: Roy Yamaguchi's flagship restaurant serving a special blend of Hawaiian and European cuisine. The dishes are artfully presented, and the service is impeccable.

Hula Grill Kaanapali, Lahaina: Grilled food, tropical cocktails and stunning ocean views make this the perfect spot to suit your beach-themed getaway.

Idaho

Idaho Vacation Rentals

Idaho's adventurous terrain is your escape from the hustle and bustle of city life.

When booking apartments for rent in Idaho, you'll be surrounded by a patchwork of farms, mountains and forests. A Idaho cabin will be made from Idaho trees. An Idaho meal will be sourced from Idaho farms. Idaho's charm comes from its resourcefulness and self-reliance.

Idaho has a population of around 1.8 million people, with the majority identifying as Christian. Idaho Falls Temple is a glimmering marble church that stands as a testament to their faith, and worth exploring to learn more about Idaho's Christian people.

Idaho's climate is perfect for outdoor activities, with warm summers and cold winters. Rafting, snowboarding, camping or hunting, Idaho is your nostalgic return to nature.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Idaho

Idaho has fun and exciting festivals all year-round and memories to share with family and friends. Here are three must-sees.

Idaho Potato Drop: Ever seen a big potato flying in the sky? If yes, then you've been to Boise where a potato descends from a crane. New Year's Eve is a big time of celebration, and may effect bookings of Idaho vacation rentals.

McCall Winter Carnival: Stunning snow sculptures, live music and the feeling of enjoying the most out of your winter. Your winter celebrations done with a cozy cabin and breathtaking snow art.

Sun Valley Wellness Festival: A time to breathe, and find your inner peace. This festival holds workshops and yoga classes, and an opportunity to learn about holistic health.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Idaho

Idaho is the go-to place to discover earth's alien-like landscapes and rediscover your love for outdoor adventures.

Craters of the Moon: You won't be visiting the moon anytime soon, so how about the next best thing? Astronauts have noted that the park has a moon-like terrain. You won't need a rocket to visit, but you will need to drive a couple hours from popular accommodation in Idaho.

City of Rocks: Hikers, climbers and campers escape to this stunning terrain where stars dazzle its unpolluted sky. Find peace in this rocky abode, a couple hours from Idaho holiday rentals.

Silverwood Theme Park: A family-owned theme park with small rides and fun roller coasters. 20 min drive from cabins in Bayview.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Idaho's restaurant scene is heavily supported by their agriculture and local game meat. You'll be getting the freshest ingredients with classic American flavors.

Chandlers Steakhouse, Boise: High-end, high-quality and highly revered. This restaurant is your perfect destination for well-cut, juicy steaks that make your mouth water. They also have an extensive wine list, and a vibrant atmosphere.

The SnakeBite Restaurant, : Cheeseburgers that melt in your mouth, served with waffle fries. Reasonable prices and friendly staff are the icing on the cake. Close to holiday lettings in Idaho Falls.

Fork, Boise: Local ingredients and inventive dishes such as asparagus fries make this a restaurant a favorite among locals and tourists.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Illinois

Illinois Vacation Rentals

From the chrome skyscrapers of Chicago to the golden cornfields of the countryside, Illinois offers a bundle of American characteristics, perfect for your dream escape to the USA. Whether you're waking up to a luxurious Chicago holiday rental, or renting a cabin in the woods, you'll be getting the true American experience.

With a population of approximately 12.6 million, Christianity is the predominant religion of the state. Illinois embraces a diverse range of beliefs, which is best reflected by Bahá'í House of Worship. A dome-shaped cathedral made out of marble, that serves as a meeting place for all people of faiths.

The climate in Illinois varies depending on the season, from hot summers to snowy winters, so there's never a wrong time to visit Illinois.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Illinois

Apartments for rent in Illinois are popular during festival season, and it's easy to see why. The people of Illinois are friendly, outgoing and willing to celebrate with music, food, and wine.

Chicago Jazz Festival: The birthplace of jazz hosts a music festival with some of the biggest names in the genre. It's a bonanza of fun and rhythmic melodies.

Illinois State Fair: Includes all your classic carnival fanfare from horse racing to roller coaster rides. At dusk, enjoy the marching bands and colorful floats at the Twilight Parade.

Lincoln Park Wine Festival: Showcasing an assortment of high quality wine from countries around the world, paired with cheese plate and hors d'oeuvres. A relaxed atmosphere that increases demand for accommodation in Chicago.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Illinois

Your journey into Illinois will be one rich with political and military history. This is your chance to explore the sights that shaped the nation.

Lincoln Monument: A powerful tribute and resting place of Abraham Lincoln. Expand your knowledge and feel touched by the values that enshrine the USA.

Old State Capitol: This building was where Lincoln made his famous 'house divided' speech and a great opportunity to learn about US political history.

Both landmarks are a few minutes away from popular Illinois holiday rentals.

Cahokia: Discover the ancient mounds of the Mississippian people and broaden your mind on ancient civilisation. St. Louis accommodation are just round the corner.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Illinois has a vibrant dining culture, full of modern, stylish restaurants that serve cuisines from around the world.

Alinea, Chicago: An award winning, Michelin restaurant voted as one of the best restaurants in the US. You'll sit at a glass table and be served creative gourmet food, inspired by cuisines from around the world. You can find holiday lettings in Illinois close by.

Dave's Italian Kitchen, Chicago: Homemade Italian food with friendly staff and a warm atmosphere. Most booked Chicago rentals are just round the corner.

Rhythm Kitchen Music Cafe, Peoria: Hip and trendy dugout for people who like jerk chicken and shrimp creole in a chill, low-lit atmosphere. The restaurant is located at the center of Peoria.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Indiana

Indiana Vacation Rentals

Steeped in midwestern tradition, Indiana is a land of close-knit Christian communities, with friendly folk and farmlands wherever the eye can see. You'll be at the crossroads of America, basking in nature and getting a real community feel.

Your Indiana vacation rental will come with some unique amenities, such as an outdoor firepit, as you develop bonds of friendship with your community. With a population of over 6 million people, you'll learn about different cultures such as the Amish communities.

Indiana's climate has perfectly warm summers that are a great time for visiting the lakes, and snowy winters, perfect for hitting the slopes. Whatever you decide to do, apartments for rent in Indiana are in abundance, and offer picturesque countryside views.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Indiana

Jubilant celebrations are at the heart of Indiana's festivals. From exciting sport competitions to roller coaster rides, you'll take part in some truly exciting events.

Indy 500: Where heroes become legends, this is the America's most iconic auto race competitions. On par with F1 racing, Indy 500 is a lightening-fast battlefield of speeding race cars. People from around the world book holiday lettings in Indiana to visit Indy 500.

Indiana State Fair: Heart pumping roller coaster rides, sugar cream pies, horse racing and more. Indiana's state fair attract hundreds every year, increasing demand for Indiana holiday rentals.

Covered Bridge Festival: Visit some of the state's historical bridges, and join in the fun with food, music and craft stalls.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Indiana

Indiana's landmarks are unique and varied. From art museums to the Indianapolis motor speedway, there's something for everyone.

Indiana Dunes National Park: A beautiful beach with a breathtaking view of the Chicago skyline. Visit in the fall time, or at sunset to find peace and tranquility. You can find beachfront rentals in the park itself.

The Eiteljorg Museum: Develop your understanding of Native American history, and gaze at thought-provoking art from Andy Warhol. It's in the heart of Indianapolis, close to popular city rentals.

Basilica of the Sacred Heart: Indiana's Christian heritage is reflected by this architectural masterpiece. You'll enter a hall of stunning arches and frescos, and appreciate the relationship between art and religion. A 10 minute drive from popular accommodation in Indiana.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

From port tenderloin sandwiches to sugar cream pie, Indiana adds their own styles to classic American flavors. Here are four restaurants close to most booked Indiana vacation rentals.

St. Elmo Steak House, Indianapolis: Serving up delicious steaks and seafood since the 20th Century, St. Elmo's is a classic restaurant with an old school atmosphere, and placed conveniently in the city center.

Bluebeard, Indianapolis: A gastropub that serves farm-to-table cuisines and craft cocktails. It has an outdoor patio and a friendly atmosphere.

Milktooth, Indianapolis: A brunch destination that revamps classic breakfast dishes, as well as high quality coffee and cocktails.

Nick's Kitchen, Huntington: A classic diner that serves Hoosier cuisine like breaded pork tenderloin sandwiches and fried chicken.

Iowa

Iowa Vacation Rentals

The birthplace of aviation and superman, Ohio is a state where you can reach for the sky, and gain deeper knowledge of American culture. From the the invention of the automobile to stunning nature trails, you can truly learn and relax in Ohio.

With a population of over 11 million, Ohioans have a mix of religious faiths, including Christianity, Islam, Judaism, and more. The state has the second-largest population of Old Order Amish in the world, and your chance to learn how Christianity shapes Amish life.

The climate in Ohio is varied, with humid summers and chilly winters. The good news is Ohio is famed for low rainfall, so wake up to clear blue skies in your Ohio vacation rental and be in the heart of it all.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Ohio

Ohio is the hidden gem of America, drawing visitors from around the world, with music, food and sport festivals. Enrich your travel experience and book your accommodations in Ohio in advance, as these three festivals are hugely popular.

The Pro Football Hall of Fame Enshrinement Festival: The birthplace of professional football celebrates its heritage with parades, concerts, and a ceremony for the newest addition of Football legends.

The Cleveland National Air Show: Showcasing some of the best pilots in the country, watch jets zoom through the clouds in a spectacle that broadens your love for aviation.

The Ohio State Fair: A family-favorite tradition with heart-pounding roller coaster rides to sport competitions. You won't feel a second of boredom.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Ohio

When booking your Ohio holiday rental, explore the best of Ohio with a culture steeped in music and sport.

The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame: Get out your air guitar out and rock out to the coolest museum in the world. Exhibits, artifacts, and interactive displays on the history of rock and roll. A ten minute walk from vacation rentals in Cleveland.

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Feel the thrills of football history in the state that started the NFL. You'll gain a deep understanding of the game, learning about the players that defined America's favorite sport. A 3 minute drive from apartments for rent in Canton.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Ohio is home to a vibrant and diverse culinary scene with a variety of restaurants to suit your tastes. From American comfort foods to stylish cuisines, Ohio has it all.

Iowa River Power Restaurant, Coralville: Whether you're eating prime rib or the pumpkin pie, this restaurant is jam-packed full of delicious flavors served in a red-bricked, stylish interior.

The Iowa Taproom, Des Moines: A craft beer and restaurant serving burgers, sandwiches and 'death' chicken wings, so called for their super spiciness. Holiday lettings in Ohio can be found in Des Moines city center, close by the restaurant.

Lola, Cleveland: Hed to downtown Cleveland for a modern, upscale dining experience. An extensive wine list and attentive staff makes this place a must when visiting the city.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Kansas

Kansas Vacation Rentals

There's no place like Kansas, a state brimming with rainbow-filled blue skies, sunflower fields and the rugged rocks of the badlands. Kansas vacation rentals are warm and rustic, which comes as no surprise, as Kansas is in the heart of midwest America.

With a population of almost 3 million, most of whom are Christian, Kansas is full of friendly folk ready to help. No matter your country or your religion, Kansas is a place where you can feel safe and develop bonds of friendship with the locals.

Whether you experience the hot summers or chilly winters, Kansas makes for a great adventure into the American frontier.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kansas

Kansas is a journey into community-led festivities, and your chance to be immersed into American way of life. Book your Kansas holiday rental in advance, as these festivals are hugely popular.

Belle Plaine Tulip Time Festival: Celebrate springtime by shopping for souvenirs, munching on corn on the cob and developing bonds of friendship with the Kansas community.

Wichita Riverfest: Whether you're unwinding in the beer garden or kayaking down the river, this festival is bundled with riverside activities and events, full of sunshine and fun.

Pickin' On The Plains: A bluegrass music festival that fulfills your love for American country culture. Listen to some classic banjo music, or try one out in their music workshops.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Kansas

A vacation in Kansas is full of charm and easy living. Step outside your holiday letting in Kansas, and see what the sunflower state has to offer.

The Keeper of the Plains: A Native American statute illuminated by fire pits at the base, this landmark makes for a romantic stroll along the river, with Wichita vacation rentals nearby.

Strataca: One-of-a-kind, salt mine museum. You'll breathe in the rejuvenating, salty air, and learn about different kinds of minerals. Apartments for rent in Kansas are on the outskirts of Wichita, a 30 minute drive from the mines.

Fort Larned National Historic Site: Watch re-enactments and develop your knowledge of military history. Travel up highway 56, with a Kinsley bed and breakfast, 30 minutes away.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

As you travel down country roads, with hunger stabbing your gut, you'll want the classic American options such as creamy cheeseburgers and BBQ chicken wings. Kansas will fill your desire for American comfort food.

Carriage Crossing Restaurant and Bakery, Yoder: Amish food that's so good, you'll consider giving up modern life to join the Amish community. Soft bread and warm apple cider makes this restaurant a must when renting accommodation in Kansas.

J. Gilbert's Wood-Fired Steaks & Seafood, Kansas City: Homemade chips in blue cheese sauce, perfect pork chops and delicious crab cakes are just some of the reasons to visit this warm, stylish restaurant.

Q39 South: BBQ heaven, with burnt end briskets, melted cheese hamburgers and crispy french fries. A fan favorite among the Kansans.

The logo for karta, featuring the word "karta" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font, centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Kentucky

Kentucky Vacation Rentals

Kentucky is a charming state of rolling hills, horse farms and historic coal mines. You'll be in the thick of the American midwest, with horse derbies and banjo melodies. Kentucky vacation rentals reflect the very best of Kentucky's history, with many homesteads and cabins to choose from.

With a small population of 4.5 million, Kentuckians are big believers in Christianity. Visit the Ark Encounter or the Creationism Museum to learn more about Kentucky's relationship with their faith.

When it comes to climate, Kentucky gets a goldilocks of warmth, not receiving the chilly weather of the north, nor the humid summers of the south. This makes Kentucky a perfect vacation any time of the year.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kentucky

Kentucky's a roller coaster of crazy-fun events will get you cheering and dancing. People around the country book Kentucky holiday rentals for these super awesome festivals.

Kentucky Derby Festival: Kick off your vacation with fireworks, balloon races and parades as Kentucky celebrates their culture and economy. Plan ahead when booking holiday lettings in Kentucky, as road closures might make navigation difficult.

Bourbon & Beyond: Kentucky is the home of bourbon, and your opportunity to try the very best, accompanied with steaks, live performances and guest appearances such as the cast of Always Sunny in Philadelphia.

Louder Than Life Festival: Rock out to the coolest rock festival of Kentucky with mosh pits and heavy metal bands that define the genre.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Kentucky

From nature walks to sport museums, Kentucky's landmarks offer a diverse range of fun activities that will paint your vacation with insight and intrigue.

Churchill Downs: Watch horses smoke the fields with dazzling speed at the Kentucky Derby, the famous Kentucky horse racing competition. A five minute drive from apartments for rent in Louisville.

Mammoth Cave National Park: This park has the longest cave system in the world, and makes for a great hike in the forest. Accommodation in Kentucky can be found within the park.

Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory: Leaning against the side of this factory is a 120 foot-tall baseball bat. Inside the museum, you'll appreciate the history and art that goes into making the bats. A five minute walk from Louisville accommodation.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

The home of KFC, Kentucky's restaurants serve delicious chicken, plus classic midwest options, strengthening your love for American food. Accommodation in Kentucky are just round the corner from these popular restaurants.

Greyhound Tavern, Fort Mitchell: A quaint restaurant that offers a historical, yet stylish, atmosphere whilst serving delicious breaded chicken, salmon and onion rings.

Claudia Sanders Dinner House, Shelbyville: A family-style restaurant with a buffet of delicious American food from collard greens to mac n cheese.

KFC: Finger-licking goodness in the state that started it all. You can visit the KFC museum and learn more about its history, whilst fulfilling your heart's desire to have KFC in Kentucky.

Louisiana

Louisiana Vacation Rentals

Louisiana is the birthplace of jazz, and a soulful exploration into bayous and French colonial buildings. Your Louisiana vacation rental will reflect this historical style, with ornate balconies, colorful facades, and intricate ironwork.

With a population of over 4.6 million people, Christianity is the most widely practiced faith, though the state offers a vibrant mix of religions, with beautiful churches, mosques, and synagogues nearby to explore.

If you're looking to escape the cold and soak up some sunshine, Louisiana is the perfect destination. The state boasts a subtropical climate with long, hot summers and mild winters. Whether you're looking for a beach vacation or an adventure in the swamps, Louisiana is ready for you.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Louisiana

Louisiana is alive with colorful festivals that will captivate your senses and leave you in awe.

Mardi Gras: Be swept up by this legendary celebration in New Orleans, with colorful parades, street parties, and Cajun cuisine. This festival attracts thousands every year, increasing demand for accommodation in Louisiana.

New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival: Celebrate the state that started it all, with famous artists to the up-and-coming. Whether you're eating po'boys from a food vendor, or appreciating Louisiana's art, you'll find soul and inspiration at this groundbreaking festival.

Louisiana Cajun Food & Music Festival: A perfect opportunity for you immerse in all things Cajun. From indulging in food such as gumbo to dancing to accordion music, you'll feel the history and culture of Louisiana within you.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Louisiana

Step into history as you breathe in Louisiana's French-style culture, close to popular Louisiana holiday rentals.

Jackson Square: Whether you're admiring the impressive art on sale, or having your fortune told, you'll find peace and relaxation in this architectural and historical haven. Apartments for rent Louisiana are in the French Quarter, just a few minutes away.

Oak Alley Plantation: Explore a place brimming with antebellum architecture and learn about the fascinating stories of the people who lived there. Vacation rentals in Vacherie and St. James are a 20 minute drive away.

New Orleans City Park: 1,300 acres of lush green space offering roller coaster rides, storyland exhibits and a museum. Many vacation rentals are within walking distance.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Louisiana's unique history has led to a diverse range of cuisines, influenced by French, African and American. Experience the rich culinary tradition with these three popular restaurants, close to holiday lettings in Louisiana.

Commander's Palace, New Orleans: A legendary restaurant, serving Creole cuisine since 1880. It has an elegant dining experience with live jazz music.

Cafe du Monde, New Orleans: An institution of Louisiana that is famous for its beignets, cafe au lait, and the live performances placed outside the cafe.

Parrain's Seafood Restaurant, Baton Rouge: Consistently delicious Cajun and Creole cuisine with big portions and a lively atmosphere.

Middendorf's Manchac, Akers: Stunning views of the water and delicious seafood such as breaded catfish.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned on the left side of a light gray rectangular box. A thick green horizontal line is located above the box.

Maine

Maine Vacation Rentals

It's time to slow down, and explore Maine, a idyllic refuge of golden trees, charming lighthouses and historic towns. When booking accommodation in Maine, you'll be offered a plethora of quaint cottages or luxurious waterfront homes.

With a population of around 1.3 million, Maine is known for its friendly and welcoming people who embrace all faiths, with Christianity being the predominant religion. Explore the Basilica of Saints Peter to see the splendor of Maine's religious culture.

With four distinct seasons, Maine's climate is diverse and offers an opportunity for outdoor activities like hiking or skiing. The best time to visit Maine is fall, when the land is painted in gold and yellow leaves.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Maine

Mainers come together to make interesting stories and local traditions. Be a part of the community spirit with these three exciting festivals.

Maine Lobster Festival: A celebration of all things lobster, with whacky activities like lobster crate races and a coronation of a Maine sea goddess. It has a global reach, increasing demand for Maine holiday rentals.

Common Ground Fair: Join the quaint farming festivities as farmers swap their seeds, show off their antique tractors and play hay bale tossing games.

Old Port Festival: Celebrate Maine's heritage with quirky events like the high heel race to see who can run the fastest in heels. With street performances and live music, there's so much to do and a great opportunity to connect with the local community.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Maine

Soak up Maine's coastal charm or take a hike around rugged mountains. Maine is a mesmerizing place, that will unwind your stresses like a ball of yarn.

Acadia National Park: From golden forests to unspoiled coastlines, you'll feel at peace in this tranquil space of forests, mountains and lakes. Driving distance from rentals in Bar Harbor are about 15-20 minutes.

Portland Head Light: A picturesque lighthouse that has guided ships into Portland for over two centuries. Holiday lettings in Maine are about 20-25 minutes to the lighthouse.

Old Port: A charming and historic neighborhood full of boutique shops, art galleries, and restaurants. A small town with a big heart. Beautiful apartments for rent in can be found in the town itself.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

A holiday letting in Maine will be a haven for seafood lovers, blueberry enthusiasts or syrup addicts. Whichever food you enjoy the most, you'll get the freshest ingredients and a cozy dining experience.

The Lobster Shack at Two Lights, Cape Elizabeth: Breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean in an outdoor seating area. This restaurant serves lobster rolls and chowders with quick service, and polite staff.

Scales, Portland: Fancy dining experience with locally-sourced seafood and reasonable portions. The restaurant's wood-fired grill gives their dishes a smoky flavor.

The Red Barn, Augusta: Eat out at picnic table with yummy seafood cuisine such as stew or chowder. Popular Maine vacation rentals can be found just around the corner.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself set against a white background.

Maryland

Maryland Vacation Rentals

Smell the fresh, salty air of the seaside, or take a stroll through colorful forests as you visit Maryland: a pocket of traditional American culture, nestled between the Appalachian Mountains and the Atlantic Ocean.

With a population of over six million people, half of which are Protestants, Maryland has a rich, religious heritage. The state is home to a small population of Mormons, and a fantastic opportunity to visit Washington D.C. Temple, a strikingly beautiful church of six marble spires.

As for the weather, Maryland has a moderate climate, with pleasant temperatures during spring and fall. Whether you're sailing on Chesapeake Bay or skiing at Wisp Resort, your Marland vacation rental will be a cozy retreat after a day of fun activities.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Maryland

When booking apartments for rent in Maryland, you'll want to take advantage of the festivals that are a treasure trove of fun and communal spirit.

Annapolis Crab Feast: Try the sweet meat of the blue crab, and make friends as you gather with the locals to crack them open together.

Maryland Renaissance Festival: Go back in time to the 16th Century with jousting, blacksmithing, glassblowing and delicious inn food such as turkey legs and meat pies. You'll feel immersed in a completely different world.

OC Air Show: A thrilling display of aviation acrobatics and aerial performances, along the scenic beaches of Ocean City. You'll witness flyovers, barrel rolls, and precision formations, and wonder at the magnificence of it all.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Maryland

Maryland offers a vast range of historical and cultural landmarks that will cater to a variety of interests. Here are some to get you going.

Fort McHenry National Monument: Your curiosity will ignite as you delve into the history of the Battle of Baltimore and the origin of America's national anthem. 20 minutes from holiday lettings in Maryland.

Baltimore Museum of Art: Stunning display of vibrant art, with an unbelievable range of work that dates back to the 13th century to modern day. It's in the center of the city, a five minute walk from Baltimore holiday rentals.

Edgar Allan Poe House & Museum: A quaint journey into the life of Edgar Allen Poe, the famous literary writer, and a five minute drive accommodation in Baltimore.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

From mouth-watering crab cakes to the classic American diner experience, transport into a world of delicious Maryland food that will make your stomach growl.

Maryland Mallet Restaurant & Smokehouse Pub: Top notch mac n cheese, crab cakes and smoky ribs. All served as big portions, and impossible to finish, even for the bigger folk.

Timbuktu Restaurant: Serving flavorful crab steaks, salads and more. The atmosphere is fun and lively, with helpful staff and quick service.

The Crab Claw: Crabilicious cuisine that puts in you the heart of St. Michael's, next to a stunning waterside view and a five minute walk from popular accommodation in Maryland.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned on a light gray rectangular background, which is itself set against a white background.

Massachusetts

Massachusetts Vacation Rentals

Massachusetts is a state that sparkles with New England charm and calming beauty. From quaint cottages to luxurious villas, your Massachusetts vacation rental puts you in a rustic world, full of magic and bliss.

The state's population is around 7 million people, with Christianity being the dominant religion. The state is brimming with Gothic churches such as Trinity Church in Boston, and a fantastic way to see how Christianity shapes the lives of the Massachusians.

The climate in Massachusetts is generally moderate, with warm summers and cold winters. The fall foliage in Massachusetts is famous, putting you in a sea of natural colors, and a great time for activities like apple picking or corn mazes.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Massachusetts

Massachusetts' festivals come in many colors, whether you're rocking out or maple syrup sugaring, you'll be fully immersed in the New England lifestyle.

Boston Marathon: Join a history of runners as you climb up the steep Heartbreak Hills in a marathon defined by community fellowship. Plan your trip to your Massachusetts holiday rental accordingly, as many roads can be blocked off.

M3 Music Festival: Put on your leather jacket, and get ready, for the coolest 80s/90s rock concert in the country. You'll rock out to the best tunes, drink the best beers and bask in sunshine.

Big E: Food vendors, craft workshops, carnival rides and more. The culture of New England fit into this groundbreaking state fair, attracting a whopping 1.5 million people.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Massachusetts

With maritime adventures and tales of witches, feel like you're in a different time as you step on the first patch of grass, visited by American colonialists.

USS Constitution: The world's oldest ship still on active duty. Step back in time with this glorious museum of flags and cannons. A few minutes walk from the North End neighborhood of Boston.

The Witch House at Salem: Get spooked as you learn about innocent women tried for witchcraft. Popular apartments for rent in Massachusetts can be located in Salem itself, or 20 minutes away in Marblehead or Beverly.

Plymouth Rock: A symbol of the Pilgrims arrival in the new world. A thought-provoking slice of history that is five minutes from Plymouth Bay Villas.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Crack open a jug of apple cider, and slurp up some yummy clam chowder in these exciting New England restaurants, close to popular accommodation in Massachusetts.

Ledger Restaurant, Salem: The kind of food you dream about, such as wood-grilled swordfish, smoked tomato vinaigrette and grilled pork chop. The restaurant used to be a bank building. Now, it's a historical masterpiece of fine dining.

Alden & Harlow, Cambridge: Contemporary American cuisine, from gnocchi to smoked salmon, that are packed full of flavors. The restaurant also boasts a cozy seating area with an open bar.

Island Creek Oyster Bar, Boston: A must-visit seafood restaurant when staying in holiday lettings in Massachusetts. It's artistic and glamorous style creates a romantic atmosphere.

Zambia

Zambia Vacation Rentals

Be enchanted by Zambia, an African symphony of exotic wildlife and unspoiled landscapes. Zambia vacation rentals strengthen the allure with eco-friendly lodges, high-end resorts and campsites to connect with nature.

With a population of over 18 million people, Zambians are friendly and welcoming to visitors. Most Zambians are Christian, though a small percentage believe in traditional belief systems. With such a rich religious heritage, there are plenty of opportunities to celebrate faith or take part in rituals.

The climate in Zambia is tropical which means you'll feel the sunshine warm your skin in a paradise full of fun and adventure.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Zambia

Zambia is a land of ancient traditions and powerful rituals that will spark your curiosity for African culture.

Kuomboka Ceremony: Spirits run high in this spectacle of colorful boats, beating drums and traditional African dancing as the king of the Lozi migrates to higher ground. Accommodation in Mongul is 30 minutes to Limulunga, where the ceremony begins and 20 minutes to Lealui, where it ends.

Nc'wala: A vibrant event of traditional dances and songs, as the Ngoni people celebrate the harvest season. Accommodation can be found in Chipata, though check with local authorities as the location changes year to year.

Umutomboko: Traditional dances and songs where you can learn about the Lunda people. Accommodation can be found within walking distance in Mwansabombwe.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Zambia

Step into a wild land of storybook scenery, with cascading waterfalls and wildlife safaris. Here are the best beautiful spots of Zambia.

Victoria Falls: A natural wonder of the world, offering breathtaking views of the Zambezi River as it plunges over the cliff. A 20-minute drive from apartments for rent in Zambia.

South Luangwa National Park: Home to some of the most diverse and abundant wildlife in Africa. The park is located about an eight-hour drive from popular holiday lettings in Zambia, or you can find accommodation in the park itself.

Lower Zambezi National Park: A stunning journey into a world of exotic African animals. There are also canoe safaris and fishing trips. It's an ultimate retreat into paradise, with accommodation just outside the park.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Indulge your taste buds in bold flavors, vibrant colors, and wholesome ingredients, with Zambia's exotic, yet familiar, cuisines. Here are three restaurants near Zambia holiday rentals.

3 Tree, Lusaka: Considered one of the best cafes in the city, 3 Tree offers delicious food served with passion and an outdoor seating area where you can bask in the sunshine.

The Roan And Sable Restaurant, Lusaka: When a cafe meets a grill restaurant, you get the best of both worlds. It's a quaint, red-bricked outdoor seating area that serves comfort food and cocktails.

The Elephant Cafe, Livingstone: Dine amongst elephants in this unforgettable experience, with cuisine such as vegetable curries, beef filets and ice cream.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered against a white background.

Zimbabwe

Zimbabwe Vacation Rentals

Whether you're ziplining off cliffs or exploring ruins, Zimbabwe is a land rampacked with adventure and culture, sure to satisfy your travel itch. Wake up to one of our comfortable Zimbabwe vacation rentals to start your journey.

With a population of 16 million people, Zimbabweans are warm and welcoming people, inspired by their Christian values. Religion is diverse here, with plenty of temples to explore like The Great Mosque of Harare, an Islamic masterpiece in the center of Harare.

Zimbabwe is a subtropical climate, with the the dry season (Apr-Oct) as the best time for wildlife viewing, whilst the rainy season (Nov-Mar) is a wonderful opportunity see Victoria Falls in full flow.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Zimbabwe

When booking apartments for rent in Zimbabwe, you'll want to seize your vacation moments with these groundbreaking festivals.

Victoria Falls Carnival: Celebrate this one-of-a-kind new year festival with international artists playing a range of music from EDM to pop. This festival attracts thousands from across the globe, increasing demand for holiday lettings in Zimbabwe.

Harare International Food Festival: Enrich your vacation with food exhibitions, showcasing the best of Zimbabwean food and cuisine from around the world. You'll see new ways of cooking, such as molecular gastronomy demonstrations.

Harare International Festival of the Arts: Be inspired by a vast array of musicians from across the world, coming together to create a fusion of African rhythms.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Zimbabwe

Glimpse into a country of ancient ruins and scenic nature, where memories are made, and your love for Africa emboldens.

Victoria Falls: Be enchanted by the misty, cascading waters that can be seen for miles around. Victoria Falls is just a 20-minute drive from popular holiday lettings in Zimbabwe.

Great Zimbabwe National Monument: Ruins that date back to the 11th century. Located about 4 hours from Zimbabwe's holiday rentals, but the journey is worth it. This monument is an example of African art that will take your breathe away.

Hwange National Park: Home to the 'big five animals' of Africa, this park is an escape from civilisation, with mystical wildlife and stunning sunsets. You can find lodgings or campsites within the park itself.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Impactful flavors, rich coffee beans, and farm-to-table dining experiences. That's Zimbabwe, a place for you to unwind. Here are three unique restaurants that are close to your Zimbabwe vacation rental.

Gavas Restaurant, Harare: Head to this Harare institution for a taste of true African cuisine, with plenty of servings and live music for your vacation vibes.

The Boma, Victoria Falls: A buffet of traditional Zimbabwean dishes and a live drumming show makes this a great opportunity to let your hair down, and have a load of fun.

The Smokehouse and Grill: Whether you're feasting on the tantalizing peri peri chicken or the saucy ribs, your mouth will be a firework of wonderful flavors, with food served in a rustic, relaxing atmosphere.

The logo for Karta, featuring the word "karta" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font. The logo is positioned on the left side of a light gray rectangular background.

Baku

Baku Vacation Rentals

Baku is the pearl of the Caucasus, where modern skyscrapers blend seamlessly with ancient architecture, offering experiences that will leave you enchanted.

Find bliss in a Baku vacation rental overlooking the Caspian sea, or an apartment tucked away in Icherisheher, Baku's yellow-bricked old city.

Baku is the capital of Azerbaijan, and has a population of around 2.3 million people, with the majority practicing Shia Islam. If you wish to learn more about Azerbaijan's faith, glimpse the moonlit wonder of Heydar Mosque, a shining example of devotion, bound to inspire you.

Whether you're bathing at Bilgah beach, or sipping coffee in an outdoor cafe, Baku's semi-arid climate of hot summers and cool winters, means anytime is a good time to explore this wonderful city.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Baku

Watch Baku come alive, as you immerse in vibrant festivities, sure to satisfy your culture-seeking desires.

Novruz Festival: A magical celebration of springtime, where you dance, eat traditional food, and make friends with the locals beside the Novruz bonfire.

Formula 1 Azerbaijan Grand Prix: Be enthralled by a symphony of roaring engines and screeching tires zoom through narrow streets. A world-class sporting event that draws crowds of racing fans from around the world, increasing demand for apartments for rent in Baku.

Baku Jazz Festival: A fusion of traditional jazz with the musical heritage of Azerbaijan, such as mugham for example, to create familiar, yet exotic rhythms. The festival takes place in venues throughout the city, including outdoor stages and historic concert halls.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Baku

Baku is a city of contrasts and incredible beauty that will nourish your love of the old and new.

Maiden Tower: This cylindrical shaped tower has mysterious history, and panoramic views from the top, making it an opportunity to immerse in Azerbaijan's rich history. A 5-minute walk from popular holiday lettings in Baku.

Flame Towers: Majestic trio of skyscrapers that dominate Baku's skyline. They illuminate the cityscape at night with a mesmerizing glow, giving a magical feel to the city. A 10-minute drive from Baku's holiday rentals.

The Heydar Aliyev Center: A masterpiece of modern architecture, with flowing curves and gleaming surfaces. Step into a world of futuristic elegance, located 10 minutes away from accommodation in Baku.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Venture from your accommodation in Baku and journey into a world of fragrant spices and savory delights. You'll dine in world-class restaurants, full of art and stylish ambiance.

Nergiz Restaurant: A vintage restaurant that looks like an underground cave. The weathered bricks exudes charm and wonderful craftsmanship. You'll devour Azerbaijani kebabs that are heaven in your mouth.

Firuze: A restaurant that is like a carpet museum, decorated in a traditional Azerbaijani style, and serving Azerbaijani cuisine such as saffron-seasoned Plov.

Dolma: An underground 1800s style restaurant that has a treasure chest of culinary delights, such as its iconic Dolma dish, that bolden your senses with exotic flavors.

Bandar Seri Begawan

Bandar Seri Begawan Vacation Rentals

Whether you're enjoying Islamic architecture or a boat ride along the Brunei River, Bandar Seri Begawan is a tranquil getaway that takes you on a journey into a world of exoticness. Your Bandar Seri Begawan vacation rental will embody the city's beauty, as well as its cleanliness and safety.

Bandar Seri Begawan has a population of around 100,000 people, the majority of whom follow the Islamic faith. The city's charm is deeply rooted in Islam, which is evident when you visit The Omar Ali Saifuddien Mosque, considered one of the most beautiful mosques in the world.

Bandar Seri Begawan's tropical climate provides visitors with a warm and inviting experience, ideal for enjoying boat rides and picnics in the park.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Bandar Seri Begawan

Join in the festivities in Bandar Seri Begawan where the community comes together to celebrate and rejoice.

Brunei December Festival: Showcasing Brunei's rich cultural talent. This festival represents the warmth and diversity of the city, and provides unique experiences like playing video games or crafting pizzas.

Royal Brunei Armed Forces Day: A celebration of the country's military, where soldiers demonstrate their pride and bravery in defending their homeland. Marvel at the impressive display of tanks, fighter jets, and more.

The Brunei Regatta: Decorated perahu boats race to the sound of beatings drums in a festival that dates back to the 1800s. This popular festival increases demand for accommodation in Bandar Seri Begawan.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Bandar Seri Begawan

Strolling through Bandar Seri Begawan will feel like a walk in the park, full of strikingly beautiful places to see and admire.

Sultan Omar Ali Saifuddien Mosque: Be mesmerized by the city's crown jewel, with glimmering marble and perahu boats sailing across the Brunei river. A 5-minute drive from Bandar Seri Begawan holiday rentals.

Royal Regalia Museum: Where you can explore the history and treasures of the Brunei Sultanate. An impressive collection of royal regalia, just a 10-minute drive from the city center.

Taman Jubli Perak: A waterfront park, offering stunning views of the Brunei River. It's just a 15-minute walk from apartments for rent in Bandar Seri Begawan, making it perfect for a morning jog or an evening stroll.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Delve into the rich and diverse culinary landscape of Bandar Seri Begawan, offering a unique blend of Malay, Chinese, and Indian influences.

The Kaizen Sushi: Ambient, stylish dining with a waterfront view that overlooks the Brunei water village. The menu is extensive, serving sushi and teppanyaki with options for vegetarians.

Aminah Arif Restaurant: A great place to try Ambuyat or Nasi Katok. It's an established restaurant that has been serving authentic Brunei dishes for more than 20 years. Holiday lettings in Bandar Seri Begawan are closeby.

Tarindak D'Seni: Savor affordable and authentic Brunei cuisine from a buffet selection that features fresh seafood and mouth-watering desserts. It's the perfect spot to chill out after a day of exploring the city.

Batumi

Batumi Vacation Rentals

Batumi is a wonderland of charming architecture, casinos, and relaxing beaches. It's multiple vacations packed into one, where you can unwind in a Batumi vacation rental that is both luxurious and affordable.

As the second-largest city in Georgia, Batumi is home to over 150,000 residents. The majority of the population belongs to the Georgian Orthodox Church, though there is a diverse range of Muslims, Jews, and Catholics. Whatever your religion, you'll never be too far away from your place of faith.

Batumi is a refreshing escape from both hot and cold climates, making it a perfect destination year-round. With its high humidity, Batumi blooms with stunning greenery, where you can reconnect with nature.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Batumi

Book your apartment for rent in Batumi around these uniquely charming and up-and-coming festivals, bound to enrich your cultural experience.

Batumi International Art-House Film Festival: Attracting famous filmmakers, actors, and cinema enthusiasts from around the world. This festival showcases foreign artistic movies that will satisfy your culture cravings.

Black Sea Jazz Festival: Get in touch with the spirit of jazz, where people of all ages come together for live sessions that are often impoverished, creating a once-in-a-moment symphony of sounds.

Batumi's Kolkhoba Festival: Reviving the past of Lazian people, this festival has live performances, street food, and exhibitions showcasing the area's handicrafts, making it a journey into the heart of Adjara's cultural heritage.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Batumi

Experience the magic of Batumi's landmarks, where nature and culture unite in a breathtaking coastal paradise.

Batumi Boulevard: A lush, palm tree promenade that stretches for several kilometers. Perfect for an evening stroll, or a morning bicycle ride. Holiday lettings in Batumi are within a 10-15 minute walk.

Ali and Nino statue: Based off the famous Austrian novel, these two statues rotate around each other, merge and separate. It's an artistic expression that invites you to reflect deeply about the nature of love. Walk 10-15 minutes from apartments for rent in Batumi.

Batumi Botanical Garden: Rose gardens and tropical forests make this nature reserve a haven for nature lovers. A 30-minute drive from your accommodation in Batumi.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Explore Batumi's restaurant scene with food that fuses Georgian, Turkish, and Mediterranean flavors. Here are three restaurants close to the most booked Batumi vacation rentals.

Adjarian House: Nestled in a scenic park by the lake, this restaurant serves traditional Georgian dishes like Adjarian khachapuri, which is a boat-shaped bread filled with melted cheese and topped with a runny egg.

Khinkali House: A casual restaurant that's perfect for a quick bite or a casual dinner. The restaurant specializes in khinkali, which are Georgian dumplings filled with meat, cheese, or vegetables.

Heart of Batumi: After a day on the boulevard, recharge your batteries at the Heart of Batumi, a cozy restaurant, serving delectable Georgian cuisine that you'll want to keep coming back for.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Beijing

Beijing Vacation Rentals

From its ancient temples to its quaint hutongs, Beijing is a different world, golden and glistening. Your Beijing vacation rental will be in the heart of a modern city that captures the romance of Chinese culture.

With a population of 21 million people, Beijing comes alive with excitement, and is your chance to delve into Asian way of life. The most widely practiced religion is Buddhism, with Taoism coming in second. Both faiths are embedded in Beijing's social fabric, and reflected in its ancient temples and pagodas.

The climate in Beijing is nothing short of exciting, with wonderful heat in summer, heavy snowfall in winter and occasional lightening strikes that dominate the sky, rapidly and continuous.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Beijing

Beijing offers an array of festivals that date back centuries. Here are three festivals that will increase demand for accommodation in Beijing.

Chinese New Year: The city comes alive with fireworks, red lanterns and the smell of Chinese food. Visit some of the unique landmarks, or dine with locals and learn about Beijing's customs.

Mid-Autumn Festival: Celebrate the full moon with lanterns and mooncakes. It's a magical experience that will make you feel like you're part of the local community.

Huangyaguan Great Wall Marathon: Test your strength with a leg-crunching marathon on the Great Wall. Feel the thrills, all the while enjoying the beautiful scenery.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Beijing

Beijing tells a story of ancient wonders, undamaged despite centuries of history.

The Great Wall of China: The world's best hike with its snaking walls and stunning views. Feel the relief of reaching its tallest tower, or camp on the wall with friends. It is located about 1-2 hours' drive from Beijing holiday rentals.

The Forbidden City: The imperial palace that inspired Disney's Mulan, this labyrinth of ancient walls and golden statues symbolizes China's cultural mark on the world. 15-30 minutes drive from accommodation in Beijing.

Temple of Heaven: The Temple of Heaven is a stunning complex of temples and gardens that has been a site of religious worship for centuries. A 30-minute drive from holiday lettings in Beijing.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

You need all the time in the world to explore Beijing's restaurant scene, with so many options to choose from that are packed full of powerful flavors.

Da Dong Roast Duck Restaurant: Serving Beijing's famous Peking duck. The duck is roasted to perfection and served with thin pancakes, scallions, and a variety of sauces.

Haidilao Hot Pot: Join in the Chinese tradition of boiling raw meats, vegetables, and noodles in a simmering pot of broth. Share with friends and family, and enjoy the punchy flavors. Located near popular holiday lettings in Beijing.

Jin Ding Xuan: Sichuan noodles, savory dumplings, sweet and sour chicken, and more. This restaurant is a haven of Chinese food that will treat your tastebuds to new sensations.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Dhaka

Dhaka Vacation Rentals

Dhaka, the vibrant heartbeat of Bangladesh, is a labyrinth of narrow streets and unexplored treasures. It's a dynamic metropolis that never sleeps, where you can dive into its rich culture and find solace in a charming Dhaka vacation rental.

Dhaka is home to 23 million people and is primarily an Islamic country, with Hinduism being the second most common religion. The locals of Dhaka are known for their warm and affectionate nature, and you'll undoubtedly feel at ease in this energetic city.

Dhaka enjoys a tropical climate, with steamy summers and mild winters, making it the perfect destination for travelers looking to escape the chill. The monsoon season (June-Sept), is the perfect time to visit the national parks, as they transform into lush oases.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Dhaka

Get swept away by the vibrant colors and enchanting music of Dhaka's dazzling festivals.

Bengali New Year Celebration: Feel a warmth of unity as Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists and Christians come together to celebrate the Bengali New Year, with parades, market stalls and dance performances. Plan your route to your Dhaka holiday rental in advance, as streets can be blocked off.

Dhaka International Folk Fest: This event brings together musicians and performers from all over the world, and it's a celebration of the rich folk traditions of Bangladesh.

Eid ul-Fitr: Bustling bazaars, lively street fairs and joyous parades; This Muslim festival is an enchanting and spiritual experience that will stay with you forever.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Dhaka

Marvel at awe-inspiring architecture as you delve into Dhaka's history with these fantastic landmarks.

Lalbagh Fort: A 17th-century fort, renowned for its intricate designs that showcase the best of Mughal-era architecture. This magnificent structure is a 10-minute drive from popular holiday lettings in Dhaka.

Dhakeshwari Temple: One of the holiest places of Hindu worship in Bangladesh. Feel spiritually awakened in this stunning temple that is a 5-minute walk from apartments for rent in Dhaka.

The National Parliament House: An architectural masterpiece that will leave you in awe. Designed by the famous architect Lui I Kan, it boasts stunning views and sprawling fields of Bakul flower trees. A 15-minute drive from popular vacation rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Whether you're indulging in street food or unwinding in a Bangladesh-style diner, you'll be a stone's throw away from your accommodation in Dhaka.

Star Kabab: A sizzling world of savory delights, beloved by everybody for its mouth-watering kebabs and biryani dishes. With high quality hygiene standards and reasonable prices, this is a popular choice for tourists and locals.

Beauty Lassi: A cultural icon in Dhaka, with signature lassi flavors, from classic mango and strawberry to unique blends like rose and coconut.

Nirob Hotel & Restaurant: Indulge in authentic Bangladeshi cuisine in a restaurant full of old-world charm. The food is like a love letter to the senses, with each bite telling a story of tradition and culture.

Hat Chao Samran

Hat Chao Samran Vacation Rentals

Hat Chao Samran is a picturesque coastal town with pristine beaches and crystalline waters. Escape from the mundane in a dreamy Hat Chao Samran vacation rental.

With a population of approximately 5,000 people, Hat Chao Samran exudes a peaceful and laid-back atmosphere. The majority of the locals practice Buddhism, which adds a spiritual dimension to the town's aura. As a tourist, you'll bask in the positive energy that emanates from the local temples and shrines.

The climate in Hat Chao Samran is warm and glimmering, where the town's natural beauty shines through, and where you can enjoy plenty of beach activities like surfing and volleyball.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Hat Chao Samran

If you're looking for an authentic Thai experience, close to your Hat Chao Samran holiday rental, then here are three festivals that will do the job.

Songkran Festival: A celebration that involves water fights and street parties. Hat Chao Samran is a great place to enjoy the water festivities, as you'll already be wearing your swimsuit.

Vegetarian Festival: A nine-day celebration that promotes purity and spiritual enlightenment. You'll witness devotees piercing their cheeks with sharp objects. Immerse in the spiritualness by visiting local shops in Hat Chao Samran, and see what delicious vegetarian food is on offer.

The Loy Krathong Festival: A mesmerizing celebration of lights, water, and beauty. Join people at Hat Chao Samran beach to float lanterns, candles, and krathongs into the ocean.

Choose Hat Chao Samran Holiday Rentals to See Hat Chao Samran Beach

Hat Chao Samran is an idyllic escape into golden shores and sapphire waves.

Hat Chao Samran Beach: A stunning stretch of sand where you can unwind under palm trees, or take a swim in the glistening ocean. This Thailand beach is your dream spot to escape from all your troubles. It's just a short walk or drive from accommodation in Hat Chao Samran

Chao Samran Beach Park: Located on the northern end of the Hat Chao Samran Beach, this is the perfect sport for picnics and enjoying some of the local food vendors. You'll meet new friends, and take part in fun beach sports. It also a short walk from apartments for rent in Hat Chao Samran.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Hat Chao Samran's restaurants offer paradise sunsets and fresh seafood carried straight from the shores.

Crab Pearls Fresh Seafood Kitchen: Beachside views with fresh seafood, this restaurant serves steamed crab and spicy soup, as well as more unique options like crab meat omelet and seafood fried rice. Located within walking distance of holiday lettings in Hat Chao Samran.

Ake Fresh Seafood: Big dishes and cheap prices, this beachview restaurant serves up a storm, with classic grilled seafood dishes like the white snapper fish, squids, prawns and more.

KhungKapong Restaurant: An enchanting dining experience, serving the best of Thai food next to the Cha-Am sea. If you love spicy food, then this is a must-visit for you.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Hat Yai

Hat Yai Vacation Rentals

At the crossroads of Thailand and Malaysia is Hat Yai, where you get the best of both worlds. Your Hat Yai vacation rental will be affordable and luxurious, in a city famed for its cheap prices and easy-going lifestyle.

Hat Yai has around 157,000, people, with the majority practicing Buddhism. As you travel in Hat Yao, you'll come across golden statues, exotic temples, and pagodas, and feel touched by the spirituality that ebbs and flows in this beautiful city.

The climate in Hat Yai is tropical, with an average temperature of 28°C. The city experiences heavy rainfall between September and November, but this will do little to dampen your spirits as you take part in the city's fall festivals.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Hat Yai

Tourists love to stay in Hat Yai holiday rentals when experiencing these exotic and exciting festivals.

Hat Yai Ice Dome Festival: A magical winter wonderland that will transport you to another world. The ice dome is a breathtaking sight to behold, where you can enjoy a variety of winter activities such as ice skating and snowboarding.

Hat Yai Midnight Songkran Festival: A vibrant and lively celebration of the Thai New Year. You'll step into a colorful, city-wide party, with people splashing water on each other.

Loy Krathong Festival: Let go of your worries, as you release krathongs into the water, symbolizing a fresh start. Cleanse your spirit and feel renewed.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Hat Yai

Hat Yai is a bustling city of undiscovered gems, where you can rest and take in the stunning sights.

Hat Yai Municipal Park: What was once just a simple mountain has transformed into an oasis of tranquility, with decorative statues, quaint markets, and breathtaking viewpoints. A 20-30 minute drive from apartments for rent in Hat Yai.

Wat Hat Yai Nai: Have you ever seen a sleeping Buddha? Now's your chance, in a majestic temple with rainbow stairs and golden statues. A 15-20 minute drive from holiday lettings in Hat Yai.

Kim Yong Market: From cashew nuts to Thai milk tea, this colorful market has it all, as well as exotic souvenirs for your family back home. A 10-15 minute drive from accommodation in Hat Yai.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Step out of your Hat Yai holiday rental, and immerse yourself in a world of tasty cuisines, as you uncover hidden flavors and fresh ingredients.

Pa Yang Restaurant: Southern Thai food with explosive flavors that linger wonderfully in your mouth. It's a charming place, that keeps its area's clean, and ensures the highest quality of food.

Sugar Rock Restaurant: Don't miss out on this hangout that serves uncommon, delicious Thai food that only the locals know about, redefining what it means to be authentic.

Bankampu Hatyai: Seafood staples blanched and spiced with exotic flavors. This restaurant is famous for its carefully grilled crab, making tourists and locals go back for more.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Hin Kong

Hin Kong Vacation Rentals

Meet the turquoise waters of Thailand with Hin Kong beach, a precious pearl of white sands and palm trees. From cozy cottages to beachfront bungalows, your Hin Kong vacation rental will be a window into paradise.

With an island population of almost 12,000, Hin Kong beach is the place to meet the residents, who practice Buddhism. This makes Hin Kong a perfect hotspot to meditate and practice yoga, against calming waves and warm winds.

The climate in Hin Kong is tropical and a time to getaway from the cold. Bask in the sunshine with a cocktail in one hand and a frisbee in the other, or water-ski against the crimson sunset. There are many things to do, and many moments of peace and tranquility.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Hin Kong

Hin Kong is a base from where you can celebrate Thailand's best festivals.

Full Moon Party: Head to Haad Rin Beach during the full moon for a legendary event of music, fire shows, and beach sports. Find solitude after a day of partying in your Hin Kong holiday rental.

Songkran festival: A riot of colors, music, and water, as locals and visitors alike take to the beach to splash water on each other. Celebrate this festival on Hin Kong beach, where you can steam off under the tropical sun.

Loi Krathong Festival: Open the doors of your accommodation in Hin Kong to behold a beautiful sight of floating lanterns, dancing across the water. It's a romantic spectacle and a great time to reenergize.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Hin Kong

With a dazzling sandbank that feels like you're walking to the sun, you could spend all day on Hin Kong. If you're in the mood for something different, these two landmarks also offer moments of relaxation.

Wat Phu Khao Noi: A spectacular stone temple surrounded by lush palm trees. Head to this temple in the summer for the best chance to see baboons harvesting coconuts. A 6-minute drive from apartments for rent in Hin Kong.

Phaeng Noi Waterfall: Explore a 3-hour hike into a lush jungle of waterfalls and refreshing pools, where you wash away your worries and appreciate the island's natural beauty. A 12-minute drive from holiday lettings in Hin Kong.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Satisfy your hunger cravings with spectacular beach views, close to your accommodation in Hin Kong.

Alcove: A cozy beachside restaurant where the sun sets its red glow. It has a warm and ambient atmosphere, with live music and delicious cuisine, making it a local favorite.

Charlie's: Magic concoctions of cocktails, with seafood and a beautiful sunset all for good measure. It's the kind of place you keep going back to.

KingKong Bar: You've never seen a restaurant like this, with a decorative style made entirely out of bamboo and serving cocktails under palm trees. Great vibes, and friendly staff.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Hin Lek Fai

Hin Lek Fai Vacation Rentals

It's time to escape into the charming town of Hin Lek Fai, where you can stop, breathe and appreciate the nature around you. A Hin Lek Fai vacation rental is your first step in this spiritual experience.

With a population size of around 10,000 people, the locals follow the Buddhist faith, which is deeply rooted in their everyday lives. This is the place to feel at peace, and develop your bond with nature, as you escape the hustle and bustle of city life.

Hin Lek Fai has a tropical climate, with temperatures ranging from 25 to 35 degrees Celsius throughout the year. You'll always feel warm in your accommodation in Hin Lek Fai.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Hin Lek Fai

Hin Lek Fai festivals offer opportunities to bond with the locals and the wildlife.

Monkey Buffet Festival: A buffet table loaded with fruits and vegetables for hundreds of monkeys to feast on. It's an unforgettable experience and a time to appreciate our common ancestors.

Hua Hin Jazz Festival: This two-day festival brings together some of the best jazz performers from Thailand and around the world. Held in a beautiful outdoor setting, with the ocean as the backdrop. Staying in a holiday letting in Hin Lek Fai is a tranquil base for attending the festival.

Songkran Festival: Locals and tourists come together to splash water on each other in a symbol of cleansing and renewal. It's a fun event that highlights the importance of community.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Hin Lek Fai

Interact with wildlife and find peace with the local community of Hin Lek Fai. Most booked Apartments for rent in Hin Lek Fai are 10-20 minutes from these wonderful landmarks.

Hin Lek Fai viewpoint: Rest your eyes on a panoramic view of Hua Hin and the ocean. It's inhabited by monkeys and a pig farm, and makes for a beautiful hike.

Wat Nong Khra: Find peace in this tranquil temple with intricate architecture. Meet with the local Buddhist community and gain a deeper insight into your sense of being.

Black Mountain Water Park: Where a lake meets the sun in a crimson glow, this water park is full of exciting water slides. A great time to unwind and have some fun.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Explore these hidden charms, never too far from your Hin Lek Fai holiday rental.

Bartholdi: A lakeside retreat that offers both European and Thai cuisine. Pop open a bottle of wine and delight in this scenic restaurant, with friendly staff and food served throughout the day.

บ้านก่งกะยา - BaanKong&Yaa: Dine in the middle of a lake with floating platforms that light up like fireflies in a starry night. Magical and breathtaking are two words to describe BaanKong&Yaa.

W.Double U Coffee: Coffee experts will agree that this restaurant has mastered the art of making coffee. With its quirky atmosphere and outdoor dining, it's a great place relax and breathe.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Hua Hin

Hua Hin Vacation Rentals

Feel the love in Hua Hin, with soft sandy beaches, fireworks, horse rides and more. If you're looking for a cozy Hua Hin vacation rental, then you're in luck. Hua Hin offers luxurious spas and villas for your getaway into paradise.

Hua Hin is a small town with a population of around 85,000 people. The majority of the population practice Buddhism. You'll discover Buddhist temples and learn about Buddhist customs in your enchanting journey away from it all.

Tired of the winter freeze? Hua Hin is a tropical getaway all-year round, but average temperatures cool to around 25°C in the winter, making it a perfect Christmas vacation of palm trees and cocktails.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Hua Hin

Treasure new memories with these unique festivals, attracting people from across the globe.

Hua Hin Vintage Car Parade: A stunning display of vintage automobiles, dating back to the 1920s. Join in with the revelry as they cruise through the streets, with polished chrome and gleaming paintwork.

Hua Hin Kite Festival: Watch hundreds of colorful kites dance in the sun like graceful birds. You'll take part in kite-making workshops, live music, and food stalls, making it a bonanza of fun and wonder.

Hua Hin Jazz Festival: Let the smooth sounds of saxophones carry you into the night with this spectacular jazz festival. The mainstage is on the beach, not too far from your accommodation in Hua Hin.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Hua Hin

From ancient temples to interesting wildlife, Hua Hin defines Thailand's beauty and exoticness.

Khao Hin Lek Fai: A beautiful hike, offering panoramic views of Hua Hin. You'll connect with the wildlife, with many monkeys, dogs and horses roaming around. A 11-minute drive from Hua Hin holiday rentals.

Wat Khao Noi: A breathtaking view of Huan Hin and a golden statue of the Buddha, making this temple a wonderful place to reflect and developer your inner peace. A 10-minute drove from apartments for rent in Hua Hin.

Wat Bo Fai: A peaceful temple with a large tranquil garden and inhabited by many chickens. A great spot to feed fish and think more deeply about the world. Less than 20 minutes from holiday lettings in Hua Hin.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Take your taste buds on a journey into Hua Hin's culinary treats, with restaurants and bars close to your Hua Hin vacation rental.

Tam Som Restaurant: If you're looking to spice up your platter, then this authentic Isan restaurant is your go-to. It can be a little hard to find, but entering this restaurant feels like discovering a magical garden.

Sundance Lounge: A glass house that sparkles in the tropical sun. You'll dine next to a crystal blue swimming pool, drinking cocktails and feeling like you've reached peak relaxation.

Ogen Hua Hin restaurant מסעדת עוגן הוואה הין: Hearty Mediterranean delights with a calming atmosphere, friendly staff and fantastic hygiene standards.

The logo for Karta, featuring the word "karta" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font, centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Hua Thanon

Hua Thanon Vacation Rentals

Hua Thanon is a picturesque fishing village, with pristine beaches, crystal-clear waters, and a tranquil atmosphere. Imagine waking up in your Hua Than vacation rental to a beautiful beach of stretched-out palm trees, glistening in the golden sun.

Your dreams start here, in this small village with a population of approximately 3,000 people. The majority of the community are muslims, but it is only in Hua Hin where you can find mosques and Buddhist temples so close together.

The climate in Hua Thanon is tropical, with lots of sunny days and gentle winds. The rainfall on Koh Samui is short lived, so you're guaranteed a dazzling vacation of clear blue skies, as you rest in your luxurious accommodation in Hua Thanon.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Hua Thanon

From ancient customs to modern celebrations, Hua Thanon is a small village with a big personality, offering exciting festivals close to your Hua Thanon holiday rental.

Loy Krathong Festival: A centuries-old tradition where people float lotus-shaped vessels on Hua Thanon beach. It's a romantic experience that will spark your love for Thailand.

Songkran Festival: This vibrant festival takes place in mid-April and involves people throwing water at each other, symbolizing the washing away of past misfortunes. This holiday will varnish your beach memories with fun and laughter.

Amazing Thailand Grand Sale: A great time for discounts on food, clothing, and other items. The streets of Hua Thanon come alive with colorful stalls and vendors selling delicious Thai dishes, snacks, and desserts.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Hua Thanon

Discover a world of true bliss, with Huan Thanon's beautiful beach that is surrounded by quaint landmarks.

Hua Thanon Beach: Strong waves, a clean ocean and lots of shade under the palm trees. This popular beach is a great opportunity to rest on a hammock and enjoy the sunshine. A 10-minute drive from apartments for rent in Hua Thanon.

Wat Sila Ngu temple: There's a charming energy to this red stoned temple with its intricate art and breathtaking ocean views. Located just 15 minutes away from popular holiday rentals.

Khanom Market: A must-see open market, with cheap goods and friendly merchants. Chat with the locals and learn more about Thailand's way of life. A five-minute drive from holiday lettings in Hua Thanon.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Savor the flavors of Thailand's culinary scene, then retreat back to your Hua Thanon holiday rental, with a belly full of happiness.

Moji Restaurant: A quaint cafe with fresh, addicting food all set at reasonable prices. It's the go-to place for foreigners and Thai alike.

Frankies Cafe: Spend a perfect morning with a steamy cup of coffee and a delicious sandwich. This cafe boasts a charming atmosphere with lots of English books to read.

Blue Terrace Cafe and Bar: A famous food and coffee joint on a hill, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding area. The menu has a vast selection of juicy meals and sweet drinks.

Huay Kaew

Huay Kaew Vacation Rentals

Chiang Mai invites you to stay at its most charming district, Huay Kaew. With your Huay Kaew vacation rental, you'll begin a journey of cultural richness in this exotic, cosmopolitan paradise.

The city Chiang Mai has a population of approximately 1.6 million people, most of whom are Buddhist. Buddhism is a way of life in Huay Kaew too, with an opportunity to learn about Buddhist philosophy, or soak in the peaceful atmosphere of the nearby temples.

The climate in Huay Kaew is tropical, with three distinct seasons: hot, cool, and rainy. The best time to visit is between November and February when the weather is cool and dry, making it a perfect time to explore places like the Night Bazaar and the Old City.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Huay Kaew

If you're looking to explore beyond your luxurious Huay Kaew holiday rental, then these festivals offer a great opportunity to interact with the local community.

Songkran festival: The streets come alive with water guns and water balloons, as everybody celebrates the new year. It's a refreshing way to beat the heat.

Yi Peng Lantern Festival: Join in with the community to craft elaborate lanterns that light up the night sky like a sea of stars. A wonderful way to let go of past mistakes and welcome new beginnings.

Visakha Bucha Day: A religious holiday commemorating Buddha. Watch thousands of pilgrims gather at the temples to meditate and reflect. It's an uplifting experience that will connect you with Buddhism.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Huay Kaew

Your Huay Kaew accommodation is your first step in a journey of historical landmarks and spiritual temples.

Wat Phra That Doi Suthep: A mountain-top gem that has panoramic views of the entire city. This temple exudes a sense of peace and only a 20-minute drive from your accommodation in Huay Kaew.

Wat Phra That Doi Kham: A Buddhist temple that only the locals know about, with golden statues of the Buddha that glimmer in the sun. A 25-minute drive from apartments for rent in Kaew.

Tha Pae Gate: A stunning example of Thai history, this historic gate is a must-see with many shops, cafes and temples. An 18-minute drive from holiday lettings in Huay Kaew.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Huay Kaew is a long street of beautiful rentals and dazzling restaurants. Take a walk and checkout these local favorites.

Funky Grill Chiang Mai: This open air restaurant serves meat skewers, spicy mala dishes, and more. It's a groovy hangout joint that's within walking distance of your Huay Kaew holiday rental.

Sakana Sashimi: A buffet of Japanese delights with big servings and friendly service. This place is your go-to for Japanese food.

Boat Restaurant: A family Thai restaurant that offers delicious and cheap food. It's been around for a long time and has become a fan favorite for students and families.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Jakarta

Jakarta Vacation Rentals

Jakarta is nothing like you imagined, with an unforgettable skyline that paints the city in a modern and stylish landscape, amidst palm trees and luxurious Jakarta vacation rentals.

With a population of over 10 million people, Jakarta is a melting pot of different cultures, ethnicities, and religions. The majority of the population is Muslim, with significant numbers of Christians, Buddhists, and Hindus. You'll witness the beautiful and intricate architecture of mosques, churches, and temples, dotted all around the city.

Jakarta is a tropical paradise with average temperatures of 28°C (82°F). The city will insulate your love for activities like exploring parks, going on a boat tour or visiting a rooftop bar.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Jakarta

Jakarta is a cultural hub for people around the world to celebrate and share in the festivities. Here are three that will increase demand for Jakarta holiday rentals.

Jakarta Fair: Car exhibits, colorful stands, dance performances, and carnival rides: Whether you're going at nighttime or during the day, this is festival booms with exciting energy and opportunities to buy exotic goods.

Jakarta Fashion Week: Get ready for a thrilling display of artistic expression. This is your chance to delve into Indonesia's fashion trends and be inspired by the runaway shows.

Jakarnaval: A jubilation of beating drums, colorful parades and masked dancing. You'll feel Indonesia's culture come alive as you learn about customs and traditions.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Jakarta

Jakarta's landmarks are a symbol of Indonesia's identity and pride, and your chance to connect with the city on a deeper level.

Monas Tower: A stunning beacon of Jakarta's glory, standing at a whopping 132 meters tall. Climb to the top of the tower to enjoy a breathtaking panoramic view. 10 minutes from accommodation in Jakarta.

Istiqlal Mosque: The Istiqlal Mosque is the largest mosque in Southeast Asia. Its unique modernist design creates a spiritual presence. Holiday lettings in Jakarta are 10 minutes away.

Jakarta Cathedral: A stunning example of Dutch colonial architecture. Its towering spires and ornate interior has a romantic, gothic design that will embolden your love for history. A 20 minute drive from apartments for rent in Jakarta.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Book your Jakarta holiday rental and embark on a culinary journey, in a city with a rich nightlife and exciting food scenes.

La Brasserie Restaurant: Lightning fast service with a variety of food options to choose from. With its elegant decor and intimate ambiance, La Brasserie is an unforgettable choice.

Skye: Perched on the 56th floor, you'll feast your eyes on a skyline view of Jakarta, complete with a stylish design and a romantic swimming pool. This restaurant makes for a memorable night out.

Sana Sini Restaurant: Enter a hall of cooking stations, offering a variety of Indonesian and international dishes. Sana Sini Restaurant is perfect for those who want to try a little bit of everything in a pleasant and warm atmosphere.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Kaeng Sian

Kaeng Sian Vacation Rentals

Kaeng Sian is a town nestled in a lush valley, where the River Khwae weaves through the landscape like a silver ribbon. Kaeng Sian vacation rentals offer a life of tranquility, where you can immerse in nature's bounty.

The population of Kaeng Sian is a little over 6,000, with the majority of the people following Buddhism. This is your opportunity to visit some truly remarkable temples and find spiritual sanctuary for your mind, body, and soul.

The climate in Kaeng Sian is tropical, with hot and humid summers and mild winters. The best time to visit is during the cool season from November to February when you can take admire the cool breeze and soothing warmth.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kaeng Sian

Delight in Kaeng Sian's community-feel festivities, wrapping your vacation days with a blanket of fun.

Long-tail Boat Racing festival, Kanchanaburi: Be dazzled by brightly decorated boats racing through the water, as engines roar and spectators cheer. It's a thrilling event, showcasing the skill and agility of the boat racers. With your accommodation in Kaeng Sian, you'll be close to the action.

The Loy Krathong Festival: Commemorate the rainy season by floating boats made of banana leaves, candles, and flowers on the River Kwai. You'll get the chance to plant your own lantern in the water, and express your gratitude to Buddha.

Songkran Festival: Prepare yourself for a street-wide brawl of water pistols, buckets and water balloons in this heat-relieving festival of the New Year.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Kaeng Sian

Kaeng Sian hosts some spectacular landmarks that many tourists miss out on when they visit the area.

Wat Tham Khiritham: Feel spiritually touched by this breathtaking temple, with decorate statues such as the black serpent. A 20-minute drive from apartments for rent in Kaeng Sian.

Jetovimut Temple: Explore a beautiful sight of sitting buddha statues alongside a golden statue. It's a mesmerizing sight and a testament to the community's faith. A 20 minute drive from Kaeng Sian holiday rentals.

River Khwae Bridge: A historical bridge, famous for appearing in war movies. You can also take a scenic boat ride along the river. A five-minute drive from most booked accommodation in Kaeng Sian.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Kaeng Sian is a garden of cafes and restaurant that range from quaint to stylish. Head out from your Kaeng Sian vacation rental for a day of delectable cuisines.

Kan Machi Cafe: A Japanese garden-style cafe where you can unwind under a clear blue sky. Take a walk through the beautiful scenery, or sit and relax with a cup of matcha tea.

Rainforest Café: Take a break from the beaming sun in this rainforest-style cafe, serving cakes, tea, coffee and more in a photogenic atmosphere.

Loft Restaurant & Bar: It's time for a cocktail and karaoke in this romantic restaurant, beaming with elegance. You'll meet with like-minded folk and eat fresh Thai food, topping your up vacation highs.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned on the left side of a light gray rectangular box. Above the logo, a solid green horizontal line spans the width of the page.

Kamala

Kamala Vacation Rentals

Feel the good life on Kamala beach, where the calming sea is just as blue as the sky. From family villas to spa hotels, there are Kamala vacation rentals for everybody. Kamala is a goldilocks of luxury that pleases all.

Kamala has a population of around 5,000 people. The majority of the population practices Buddhism, with a significant minority practicing Islam. The locals are warm and welcoming, and always eager to share their religious customs with you.

The climate in Kamala is tropical, with temperatures ranging from 24°C to 32°C throughout the year. You'll receive lots of vitamin D from the abundance of sunshine, proving that Kamala is a healthy choice for restoring your body and mind.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kamala

Sun, sea, sand and exciting celebrations. That's the key for a relaxing holiday abroad, and we have the perfect beach-theme festivals, waiting for you.

Moon Festival, Paradise Beach Club: Join in the fun with DJs, live music, fire shows, and more. It's a lively night out with great vibes all round. A 20-minute drive your accommodation in Kamala.

The Phuket International Boat Show: Marvel at magnificent yachts which collectively amount to over $250 million USD. You'll get to explore inside the yachts, speak to the marine professionals and indulge in a world of luxury.

Phuket Vegetarian Festival: A celebration of vegetarianism and Chinese culture. Dress in white and participate in the ceremonies, with food stalls and street performances showcasing traditional Chinese culture.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Kamala

Feel the waves of Kamala beach massage your body. The sea here is soft and calm, making for a perfect tropical getaway. If you're looking to venture out, here are some interesting spots in the surrounding area.

Tsunami Memorial Park: A solemn memorial for the lives lost during the Tsunami of 2004. The park has an abstract sculpture that will give you pause for reflection. A 6-minute walk from beachside Kamala holiday rentals.

น้ำตกบังแม็กซ์: Hike up the hill to this mysterious waterfall, surrounded by lush, green scenery. Take a swim or buy some handcraft items in the Thai hut. An eight-minute drive from apartments for rent in Kamala.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Rest easy and dine in the most laid back restaurants of Thailand, as you raise your glass to Kamala beach.

Smile Bar: Watch the sun set its golden cast on this romantic restaurant, serving delicious panang curry, BBQ chicken, and more. Top off the night with cocktails and saxophone music.

Restaurant by the sea: As the name suggests, this restaurant will be close by your apartment for rent in Kamala. Palm trees, cocktails, live music and more. This restaurant has the full package.

Coconut Garden: This place is brimming with beachside personality. Meet the friendly staff, and unwind with a cold beer and tasty food. It also includes fantastic vegetarian options.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Kamlon

Kamlon Vacation Rentals

Get away from it all with this charming land of traditional Thai houses and beautiful scenery. Your Kamlon vacation rental is a great leap into a vacation with lush green hills and silver streams.

The population of Kamlon is between 2,500 to 3,000 people. The majority of the residents practice Buddhism, and this is evident as you explore the golden temples dotted around the area, like glimmering candles in a garden.

The climate in Kam Lon is tropical, with hot and humid weather throughout the year. The average temperature ranges from 25 to 30 degrees Celsius, making it the perfect place to reconnect with nature and be wrapped in the warmth and wonder of Thailand.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kamlon

Kamlon offers a peaceful haven surrounded by nature, with thrilling festivals not too far away.

Nakhon Si Thammarat Illuminated Boat Procession: A procession of delicately-crafted boats, lit up with colorful lights and paraded down the Tha Chin River. This event is a magical experience that is only a thirty-minute drive from your accommodation in Kamlon.

Thung Song Boat Racing Festival: Gather with the locals to cheer on the traditional long-tail boat races on the Bandon River. Explore food stalls, watch cultural performances and parades, and try some traditional Thai food.

Lan Saka Durian Festival: This event features various durian-related activities, such as durian eating contests, cooking competitions, and durian orchard tours. You'll immerse in the local culture and make friends with the community.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Kamlon

Kamlon has many opportunities to develop your love for nature, with streams, forests and mountains close by.

Soi Dao Waterfall: Weave through a jungle oasis and discover a glistening waterfall. It's a place of solitude, and a 10-minute drive from apartments for rent in Kamlon.

Khao Luang: An evergreen forest that captures the rolling hills of Kamlon. There are opportunities to learn about the flora and insects that inhabit the region. A 10-minute drive from holiday lettings in Kamlon.

Wat Pa Khao Khun Nam Khiri Wong: A place of dharma practice where the stream trickles in a soft and relaxing way. Find your inner peace here, only a seven-minute drive from Kamlon holiday rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Venture out of your Kamlon vacation rental and indulge in Kamlon's community charm, with quaint restaurants and cafes just around the corner.

The Kiriwong Valley Restaurant: A peaceful restaurant offering stunning views of the surrounding area. They serve Mangosteen salad with a satisfying crunch, Liang leaves with a delightful aroma, and Kua Kling packed full of flavor.

ร้านขนมจีนป่าเขียว Khanom Jeen Thai: Southern Thai food with a vast variety of curry options. This place is perfect for an authentic Kamlon dining experience as its a go-to restaurant for the locals.

Good Time Cafe: A decorated, trendy cafe with comfortable seats and cheap prices. They have plenty of options to choose from, along with a chill vibe that is unbeatable anywhere else.

The logo for Karta, featuring the word "karta" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font, positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Kanchanaburi

Kanchanaburi Vacation Rentals

Enter a wonderland of Thai huts, old train tracks and ancient stone temples. A Kanchanaburi vacation rental is a magic getaway, as you wake up to the sound of tweeting birds and cascading waterfalls.

Kanchanaburi has a population of roughly 25,600 with the majority practicing Buddhism. The town is home to numerous temples and shrines, providing you a glimpse into the spirituality of the Thai people. Make the most out of your stay by participating in meditation or an alms-giving ceremony.

The climate in Kanchanaburi is tropical, with warm temperatures and high humidity throughout the year. Even the rainy season is a great time to visit, providing lush greenery and vibrant flora. You'll hike, you'll swim, and you'll explore.

Kanchanaburi awaits.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kanchanaburi

Kanchanaburi has festivals that will challenge your expectations and shape your vacation into something truly unique.

River Kwai Bridge Week: Commemorating the infamous bridge and its role in World War II. You'll be swept up by the energy of the festivities. A 15-minute drive from most booked Kanchanaburi holiday rentals.

Khao Chak Wang Festival: Celebrating the local cuisine and culture of Kanchanaburi, where you can indulge in delicious food and watch traditional performances. The atmosphere is vibrant and colorful, with the aroma of spices and food lingering in the air.

River Kwai Trophy Adventure Race: An adventurous race that will test your limits, as you kayak, cycle, and run through the challenging terrain of Kanchanaburi.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Kanchanaburi

From ancient temples to strange trees, Kanchanaburi is a hotspot for exciting places to visit. Here's a list that is just the tip of the iceberg.

Giant Raintree: A never ending maze of tree branches that showcases the perplexities of nature. A 10-minute drive from accommodation in Kanchanaburi.

Wat Tham Phu Wa: Like an enchanting palace nestled in a forest, this temple has a hidden secret: It's located inside a cave, making it both a masterpiece of art and nature. A 25-minute drive from holiday lettings in Kanchanaburi.

Wat Tham Suea (Tiger Cave Temple): A crimson beacon of devotion to Buddha, this temple also has a built-in cave system, and considered one of Thailand's best work. A 20-minute drive from apartments for rent in Kanchanaburi.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Make your stay in a Kanchanaburi vacation rental unforgettable as you explore these renowned restaurants.

Tapas Thai Bar Restaurant: From curries to British Sunday roast, this restaurant has a mix of different cuisines that will tick off your pub desires. It's a great place to meet like-minded travelers.

Keeree Tara: One of the most popular restaurants in Kanchanaburi. The Tom Yung Goong is a classic dish that makes you go back for more. The restaurant has a soothing ambiance that dazzles your night with romance.

Good Times Restaurant: A quaint restaurant with a warm and inviting atmosphere. You'll dine next to the river, eating a variety of delicious delights like their famous apple pie.

Karon

Karon Vacation Rentals

Enter a world of golden beaches, sapphire sea and a vibrant nightlife. Karon is the go-to province for all your Thailand desires. From palm trees villas to luxurious apartments, your Karon vacation rental will be a gateway into bliss.

Karon has population of 5,000 people, with Buddhism playing a significant role in the local community. Colorful statues and temples decorate the land, enriching your stay with exotic experiences.

The climate in Karon is tropical, with temperature ranging from 24°C to 33°C. Now's the time to put on your beach gear and get ready for sunshine, sea and sensational memories.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Karon

Karon's a blast when it comes to its festivals. Here are some not too far from popular Karon holiday rentals.

Karon Market Street Fair: An opportunity to bond with the community, try out local cuisine and buy lots of cheap goods. It's a go-to destination for foreigners and a great way to experience Karon's culture.

Phuket King's Cup Regatta: Sail the seas in this heart-thumping spectacle on Kata beach. Even if you're not participating, you'll be inspired by the talent and skill of the boat racers.

Phuket International Blues Rock Festival: Party with like-minded fun enthusiasts as you dance the night away. If you're American, it's a taste of home and great way to celebrate your time in Karon.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Karon

No Thailand trip is complete without a visit to Karon's iconic landmarks.

Karon View Point: Behold the entire province of Karon with this spectacular, panoramic view point. Visit at sundown for an extra romantic experience that will wash your worries away. A six-minute drive from accommodation in Karon.

The Big Buddha, Phuket: A magnificent stone structure that will leave you awestruck. It's a testament to Thailand's rich religious heritage and time for you to reflect. A 12-minute drive from holiday lettings in Karon.

Karon Beach: A beach that defines the word 'hidden gem', with a narrow strip of soft sand, clear blue waters and small crowds. Popular apartments for rent in Karon are just around the corner, next to the bars, restaurants and shops.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Thailand invites you to romantic restaurants, beachside bars and quaint cafes, all a walkaway from your apartment for rent in Karon.

On The Rock Restaurant: Stroll through garden-esque scenery to find this treasure trove of Thai cuisine. You'll fall in love with its low hanging trees and unbelievable beach views.

Mama Jin Restaurant: A colorful hangout place, where you can try the very best of Thai food, and converse with the friendly staff.

Tree O'clock Cafe & Bistro: A chic cafe with a smooth and stylish design. It has an artistic staircase, tasty meals and creative coffee options.

Catch Beach Club: Toast to your dreamy Karon vacation in this glamorous restaurant, with music sets and fire shows all for good measure.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Khao Yai

Khao Yai Vacation Rentals

Khao Yai is a journey into nature, where elephants and monkeys roam free, and where you can get in touch with your naturalist side. A Khao Yai vacation rental is your own private paradise, surrounded by the beauty of the great outdoors.

Khao Yai is in the Phetchaburi Province, which has a population of 480,000, who mostly practice Buddhism. When you explore Khao Yai, you'll discover some truly magical temples, hidden away among lush jungles and caves. It's a great time to learn more about the Buddhist faith or connect with your inner self.

Khao Yai has a tropical climate with warm temperatures throughout the year, making it a great place for refreshing waterfalls, rock climbing, adventurous safaris and more.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Khao Yai

Varnish your vacation with these breathtaking festivals, sure to give you plenty of joyous memories.

International Kite Festival: A swathe of colorful kites swirl in the sky. You'll be in awe by the vast variety of creative kites on show. This festival is only a few minutes away from Khao Yai holiday rentals.

Songkran: A vibrant water festival, where people splash around, laugh and feel refreshed from the hot sun. Khao Yai is a great place to celebrate this holiday as the community is known for its lively and festive spirit.

Phra Nakhon Khiri Festival: Feel the magic come alive in this dazzling display of illuminating floats, parading through the streets. Be in the moment with decorative lights, Thai food and street dances.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Khao Yai

Khao Yai has a rich culture where its temples and natural scenery tell a unique story.

Wat Suwanamas Mongkol: Come and meditate in this majestic temple, nestled among mountains and lush greenery. It's a peaceful abode that's only a 20-minute drive from apartments for rent in Khao Yao.

Wat Cha Am Khiri: Nothing says magical like walking up a dragon-adorned staircase into a cave-like Buddhist temple. The art alone is enough to fall in love with Thailand's culture. This temple is a 10-minute drive from accommodation in Khao Yao.

Cha-am Beach: Just round the corner from your Khao Yao holiday rental, this beach is an escape from the crowds as you bathe in the warmth and sunshine.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Venture out from your holiday letting in Khao Yao, and experience these delectable restaurants and cafes, where you can meet the locals and try exotic food.

ร้านก๋วยเตี๋ยวเจ้าคุณหุบกะพง: Cheap and authentic noodle dishes in the heart of the village. A quaint place to unwind and bond with the community.

บ้านไร่น้ำอิง ร้านอาหารทะเลพื้นเมือง เพชรบุรี: Hearty and spicy Thai food in a floral and decorative atmosphere. The coffee here is famous for its powerful flavor.

Didine Restaurant Cha-Am: A luxurious garden setting that serves both Thai and Italian cuisine. The best choice for western cuisine comforts.

Max Restaurant: Relaxing beachside restaurant with customer service so good, you'll feel like a king.

Lviv

Lviv Vacation Rentals

Lviv is often referred to as the "Paris of Ukraine," and rightly so. It is a city of cobbled streets, grandiose architecture, and historical ambiance. With low crime and a friendly atmosphere, Lviv vacation rentals make for a charming retreat into European history.

The population of Lviv is approximately 730,000, and the majority of its inhabitants are Roman Catholic. Explore Church of the Transfiguration or Cathedral of St. Mary, and immerse yourself in the gravitas of centuries' old architecture.

Lviv summers are generally warm and sunny, while the winters are mild, with regular snowfall and festive holiday spirits. This makes Lviv a perfect summer getaway and also a winter wonderland.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Lviv

Lviv is a vibrant city of traditions and artistic expression, best shown through their festivals. Here are three that will enrich your cultural knowledge.

The Golden Lion Theater Festival: Soak up Lviv's historical charm, with ballets, plays and operas that fulfill your culture-seeking desires. This is a huge event that increases demand for accommodation in Lviv.

Lviv Coffee Festival: Nothing wakes you up in the morning like a steamy cup of coffee. This festival is your chance to learn unique styles and flavors that date back to the 17th Century, making your mornings ever more flavorful.

Lviv Leopolis Grand Pix: Feel the vintageness come alive as you watch period-style motorcars zoom across the city like something out of the Italian Job.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Lviv

Discover these architectural treasures as you explore a city shaped by centuries of European history.

Lviv Opera House: An architectural masterpiece that will transport you back to the city's golden era. Admire its grandeur and ornate facade as you catch a show or a guided tour. The Opera House is a 10-minute walk away from Lviv's holiday rentals.

Rynok Square: The square's architecture spans over several centuries, and a place to develop your knowledge of history, or unwind at the local cafes. The Rynok Square is a 5-minute walk away from popular rentals.

High Castle Hill: A panoramic view of Lviv's stunning landscape, perfect for a romantic stroll or taking photos with your friends and family. Apartments for rent in Lviv are five minutes away.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Discover hidden gems that redefine restaurant dining, as you venture from your holiday letting in Lviv to the mysterious and magical.

Kryivka: Track down this vintage WWII bunker, tucked away in Old Town and say the secret password, 'Slava Ukraina'. Upon entry, you'll enter a new world as you taste hearty and filling Ukrainian cuisine.

Lviv Coffee Mining Manufacture: Sip coffee in a mine-themed cafe, equipped with mining tools and locally roasted coffee beans. Served with traditional Lviv pastries that have flavors that dance in your mouth.

Meat & Justice: A medieval-style restaurant of red-bricked walls and keg-like chairs. They cook juicy steaks over a great pit of coal, in a restaurant surrounded by dungeon torture displays.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Manama

Manama Vacation Rentals

Manama is a cosmopolitan haven in the Arabian Gulf, offering golden beaches, gleaming skyscrapers, and a rich array of shopping bazaars. This city is waiting for you to explore it, and rest in a luxurious Manama vacation rental.

With a population of approximately 709,000, the majority of the residents in Manama are Muslim. Experience the warmth and hospitality of the Bahraini during Ramadan, when the city comes alive with communal worship and charity.

Manama is an oasis of warmth and a perfect escape from harsh, freezing weather. The best time to visit Manama is in the fall season when the soft sea breeze refreshes your mind.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Manama

There's a magic to Manama festivals found nowhere else in the world, as you embark on a journey of cultural insight and thrill-seeking entertainment.

Bahrain Grand Prix: An orchestra of cars, darting around the track with skill and precision. Feel the thrills in this world-renowned event, increasing demand for apartments for rent in Manama.

Bahrain International Airshow: Be in awe by this spectacular display of aircrafts from around the world. It's like watching a ballet in the sky, as the planes twist and turn.

Spring of Culture Festival: Experience soul-stirring rhythms of African drumming, graceful movements of Indian dance, the powerful storytelling of Arabic theater and more. It's a great opportunity to connect with local Bahrainis and learn about different cultures.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Manama

Embark on a journey through Bahrain's capital city, with landmarks that will leave you spellbound and inspired.

Bahrain World Trade Center: Twin towers that are like sails soaring in the sky. Head to the skybridge for panoramic views of the city, or take a guided tour. A short drive from apartments for rent in Manama.

Al Fateh Grand Mosque: Enter the golden age of Islam with a grand dome, minarets, and intricate interior designs. The mosque is a tranquil place that will soothe your spirit. It is about a 10-minute walk from Manama's holiday rentals.

Bahrain National Museum: A powerful display of Bahrain's identity, showcasing ancient burial mounds, traditional crafts and art. The museum is just a short drive away from holiday lettings in Manama.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

With a range of savory grilled dishes and sweet confections, Manama is the perfect destination for exotic food enthusiasts.

Al Abraaj: Enjoy the mouthwatering flavors of Arabic cuisine, featuring delicious grilled dishes that will satisfy your cravings. Located near popular Manama vacation rentals.

Masso: Fall in love with this culinary masterpiece, with delightful dishes like black truffle risotto and wagyu beef carpaccio. The service is unparalleled, with a staff that is well-versed in the menu selection.

Saffron by Jena Bakery: Experience the authentic flavors of Bahraini cuisine with a traditional breakfast that includes a refreshing rose milk slush, sure to leave you craving for more. Along with a variety of cakes, pastries, and confections, this place is a must-visit for satisfying your sweet tooth.

New Delhi

New Delhi Vacation Rentals

Feast your eyes on the capitol of India, as you taste exotic spices, browse through bustling markets and witness a culture as ancient as civilisation itself. It starts with your New Delhi vacation rental, an oasis of relaxation and warmth.

With a population of just under 33 million people, New Delhi is a melting pot of ancient religions like Hinduism, Sikhism and Islam. You'll open your eyes to new ways of understanding the world, with philosophes that preach inner peace and mental prosperity.

The climate in New Delhi is characterized by hot summers and mild winters, making it a popular destination to escape from the chilly winds of the north.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in New Delhi

When booking your New Delhi holiday rental, be prepared for a wave of cultural extravaganzas, full of colors and diverse expressions.

Holi Festival: Watch out! This festival of colors is a painting come to life, as people throw colored powders at each other in a playful and joyous celebration. You'll learn to let go, and feel the beauty of India.

Kumbh Mela: Millions of Hindu pilgrims from all over the country take a holy dip in the sacred rivers. The Kumbh Mela is a time to wash away your sins, and reconnect with the divine.

The India Art Fair: An art show that displays thought-provoking, multi-dimensional pieces from India and beyond. It's like visiting a museum, but with live art and installations.

Sightseeing Opportunities in New Delhi

New Delhi landmarks offer unique insight into India's history, that will develop your knowledge and your inner peace.

India Gate: A tribute to the Indian soldiers who died in World War I, this gate is a stunning piece of architecture, rich in history, and a symbol of India's cultural change. A 15-minute drive from apartments for rent in New Delhi.

Red Fort: Built in the 17th century, this fortress blooms with intriguing history and tranquil gardens. A 20-minute drive from accommodation in New Delhi.

Lotus Temple: This flower-like temple redefines sightseeing. As soon as you walk in, you'll reconnect with your inner peace and appreciate the simplicity of being in the present moment. A 30-minute drive from holiday lettings in New Delhi.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

You'll get the chance to satisfy your love for Indian food, with restaurants packed with authentic flavors and new experiences.

Indian Accent: Stylish and modern restaurant serving Indian cuisine with an explosion of flavors in your mouth. The restaurant's inventive dishes and its elegant ambiance will complete your vacation.

Punjab Grill Janpath: A soothing ambiance of quiet music and mouth-teasing flavors, highlighting the best of Indian cuisine. You can find this restaurant just round the corner from New Delhi vacation rentals.

Sagar Ratna: This restaurant is your go-to choice for southern Indian cuisine, with delectable dosas, idlis, and vadas. It's also known for its good hygiene, as well as its friendly and efficient staff.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Phnom Penh

Phnom Penh Vacation Rentals

What was once a small fishing village, has now transformed into a city of green walkways and gilded temples. Phnom Penh invites you to experience a taste of Southeast Asian charm, with your Phnom Penh's vacation rental being your first step in a flavorful journey of excitement.

With a population of over two million, the majority of Phnom Penh follow Theravada Buddhism, which has a profound influence on the city's culture and way of life. You'll explore ancient temples, participate in Buddhist ceremonies, and learn about the role of religion in daily life.

Phnom Penh has a tropical climate, with hot and humid weather year-round. Even in January, temperatures never drop below 21°C. This makes Phnom Penh a perfect embrace of warmth and sunshine.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Phnom Penh

Be swept off your feet by the vibrant colors and the chaotic fun of Phnom Penh's festivals.

Khmer New Year: Watch the city come alive with music, dancing, and water fights. A time of great jubilation, that will leave you with unforgettable memories and new friends.

Water Festival: A river of excitement, with thousands of people gathering for colorful boat races. It's a perfect opportunity to book an apartment for rent in Phnom Penh, situated along the banks of the Tonle Sap River.

The Pchum Ben festival: This is a time when Cambodians honor their ancestors and offer food and prayers at Buddhist temples. Be part of a spiritual journey, and develop knowledge and respect for Cambodian tradition.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Phnom Penh

Unlock the treasures of Cambodia's past in tranquil places with grandiose architecture.

Royal Palace: A glistening fortress of royal heritage and ancient history. The kind of place you connect with emotionally, and only a 15-minute walk from riverside accommodation in Phnom Penh.

The National Museum of Cambodia: Housing an unbelievable collection of Khmer artifacts such as wooden transportation vehicles and art that blends natural and man-made materials. Just a few minutes' walk from many Phnom Penh holiday rentals.

The Wat Phnom: The city's birthplace, with a breathtaking temple and a tranquil park, inhabited by toucan birds and cats who like to find shade under the trees. A 10-minute drive from holiday lettings in Phnom Penh.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Discover the enchanting flavors of Phnom Penh's culinary scene with these must-visit restaurants.

Romdeng: What sets this restaurant apart is its social enterprise model, where they train disadvantaged youth in hospitality and culinary arts. The trained chefs don't disappoint, serving fish amok and grilled beef skewers that leave a taste of heaven in your mouth.

Khéma La Poste: This is your chance to eat French gourmet food set at reasonable prices. From buttery croissants to savory coq au vin, every dish is made with the highest quality ingredients.

Malis Restaurant: A wonderful presentation of local colors and flavors. The restaurant's serene ambiance, complete with lush greenery, is the perfect setting for a leisurely meal.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Tbilisi

Tbilisi Vacation Rentals

Meander through a city of ancient charm, mixed with a flare of urban culture, where those who live in Tbilisi, celebrate its unique European style. Tbilisi vacation rentals taps into this sense of European ambiance.

With a population of over 1.1 million people, Tbilisi is the capital of Georgia, with the majority believing in Christianity. This is your chance to see grandiose churches like Holy Trinity Cathedral or explore the intricacies of Georgian religious art at the National Museum of Georgia.

Beyond its cultural and religious treasures, Tbilisi also boasts a moderate climate that offers comfortable temperatures throughout much of the year. Summers are warm and sunny, while winters are mild with occasional snowfall.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Tbilisi

From Old Tbilisi to the grandiose Rustaveli Theatre, Tbilisi thrives with community-bonding festivals, close to your Tbilisi holiday rental.

Tbilisoba Festival: A vibrant, all-encompassing festival of Georgian music, dance, and food. Think of it as a feast for the senses, with the smell of sizzling kebabs and the sight of colorful crafts. Bond with the locals and learn about Georgian culture.

Tbilisi International Film Festival: Enhance your love for film-making with top talent from the industry. You'll get to attend talks and workshops that delve into the passion behind the art.

Tbilisi Jazz Festival: A soul-touching experience of live jam sessions that open your mind to new sounds, all the while sipping a glass of Georgian wine.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Tbilisi

From ancient churches to modern wonders, experience a vacation that will surprise you at every corner.

Narikala Fortress: Reach for the sky in the cable cart, or hike around the area as you uncover little treasures of knowledge. The fortress has stood guard over Tbilisi for centuries. A 15-minute drive from apartments for rent in Tbilisi.

The Holy Trinity Cathedral: A spiritual beacon of beauty, where you can delve into Georgia's religious heritage and find solace in its ancient stone walls. A 20-minute drive from holiday lettings in Tbilisi.

The Bridge of Peace: This pedestrian bridge is a modern architectural piece of art, spanning over the Mtkvari River with thought-provoking design. Just a 10-minute drive away from accommodation in Tbilisi.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Tbilisi holiday rentals and restaurants alike bloom with ambiance. Here are three groundbreaking places, sure to complete your romantic vacation.

Shavi Lomi: This trendy restaurant decorates with artistic expression, from its lighting choices to the lush green garden outside, you'll feel a quaintness radiating around you, all the while eating delicious Georgian cuisine.

Pur Pur: Vintage decoration and classical music in the background creates a charming and romantic atmosphere. The menu is a fusion of traditional and modern dishes, with a focus on fresh ingredients and innovative flavors.

Machakhela: This rustic Georgian restaurant is a favorite among locals and tourists. Known for its hearty portions and rustic atmosphere, Machakhela serves up some of the best Georgian comfort food in Tbilisi.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Thimphu

Thimphu Vacation Rentals

Thimphu is a jewel in Bhutan's crown, with breathtaking landscapes and warm-hearted people. Your Thimphu vacation rental is place where you can breathe and reconnect with your inner peace.

The capital city of Bhutan, Thimpu is a relatively small city with a population of approximately 115,000 people. The majority of the people in Thimpu practice Buddhism, which has a significant influence on their daily lives. Immerse yourself in the unique and profound Buddhist culture and gain a deeper understanding of the world's oldest spiritual practices.

Thimpu experiences a subtropical highland climate, with an average temperature ranging from 8°C to 20°C. The city enjoys sunny days throughout the year, making it an ideal escape from chilly winters.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Thimphu

Now that Bhutan is open to tourists, you'll get the chance to stay in a Thimphu holiday rental and immerse in colorful festivals, that are nothing short of magical.

Paro Tsechu: A feast for the senses, with stunning dances, lively music and elaborate masks that look like something out of a fairytale.

Thimphu Tshechu: A colorful celebration of traditional dances and beautiful costumes. A great time to immerse in Bhutanese culture and traditions.

Haa Summer Festival: Held in the Haa Valley, this festival celebrates local food and culture. You'll taste traditional Bhutanese cuisine such as Yak meat and experience exciting events like archery and dart throwing.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Thimphu

Venture into a beautiful land, unspoiled by urban chaos as you behold splendor with these must-see, magical landmarks.

Tashichho Dzong: Not many governments can boast a fortress and a monastery as their seat of government. With its beautiful gardens and intricate woodwork,

Tashichho Dzong is a place of serenity, and cultural insight into Bhutan politics. 10-15 minutes from holiday lettings in Thimpu.

National Memorial Chorten: Prepare to be enchanted by this shimmering white marble Buddhist stupa, adorned with mesmerizing carvings and paintings. A 10-15 minutes from apartments for rent in Thimpu.

Changangkha Lhakhang: Perched atop a hill like a watchful guardian, this ancient Buddhist temple is a beacon of serenity and wisdom. A 20-25 minutes from accommodation in Thimpu.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Mingle with like-minded travelers in quaint cafes, or discover dining spots that satisfy your love for aesthetics.

Here are three place that will add a thrilling dimension your Thimphu adventures.

Ambient Cafe: A cafe that roasts their own coffee beans. It's a cozy spot with a warm atmosphere and friendly staff. Plus, it's close to most booked accommodation in Thimphu, making it an ideal choice for tourists.

Zombala 2: Authentic Bhutanese cuisine with traditional favorites like Jasha Maroo and Asian cuisines like Tom Yum soup and momos. It's clean, spacious and has reasonable prices.

Babesa Village Restaurant: With its charming old-school Bhutanese decor and wooden bowls, you'll feel like you're dining in a genuine Bhutanese home.

Yerevan

Yerevan Vacation Rentals

Yerevan is a city of pink architecture, where ancient traditions and modern vibes meet. Whether you're staying in the historical district, or a modern apartment, your Yerevan vacation rental will be a retreat into a city of charming streets and friendly people.

With a population of over 1 million people, Yerevan is a multi-religious city, with the majority of the population following the Armenian Apostolic Church. Unearth ancient stone monasteries such as the Geghard Monastery to develop your understanding of the country's rich religious roots.

The climate in Yerevan is mostly dry and sunny, with hot summers and short, snowy winters. Whether you're soaking up the sun or enjoying the picturesque winter landscape, apartments for rent in Yerevan offer an escape from your hectic schedule.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Yerevan

Yerevan is a perfect balance of culture, history, and modernity, with several festivals on offer.

Yerevan Wine Days Festival: Celebrate Armenia's long-standing tradition of winemaking, dating back over thousands of years. From best paired food to wine glass styles, this festival will make you a sophisticated wine connoisseur.

Yerevan Jazz Fest: A beautiful blend of famous jazz musicians from around the world, making this event a must-see. You'll experience experimental sounds in late-night jam sessions, romanticizing your night with long-lasting memories.

Armenian Art Fair: Discover a vast range of modern art, from paintings to sculptures, as you feel the breath of Yerevan's art scene. Within walking distance from popular Yerevan holiday rentals.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Yerevan

Yerevan is a city of contrasts, with ancient and modern landmarks existing side by side. You'll have meaningful experiences that develop your appreciation for the city's culture.

Cascade Complex: A fantastical giant stairway, leading up to the Victory Park. With imaginative sculptures and dazzling views of the city, you'll feel wrapped up in Yerevan's charm. A 10-minute drive from Yerevan's holiday rentals.

Republic Square: A popular tourist spot with enchanting architecture, dancing fountains, and quaint restaurants and cafes to enjoy the atmosphere. Just a 15-minute walk from holiday lettings in Yerevan.

Tsitsernakaberd Memorial: A somber and powerful reminder of the atrocities committed in the Armenian Genocide. It is an emotional experience that leaves a lasting impression. A 10-minute drive from Yerevan holiday rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Step out of your accommodation in Yerevan, to a wonderland of stylish and vintage restaurants. You'll get the best of everything, with revived Armenian cuisine and captivating flavors from around the world.

Tavern Yerevan: Bold and distinct flavors of traditional Armenian food, matched with a homely atmosphere of wooden tables and warm lighting. A perfect escape into European ambiance.

The Club: A modern and chic atmosphere, with stylish decor and unique plating styles. The kind of cool, ambient restaurant you fall in love with.

Lavash: Unique menu options of traditional Armenian cuisine. It's a charming restaurant, full of character, and a great place to decompress after a day of sightseeing.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Kata

Kata Vacation Rentals

Kata Beach is a mesmerizing retreat of shimmering blue water and clear, cloudless skies. As you step out of your Kata vacation rental, you'll have a treasure trove of fun activities to take part in; Surfing, water skiing, massages, and more.

Kata is on the western coast of Phuket Island and has an endless amount of opportunities. With a population of 10,000 people, you'll meet like-minded folk, who are eager to befriend you. These locals are inspired by their Buddhist faith, making your experiences feel more welcoming.

The climate on Kata Beach is a warm embrace of sunshine and tropical fun. Even in the monsoon season, rain comes in short bursts, which means you'll be spending all your days soaking in the lovely weather.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kata

Kata is brimming with heart-pounding festivals where you can make friends and unforgettable memories. Here are some to consider when searching for accommodation in Kata.

Kata Beach Life Festival: A colorful beach party that goes throughout the whole day, so you'll never miss a beat. It has a live DJ set, exotic food vendors, sport competitions, and more.

Kata Beach Surfing Contest: Watch people weave through the waves in a show of skill and hot talent, or if you're feeling up for it, why not sign up and show off your gnarly moves?

Phuket Vegetarian Festival: Feast your eyes on this jaw-dropping festival of firewalking and body mutilation, offering fascinating experiences that will enrich your vacation.

Choose Kata Holiday Rentals to See Kata Beach

Whether you're flying around in a parachute or you're snorkeling in the turquoise sea, Kata beach has a bundle of adventurous and lively activities. If you're looking to explore the nearby area, here are some intriguing places to visit.

The Big Buddha: At a whopping height of 45 meters, this manmade wonder is a testament to the Buddhist faith. Find a meditation spot and reconnect with your inner self. A 26 minute drive from apartments for rent in Kata.

Kata Night Market: Have you ever eaten a scorpion? Now's your chance, with a market full of delicious nibbles like jellyfish, fried tarantula and chicken feet. The night market is also famous for selling unique t-shirts and interesting souvenirs. A 10-minute walk from Kata holiday rentals.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Holiday lettings in Kata boast a variety of dining options that are just around the corner.

Eightfold: Indulge in a culinary journey of honey toast desserts, spicy green curry, pineapple rice and more. If you're looking for a place to experience Thai culture whilst still having some western options, then Eightfold is your best option.

Katamama Seafood: A beachside restaurant with delicious grilled lobster, crab curry, and prawns. The staff are friendly and attentive, making this a great spot to chill out.

Unit 33: An inviting chic restaurant with friendly staff and a rustic atmosphere. The menu serves both Thai food and international food, whilst also boasting flavorful cappuccinos.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Kathu

Kathu Vacation Rentals

Kathu is a palm tree paradise that defines the best of what Thailand has to offer. From quaint cottages to lakeside views, your Kathu vacation rental will reflect the region's charm, with traditional Thai decor and modernity amenities.

The population of Kathu is approximately 43,000 people, with a majority of the population being Buddhist. The influence of Buddhism can be seen in the many temples that dot the landscape, offering peaceful moments and insight into the rich heritage of Thailand.

Kathu has a tropical climate, with hot and humid weather throughout the year. This will be your chance to bask in the lush green scenery and feel at peace as you meet like-minded travelers.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Kathu

Explore a fusion of culture and entertainment, right by your apartment for rent in Kathu.

Phuket Vegetarian Festival: A nine-day extravaganza of colorful processions, firecrackers, and vegetarian food. Stay for the mind-blowing body mutilations and learn about Thailand's relationship with Chinese culture.

Kathu Street Culture Festival: Street food stalls, martial arts, live music, lion dance performances, and more. A fun dive into Thai culture that enriches your vacation.

Laguna Phuket Triathlon: Swim in the Andaman Sea, ride on a bike through scenic hills, and run through local villages. No stopping. No breaks. This triathlon is a test of strength and perseverance, and it welcomes you to try.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Kathu

Whether you're the relaxing type or a fun seeker, Kathu has a bundle of fun, suitable for all.

Kathu Waterfall: Ascend stone steps and discover a rippling waterfall. This scenic spot is a great place to feel the quietness around you and the quietness in your mind. A 15-minute drive from accommodation in Kathu.

Phuket Mining Museum พิพิธภัณฑ์เหมืองแร่กะทู้: Delve into the history of mining as you uncover ancient knowledge and learn more about Thailand's Chinese community. A 5-minute drive from Kathu holiday rentals.

The Upside Down House: A mind-boggling exploration into an upside down house. It's a non-stop adventure, with an escape room, a maze and a VR ride all for good measure. A 12-minute drive from holiday lettings in Kathu.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

When you stay in a Kathu holiday rental, you'll be surrounded by authentic restaurants that will introduce you to new and exciting flavors.

ครัวโอบมภูเก็ต: A Michelin restaurant that caters to the locals. It serves unique dishes like salted egg and sour fish soup, and boasts an authentic Thai dining experience.

Ketho Dimsum: A dim-sum restaurant where you choose the menu from the fridge and staff will steam it for you. This is an incredible place that is a fan favorite among the locals, though it is welcoming to tourists as well.

Bang Jiam Dim Sum: An enchanting restaurant with an exotic atmosphere. Serving bao buns, rice porridge and khanom chin that is delicious and instagrammable.

The logo for Karta, featuring the word "karta" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font.

Khanom

Khanom Vacation Rentals

From swimming with pink dolphins to exploring scenic waterfalls, Khamom is your romantic escape into Thailand. And it starts with a Khanom vacation rental, your luxurious abode that is rich with local art and stunning window views.

The population of Khanom is around 27,000, with the majority of the people following Buddhism. The peaceful and serene environment of Khanom is a perfect setting if you're seeking spiritual and emotional rejuvenation. The Buddhist temples in the area offer you a chance participate in meditation sessions.

Khanom's tropical climate is warm and humid all year round, with temperatures averaging around 30 degrees Celsius. It's a perfect escape from gray clouds and chilly winds, where even the occasional showers are a relief from the warmth.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Khanom

Khanom offers moments of wonder in a vacation defined by exoticness.

Khanom Marathon: Khanom's marathon almost feels like a walk in the park, with its lush greenery and crystal-clear waters. This scenic run is a refreshing and healthy way to unwind.

Khanom Festival: A celebration of rock, pop and dance in a festival of lights and colors. You'll party the night away and meet with like-minded music lovers. This festival is hugely popular, increasing demand for Khanom holiday rentals.

Khanom Floating Market: Row a boat through a waterland of market stalls as you try out delicious local cuisine. This market is a unique and immersive experience that is sure to be a highlight of your trip to Khanom.

Your Holiday Rentals and Landmarks

Khanom is a wonderland of scenic nature spots and historical temples.

Na Dan Beach: There's a magic to Na Dan, with its soothing, soft waters and gentle sand caressing your feet. Close to the city, this beach is both a place of convenience and solitude. A 4-minute drive from accommodation in Khanom.

Samet Chun Waterfall: A refreshing dip as you bask in the hot sun. You'll be surrounded by lush greenery in all directions. A 15-minute drive from apartments for rent in Khanom.

Wat Chedi Luang: A historical stone structure, adorned with intricate carvings of dragons and snakes. It's a sacred place for the local Buddhist community, where you can learn about the history of Khanom. A 11-minute drive from holiday lettings in Khanom.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Lap in luxury in your Khanom holiday rental then dine beside a turquoise ocean. These three restaurants will give you the paradise vacation you deserve.

CC Beach Bar & Restaurant: A quiet beach cafe that serves a variety of cuisine. Unwind with a cocktail as you enjoy the calming sound of the ocean waves.

ร้านกินปลาขนอม อาหารทะเลสด: A cheaper and quieter option than restaurants in the area. This charming restaurant serves seasoned oysters that will take your breath away.

Khanom Seafood: Authentic Thai cuisine with fresh seafood and stunning views of the ocean. This is a place where you can tease your tastebuds with spicy Thai curry and feel those vacation vibes.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Khok Kloi

Khok Kloi Vacation Rentals

Get ready for an oasis of relaxation, where the sun-kissed mountains and turquoise waters of Khok Kloi create a sense of otherworldliness. When booking your Khok Kloi vacation rental, it'll feel like a breath of fresh air, as you take in the sights and sounds of tranquility.

With a population of around 10,000, Khok Kloi is a Buddhist community that welcomes you with open arms. You'll develop a strong bond with the locals and learn about their religious customs.

Khok Kloi enjoys a tropical climate with temperatures ranging from 25-35°C. Everyday you will bask in blue skies and sunshine, where you find peace under a beach umbrella or trek through the exotic wilderness.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Khok Kloi

From colorful processions to exciting street festivals, there's always something close to your Khok Kloi holiday rental, sure to enliven your vacation moments.

Loi Krathong Festival: Find yourself in a magical night of floating lanterns, dancing on the river. This festival is a celebration of the moon and a romantic spectacle that will polish your vacation highs.

Songkran Festival: The fight is on as the Khok Kloi community come together to shoot water at each other. Even the native elephants like to get involved in this joyous celebration.

Vegetarian Festival: A religious festival of strict vegetarianism where a procession of people pierce their cheeks and tongues with swords. Unforgettable, enriching and not to be missed.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Khok Kloi

Beaches, temples and national parks: Khok Kloi is surrounded by beauty and endless adventure.

Natai Beach: Golden sands and crimson sunsets define this beautiful beach. Flanked by a jungle and an inlet, it makes for a quiet place away from the local village. A five-minute drive to accommodation in Khok Kloi.

Ao Phang Nga National Park: Sail your lagoon through a wonderland of limestone pillars and mangroves. It's an enchanting experience that satisfies your craving for exoticness. A 30-minute drive from apartments for rent in Khok Kloi.

Wat Suwan Kuha: A sleeping Buddha statue inside a cave that oozes with spirituality. But it is the local monkeys that steal the stage in this wonderful landmark. A 40-minute drive from holiday lettings in Khok Kloi.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

With restaurants in Khok Kloi, you'll be opening your mouth to new experiences, packed full of flavor whilst being consistently delicious.

ครัวครุโณม KruChom Kitchen: Fresh and authentic Thai cuisine from the south. The restaurant has a charming ambiance that feels like you're eating in a paradise garden.

Rabiang Lay Seafood Restaurant: A quaint, wooden hut that serves local cuisine with powerful flavors. An authentic dining experience, with a beachside sunset as the finishing touch. This restaurant is close to most booked accommodation in Khok Kloi.

Co-Sea House Thai Food & Beverage โคซี่เฮ้าส์: A charming restaurant beautifully lit, serving exotic food like stuffed pineapple and classic Pad Thai. Friendly staff with a welcoming atmosphere.

Klong Son

Klong Son Vacation Rentals

Explore the lush green scenery of Klong Son, the pinnacle of Koh Chan's beauty, where you can rest and enjoy your inner bliss. Klong Son vacation rentals embody the luxury and charm of this faraway land.

Despite its small size, Klong Son has a vibrant and diverse population of around 2,500 people. The majority of the locals are Buddhists, and when you explore Klong Son, you'll uncover golden temples, rich with history and spirituality.

Klong Son has a tropical climate, with warm temperatures and high humidity throughout the year. It's a paradise getaway, where you can hike, swim and comb the white sand beaches for beautiful seashells.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Klong Son

Feel a magical connection with the locals of Klong Son as you take part in Thailand's iconic festivals.

Songkran Festival: Define your days with madness and fun as you splash people with water. Water fights will unfold, as you carry on into the night with live music and beach parties.

Chakri Memorial Day: A festival of colorful parades with traditional music and dance performances. It's like stepping back in time, as the streets are filled with vibrant costumes and decorations.

Loy Krathong: Head to Klong Prao beach for the festival of lights, where the floating lanterns will dazzle your night away. You'll converse with the locals and learn about their customs. Apartments for rent in Klong Son book fast during this time.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Klong Son

Nothing says a Thailand adventure like an trip in Klong Son, a place rich in nature and Buddhist architecture.

Khlong Chao Lueam Waterfall: A crystal clear waterfall surrounded by vibrant greenery and inhabited by curious little wildlife. A 10-minute drive from Klong Son holiday rentals.

Klong Prao Beach: Be mesmerized by rippling water and jungle archipelagos kissing the crimson sunset. It's your perfect escape from it all, and only a 20-minute drive from accommodation in Klong Son.

Wat Khlong Son: A charming Thai temple with gold-adorned statues and tranquil gardens. This is a great place to immerse yourself in the culture and religion of Buddhism. A 7-minute drive from holiday lettings in Klong Son.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Treat yourself to a world of exotic cuisines in stylish restaurants. You'll discover wooden bungalows, temple-like eateries and familiar tourist hangouts.

Phet Luran Thai Coffee & Resort: Fall in love with this charming bungalow, serving delicious cakes, baked goods and coffee. It's a family-owned cafe with friendly staff and quaint decor. A five-minute drive from Klong Son holiday rentals.

Blues Blues Arts&Food: Colorful, exotic and strange, this restaurant is an artistic expression, with elephants protruding from stone walls, gardens and wall paintings.

The White Elephant: Thai culture and western comforts come together to serve mouthwatering food like tacos and classic beers like Guinness. You'll befriend like-minded tourists and share your experiences together.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Ko Chang

Ko Chang Vacation Rentals

Ko Chang hosts a variety of paradise wonders, from dazzling beaches to lush jungles. You'll be taken to another world, where your accommodation in Ko Chang could be a jungle hut, a rustic spa resort or a stylish Ko Chang vacation rental.

On a tiny island of only 5,000 people, most of whom practice Buddhism, Ko Chang is your retreat into spirituality. You'll learn the ways of true relaxation with meditation and yoga sessions, and you'll discover quaint Buddhist temples along the way.

Ko Chang is an island paradise with a hot climate all year round. Take advantage of Ko Chang's beautiful weather by surfing the waves, hiking through the many national parks or unwind beside palm trees.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Ko Chang

Every day is paradise at a Ko Chang holiday rental, with so many festivals to take part in.

Chinese New Year: Chinese communities of Thailand transform the streets of Ko Chang into a spectacle of dancing dragons and lions. You'll be in the thick of it all, with decorate street parades, fireworks and more.

The Trat Fruit Fair: Visit the island at the end of May and try out exotic fruit like durian, rambutan and mangosteen.

Songkran: Celebrate the Thai New Year with water parties as you splash around with friends and family.

Loy Krathong: The festival of lights feels like a dream, where people place lanterns on water to symbolize the letting go of negative thoughts.

Choose Ko Chang Holiday Rentals to See Mu Koh Chang National Park

Ko Chang is a blooming flower, where you can take in the sights and smells of earth's beauty.

Mu Koh Chang National Park: This national park is the crown jewel of Ko Chang. It boasts a palm tree paradise with lush greenery and quaint Thai huts. A 5-minute drive to accommodation in Ko Chang.

White Sand Beach: A golden oasis of relaxation, where you can surf the waves or dive in an underwater world of coral reefs. A five-minute walk from beachside holiday lettings in Ko Chang.

Khlong Nonsi Waterfall: A scenic spot that radiates with peace and tranquility. You'll discover crystal clear waters, a golden temple and stunning rock formations. A 10-minute drive from apartments for rent in Ko Chang.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

A Ko Chang vacation rental is a great choice when it comes to restaurant dining. Ko Chang restaurants are eager to impress and enliven your vacation experiences.

15 Palms Beach Restaurant: A beachside restaurant where you can cool off and try out some of the delicious Thai cuisine. They also serve western classics like cheeseburgers and roast dinners.

Sahngad Cafe: A colorful cafe with rounded windows and floral decor. You'll get a panoramic view of the surrounding area, whilst eating delicious cakes and drinking coffee.

Koh Chang Seafood: A romantic restaurant where you can watch the sunset, along with fireshow performances that light the night with excitement and jubilation.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Ko Lanta

Ko Lanta Vacation Rentals

Feel the vacation vibes in your cozy Ko Lanta vacation rental, where you can lay back and rest easy. Ko Lanta is a paradise getaway like no other, full of moments of peace and cheerful memories.

Ko Lanta has a population of 30,000 people with a variety of different faiths such as Islam and Buddhism. The locals respect their differences, where you'll feel inspired by the community's togetherness and open-mindedness.

Ko Lanta is a tropical climate with a dry season that's popular among tourists, and a great time to make friends. The rainy season is just as perfect as it's a time when lush jungles come alive with beautiful flora and overflowing waterfalls.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Ko Lanta

Ko Lanta is a quiet retreat, though there are many vibrant festivals to experience and savor.

Loy Rua: Head to Saladan Pier for a sea gypsy adaptation of Loy Katong. The male locals create a symbolic boat, featuring wooden figurines and flowers. Also, watch sea boxing competitions that are both thrilling and culturally enriching.

Songkran: People line the roads shooting water at people, at cars, at scooters and at you. It's a crazy celebration of the Thai New Year that will enliven your spirits and develop your appreciation for Thailand's culture.

Long Beach Parties: From sunset sessions to the well-established Pangea party, Long Beach is your go-to destination to dance the night away. The parties are ever-changing, but always lively.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Ko Lanta

Ko Lanta has plenty of opportunities to dig your toes into soft sands or bask in natural scenery.

Lanta Klong Nin: Where the sand curves gracefully along the coastline, this beach is a popular choice for many, and only a 3-minute walk from accommodation in Ko Lanta.

Phra Ae Beach: A spacious beach with soft sands and deep water. It's easy to spend most of your days here, with bars and restaurants all readily available, and apartments for rent in Ko Lanta just a 10-minute drive away.

Viewpoint Hill: An easy walk up a hill will lead you to a panoramic view of the island. Mesmerizing, unforgettable and only an 7-minute drive from holiday lettings in Ko Lanta.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Whether you're eating at a beach or in a garden, Ko Lanta's restaurant scene knows how to set the mood.

Shanti Beach House: A restaurant that boasts a small menu of fresh and perfected cuisines. It's a beach restaurant, close to Ko Lanta holiday rentals, and a perfect spot to feel the vacation groove.

Mays Kitchen: Serving smoky barbecue and noodle dishes, this restaurant has the authentic experience of watching the chef cook your food. Not to mention the paradise island ambiance.

The BACKYARD: A place with a charming garden vibe, serving a variety of nutritional food such as acai bowls and salads. Customers often mention the extremely friendly staff that are attentive and courteous.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box, which is itself centered below a solid green horizontal line.

Ko Lanta Old Town

Ko Lanta Old Town Vacation Rentals

Explore a town of quaint streets and alleys, lined with antique Chinese shop-houses and rustic wooden buildings. There are many Ko Lanta Old Town vacation rentals to choose from that offer a perfect blend of tradition and modernity.

With a population of around 3,000 people, Ko Lanta Old Town is a healthy mix of various faiths. The town's religious fabric adds to a sense of uniqueness, as you chat with locals and learn more about the cultural similarities and differences.

Just like the island of Ko Lanta, the Old Town is a tropical climate with two distinct seasons. The town experiences less rain than the island and is relatively cooler, making it a perfection option for walking tours and visiting local markets.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Ko Lanta Old Town

Embark from your Ko Lanta Old Town holiday rental for these booming festivals of spirit and fun.

Laanta Lanta Festival: A truly special event that lights the town in lanterns. You'll enjoy traditional performances like the sea gypsy songs and stalls where you can buy local crafts and eat authentic food like Chao Lay Burgers.

Old Town Night Market: A bizarre night market selling inventive skewers and souvenirs. It has the classic carnival favorites like dunk tanks and a shooting gallery.

Songkhran: Despite being home to many muslim communities, this Buddhist festival is celebrated by everyone, with lots of water fights to get involved in. It's a hallmark of the town's cohesive community spirit.

Your Holiday Rentals and Landmarks

Ko Lanta Old Town is a historical gem, oozing with small-town charm. Here are some landmarks closeby that will top off your vacation high.

Lanta Klong Nin: A classic Thailand beach with all your luxury amenities, like massage parlors and restaurants. It's never felt easier to chill and unwind. A 18-minute drive from apartments for rent in Ko Lanta Old Town.

Pirate Beach: A picture perfect beach that is not too crowded and has bars nearby. There is plenty of accommodation in Ko Lanta Old Town, only a 12-minute drive away.

Mai Kaew Cave Trekking Tour: Delve into a winding and narrow cave system that will leave you feeling like an adventurer. A 17-minute drive from holiday lettings in Ko Lanta Old Town.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Your Ko Lanta Old Town vacation rental won't be the only place easy on the eyes. Here are three of the town's most breathtaking restaurants.

Khrua Lanta Yai: An enchanting restaurant of stone pavilions and hanging lanterns, setting the mood as you eat delectable cuisine such as pad thai and prawns.

The Lamphu Halal Restaurant: Unwind beside the soothing waves of the Andaman Sea as you eat delicious Halal Thai food. The restaurant itself is a charming wooden building that blends beautifully into the town.

Khao Yai Restaurant: A bamboo-roofed marvel that has a stunning view of the channel between Lanta Noi and Lanta Yai islands.

The logo for Karta, featuring the word "karta" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font, centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Ko Pha-ngan

Ko Pha-ngan Vacation Rentals

Ko Pha-ngan is a gem nestled in the Gulf of Thailand, shining bright amidst the cerulean waters. Its pristine white sand beaches and crystal-clear waters, makes a

Ko Pha-ngan vacation rental a dream come true as you wake up to a fragrance of tropical flowers and chirping birds.

The population of Ko Pha-ngan is around 12,000, and the majority of them follow Buddhism, with some practicing animism and Christianity. You'll explore magnificent temples, witness colorful ceremonies, and learn about local customs.

Ko Pha-ngan has a tropical climate. While the dry season is ideal for beach activities and water sports, the rainy season brings lush greenery and refreshing showers, making it a perfect time for nature lovers.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Ko Pha-ngan

From breathtaking processions to lively parties, there are plenty of festivals close to your Ko Pha-ngan holiday rental that will leave you spellbound.

Jungle Experience: A legendary party in the jungle, featuring top DJs and mesmerizing visuals. Dance amidst the trees, surrounded by neon lights and tropical flora, while the music keeps you energized all night long.

Full Moon Party: A famous party that takes place on the night of the full moon. You'll dance under the stars, surrounded by fire-eaters, jugglers, and acrobats, while the moonlight casts a magical glow over the beach.

Loy Krathong Festival: A serene celebration that involves floating candles on the water. You'll have a crafted flower boat of your own, surrounded by twinkling candles.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Ko Pha-ngan

Ko Pha-ngan is a paradise for nature lovers, with an abundance of stunning landmarks that will leave you breathless.

Thong Nai Pan Beach: A secluded and picturesque beach, offering stunning views, where you'll easily spend your time sunbathing, swimming, and snorkeling.

Apartments for rent in Ko Pha-ngan are right next to the beach.

Phaeng Noi Waterfall: A natural wonder that cascades down the mountainside in a series of stunning tiers. A popular spot for hiking and picnicking, and a 9-minute drive from many holiday lettings in Ko Pha-ngan.

Thaan Sadet Waterfall: A spiritual place in Thai culture, this waterfall has so many natural sounds, it feels like you're listening to nature talk. A 12-minute drive from accommodation in Ko Pha-ngan.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Ko Pha-ngan is a culinary paradise that offers dishes suited for every taste bud. These restaurants are a must-visit during your stay in a Ko Pha-ngan vacation rental.

Fisherman's Restaurant: Serving some of the freshest seafood in the region, with dishes like grilled lobster and spicy shrimp curry. Also, the staff do a great job of setting the mood.

Pura Vida: Serving organic and vegan-friendly cuisine made from locally sourced ingredients. The restaurant's menu includes a range of tasty dishes, and a specially-made mayonnaise.

Luna Lounge: A romantic atmosphere and a menu featuring Thai fusion cuisine and international dishes. Amazing food, decorative island styles, and a cozy ambiance.

Koh Kood

Koh Kood Vacation Rentals

Escape to Koh Kood, where your paradise dreams will be a fast reality. Your Koh Kood vacation rental will be a deluxe retreat, where you'll open your door to a tranquil island, adorned with lush greenery and pristine beaches.

The island has a population of around 2,000, with the majority believing in Buddhism. Visiting Koh Kood is a great opportunity to learn about the native's faith, where open-mindedness, love and serenity are at the heart of all things.

The climate in Koh Kood is hot and tropical with the best time to visit in early December. You'll experience crystal clear skies and celebrate the festive season on a golden beach, with a fan in one hand and a piña colada in the other.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Koh Kood

You won't need to travel far from your Koh Kood holiday rental to experience these three enlightening festivals.

Koh Tao Underwater World Festival: From June 18-19, join the local community to clean up the beaches. It's a thought-provoking time that has live performances and booths to learn more.

Loy Krathong: Head to Ao Tapao Beach in November as you light the sea with floating baskets. You can decorate and add items to your own basket, representing the washing away of bad thoughts and past mistakes.

Makha Bucha Day: A Buddhist tradition that honors the full moon of the third month. It's a great time of reflection and an opportunity to learn more about the Buddhist faith.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Koh Kood

Feel the way of the water in this beautiful island of beaches and waterfalls.

Ao Tapao Beach: Take a walk down the pier, lit up during a golden sunset, or dip your feet into soft sands. Ao Tapao beach glistens with charm, and only a 6-minute drive from accommodation in Koh Kood.

Khlong Chao Waterfall: Listen to rippling water and tweeting birds as bliss washes over you. You'll stay for hours next to this idyllic waterfall, only a 15-minute drive from holiday lettings in Koh Kood.

Huang Nam Khiao Waterfall: Book your accommodation in the rainy season for this majestic, overflowing spectacle, sure to reconnect you with mother earth. A 9-minute drive from apartments for rent in Koh Kood.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

From authentic Thai cuisine to western comfort food, Koh Kood is a small island with a big palette.

Noochy Seafood: Explore a picturesque fishing village as you dine in one of the island's most popular restaurants. You'll be treated to a variety of fresh seafood that will ignite your love for Thai cuisine.

Koh Kood Mermaid Boutique & Café: A pleasant stroll from your Koh Kood vacation rental will lead you to this island-style dining joint. Whilst the food is unbelievably tasty, it is the artsy decor that will win you over.

Pizza & Pasta: Take a break from local cuisine and try out the Italian classics in a restaurant full of rustic charm and island ambiance.

Koh Samui

Koh Samui Vacation Rentals

Koh Samui is a paradise of color and charm, where expats from around the world go to lap in luxury. From enchanting beachfronts to palm tree havens, your Koh Samui vacation rental will be a dream come to life.

The population of Koh Samui is around 67,000 people, with a mix of Thai locals and like-minded travelers. Koh Samui is a Buddhist's sanctuary, where you can visit the golden Buddha temple, a glistening example of Koh Samui's wonderland aesthetic.

Koh Samui's climate is tropical, with warm and humid weather throughout the year. It's a great place for adventure, relaxation, or spiritual experiences. You'll meet friends, soak in the sunshine and find peace under a blue sky.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Koh Samui

The energy and enthusiasm of Kamui's festivals are infectious, and a great way to see the island in a different light.

Samui Regatta: Watch the sea come alive with colorful sails, as sailors from around the world come to compete. You'll want to book your Koh Samui holiday rental quickly for this exciting spectacle.

Koh Samui Lantern Festival: Bask in an enchanting night of floating lanterns that lit up the sky like stars. With each lantern representing a wish or a prayer, what would your lantern represent?

Koh Samui Midnight: Put your running shoes on for this fun-filled event, where you can dress up and run through the streets of Koh Samui. After the race, there are plenty of parties to enjoy.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Koh Samui

A small island with big landmarks, Koh Samui satisfies your craving for travel and adventure.

Big Buddha Temple (Wat Phra Yai): Home to a 12-meter tall golden Buddha statue that glistens under a blue sky. It's a beautiful sight not to be missed, and only a 5-minute walk from accommodation in Koh Samui.

Hin Ta and Hin Yai Rocks: Rock formations that resemble male and female genitalia. It's a fun outing, with bars and shops in the area. An 8-minute walk from apartments for rent in Koh Samui.

Na Muang Waterfall: Swim on the edge of a waterfall blocked by rock formations. You'll see some breathtaking views of the island as you appreciate Thailand's lush greenery. A 12-minute drive from holiday lettings in Koh Samui.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

After your adventure, you'll need a hangout place with delicious food, close to your Koh Samui vacation rental.

Sea Wrap: Complete your vacation with a buffet of exotic fruit, cakes, cocktails and more. It's a restaurant by the beach, offering the best vacation vibes with spacious seating and palm trees.

Kob Restaurant: Where the staff go above and beyond, this restaurant caters to families, couples and friends. They serve Thai cuisine under traditional thatched roofs. Enchanting and unforgettable.

Mr. KAI Kitchen: Serving exotic food like pineapple fried rice and pad thai. This restaurant has become an institution, where folks go back for more.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Koh Tao

Koh Tao Vacation Rentals

Ever wondered where the beach paradise is? It's in Koh Tao, an island of golden sands and turquoise waters, where you can walk down an idyllic sandbar and take in all that tropical warmth. Your Koh Tao vacation rental will be a match made in heaven, with luxurious vibes and stunning window views of the island's beauty.

Koh Tao has a small population of around 2,000 people, with the majority believing in Buddhism. They have a peaceful and respectful way of life, inviting people of all faith to come and unwind.

As for climate, the island is blessed with sunshine and clear blue skies, making it the perfect destination for outdoor activities such as diving, snorkeling, and beach hopping.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Koh Tao

Koh Tao is the 'Turtle Island' in name only, as it's is a vibrant place, offering fast-paced excitement everywhere you go.

The Experience Festival: Transcend into a psychedelic festival of lights and colors, with music playing throughout the night. It's a transformative experience that increases demand for accommodation in Koh Tao.

Escobar Koh Tao: A party in the jungle, where you can dance the night away amid a halo of neon lights.

Songkran Festival: Koh Tao is a hotspot for this exciting festival, where you can splash around, meet friends and take part in water fights.

Loy Krathong: A magical time where you can join the locals and craft baskets filled with flowers, placing them onto the sea.

Choose Koh Tao Holiday Rentals to See Nangyuan Island Beach

A glistening, marble ocean is a defining feature of Koh Tao's charm. Make the most of it by visiting Nangyuan Island Beach. This beach is famous for its sandbar, connecting the islands together like a golden ribbon. A 7-minute drive from Koh Tao holiday rentals.

Sairee Beach: A worthy competitor of Nangyuan Island beach, you'll spend your days basking in the sunshine or swimming with tropical sealife. The good news is there are apartments for rent in Koh Tao, right next to the beach.

John-Suwan Viewpoint: A breathtaking view of the island, where you can sit and unwind for hours, as you enjoy the stunning views. A 9-minute drive from accommodation in Koh Tao.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

These three iconic restaurants and hidden eateries will make your Koh Tao adventure more fulfilling.

995 Roasted Duck: An iconic restaurant that has perfected its duck cuisine. You'll rave about the rich flavors and succulent meat, and with your Koh Tao vacation rental just around the corner, you'll be going back for more.

The Gallery Restaurant: Ascend to a hilltop and indulge in some fine dining with panoramic views of the island. The platter is stylishly served and doesn't disappoint.

Tree House Cafe: A cozy escape from the hustle and bustle of traditional dining. It's a wooden restaurant nestled into the hillside. It's quaint, it's quiet and it serves authentic Thai cuisine.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned within a light gray rectangular box.

Krabi

Krabi Vacation Rentals

From scuba diving through coral reefs to rocking climbing on limestone cliffs, Krabi is a masterpiece of nature, where adventurers dare to dream. You'll rest easy in a luxurious Krabi vacation rental, and wonder how life got this good.

Krabi is a tropical paradise with a population of approximately 32,600. You'll immerse in a melting pot of different cultures and religions, though the majority practice Theravada Buddhism, a religion deeply ingrained into Krabi's social fabric.

Krabi enjoys a warm climate, where it's no surprise that many go to surf the waves, trek through jungles, bungee jump off cliffs and more. You can do all of this or just relax easy under a tropical sun. The choice is yours.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Krabi

There's more to Krabi than stunning landscapes. Here are three festivals close to your Krabi holiday rental, bound to enrich your stay.

Krabi Vegetarian Festival: Where streets are adorned with decorations and people mutilate their bodies. It's a bewildering sight, developing your knowledge on local culture.

Krabi's International Jazz Festival: There's something magical about this soul-touching festival. With an impressive lineup of local and international jazz artists, you'll feel alive with the rhythms of jazz.

Krabi Nega Festival: Krabi ignites with excitement with pop and jazz performances, food stalls and sport competition. Before and after the event, the local community come together for a mass cleanup. It's an inspiring opportunity to connect with the locals.

Choose Krabi Holiday Rentals to See Ao Nang Beach

Krabi fulfills all your vacation dreams, creating incredible memories.

Ao Nang Beach: A beach made in heaven, boasting stunning mountains and soft sands. You'll get the convenience of being close to the towns, without the noise and pollution. A 5-minute walk from accommodation in Krabi.

Mountain Buddha Temple: Feel like an adventurer as you ascend stone stairs with a lush jungle surrounding you, as you discover a large golden Buddha statue. A 5-minute drive from apartments for rent in Krabi.

The Elephant Sanctuary Krabi: Befriend elephants, give them mud baths, and play with them in a pool. This is a great opportunity to interact with beautiful animals in a responsible and ethical manner. A 12-minute drive from holiday lettings in Krabi.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

After a day of bathing on the beach, you'll want to stretch your legs and fill your stomach with delicious cuisine. Here are three restaurants just a walk away from Krabi holiday rentals.

Rakhang Thai Bistro & Bar: A restaurant that ticks all the boxes, where friendly staff serve delicious Thai food as you listen to live music performances.

Thai Me Up Pang: A vibrant and colorful restaurant with exotic spices and sauces. It boasts only Thai cuisine, so that you can have the most authentic dining experience.

Kiran Kitchen Restaurant: Thai, Indian and international cuisine in a restaurant with a soothing ambiance. Even with a large menu, this restaurant manages to create powerful flavors with fresh ingredients.

The logo for 'karta' is displayed in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font. It is positioned on the left side of a light gray rectangular box, which is itself set against a white background.

Laem Set

Laem Set Vacation Rentals

It's time to slow down and feel at one in Laem Set, a paradise getaway that boasts luxurious accommodation on the beach or surrounded by natural beauty. Inside, your Laem Set vacation rental will be a place of comfort and solitude.

With a small population of just over 4,000 residents, Laem Set is a quiet place to unwind. The locals mostly practice Buddhism with values like peace, harmony, and compassion at the center of their hearts, as you feel inspired to adopt a similar lifestyle.

The climate in Laem Set is warm and tropical, and perfect for your beach vacation. The occasional rainshower is short lived, giving you plenty of opportunities to take some spectacular instagrammable shots of Laem Set's lush landscape.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Laem Set

Celebrating Thailand's national holidays has never been so easy, with so many apartments for rent in Laem Set to choose from that are close to the action.

Songkran Festival: Laem Set is transformed into a massive water fight, with everyone splashing each other with buckets, water guns, and hoses. It's a shower of fun and laughter.

The Loy Krathong Festival: The night sky is filled with glowing lanterns, and the ocean illuminated by floating flowers. It's a time for reflection as you immerse in local culture.

The Vegetarian Festival: A testament to the power of faith and willpower, as devotees perform daring acts such as walking on hot coals and piercing their cheeks with sharp objects. It's an awe-inspiring display, not to be missed.

Sightseeing Opportunities in Laem Set

Laem Set is a dream come true, with so many wonders to explore.

Laem Sor Pagodo: A golden beacon of serenity, perched on a rocky outcrop with stunning ocean views. A 14-minute drive from apartments for rent in Laem Set.

The Hin Ta and Hin Yai Rocks: Unusual rock formations resembling male and female genitalia. It makes for a great day out, with stalls in the local area, selling delicious coconut ice cream. An 8-minute walk from accommodation in Laem Set.

Namuang Waterfall: This beautiful waterfall is nestled in a lush jungle. It's a short hike to see a natural wonder that will take your breath away. A 14-minute drive from holiday lettings in Laem Set.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Your time in Laem Set will open the door to exotic flavors with these three restaurants.

Reef Café: Feast your eyes on this quaint cafe from a most booked Laem Set vacation rental. They serve delectable Thai food by the seaside with a charming ambiance of palm trees and clear blue skies.

Somtum Indy Cafe & Restaurant (ร้านส้มตำอินดี้): A rustic restaurant with a waterfall, this place is a family owned restaurant that serves traditional Thai food with European options.

Khrua Chao Ban: Fresh seafood served with love, this restaurant has all the charm of a beachfront hangout place and your chance to try out local ingredients.

The logo for Karta, featuring the word "karta" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font, centered within a light gray rectangular box.

Laguna

Laguna Vacation Rentals

Cast away your troubles and venture to Laguna, a beach where sand continues to where the eyes can't see. You'll spend most of your days breathing in the salty air and resting easy in a cozy Laguna vacation rental.

Laguna is located in Phuket which has a population of around 511,000 people, who are predominantly Buddhist. Their culture and their faith is interconnected as you explore the great wonders of Thailand's religious traditions. You'll visit temples, shrines and stunning architecture, all inspired by the Buddhist faith.

The climate in Laguna is tropical with the best time to visit in December. If you're looking for sun, sunshine and sea, then Laguna beach is your next destination.

Festivities Affecting Apartments Rentals in Laguna

Get ready for some of the most colorful and exciting festivals in Thailand.

Laguna Phuket Marathon: More than just a race, but a celebration of fitness, health, and community, that will take you through some of the most scenic spots in Phuket and it starts near your Laguna holiday rental.

The Phuket Vegetarian Festival: Devotees of the Chinese gods undertake a period of strict vegetarianism and perform acts of self-mortification. It's a unique and spiritual experience that is unforgettable.

Phuket Old Town Festival: From colorful parades and traditional dances to exotic street food and puppet shows, this festival is an electrifying spectacle that offers you a glimpse into the island's rich history.

Choose Laguna Holiday Rentals to See Laguna Beach

Soak up the sun or reconnect with nature, holiday lettings in Laguna offer a package of exotic treats.

Laguna Beach: Linking up with Bang Tao, Laguna is a stunning stretch of soft sands and rippling water. It's a peaceful place, where you can experience magical sunsets and feel at ease. Accommodation in Laguna is less than a five-minute walk away.

Green Elephant Sanctuary Park: An unforgettable experience where you feed elephants, treat them to a mud bath and even get to play with the infants. The business is ethically run by experienced staff, and it's only a 14-minute car drive from apartments for rent in Laguna.

Places to Spend Time Around Your Holiday

Dine in style with these beach restaurants, oozing with ambiance and close to your holiday letting in Laguna.

Smigo's Bar & Restaurant: Eat delectable Thai cuisine under a crimson sunset. You'll be treated to fire shows, DJ sets and friendly service, as you massage your feet into the soft sand of Laguna beach.

Club 22 Beach Bar: Beanbags and bamboo dining tables are this restaurant's defining charm, as you drink cocktails and consume savory delights. Another Laguna beach restaurant not to be missed.

Bodega & Grill: A romantic, Italian restaurant that caters to your needs and takes in special requests. It's a luxurious dining experience that re-energises you after a day on the beach.